Dalimkote Road.—This is also a very important road. Government granted Rs. 15,000 for the construction of this and the Allipore roads, but little could be done on account of the heavy rains. The estimate for this road was resubmitted a long time ago, but up to date it has not been sanctioned. Works, however, have been commenced in anticipation of sanction; and almost all the tea planters have come forward to give us every assistance they can in procuring labour, &c. This road also requires to be renewed. The late District Engineer, Mr. J. J. Beck, gave some ten miles of this road on contract to Mr. Dubois, tea planter, for clearing jungle and hoeing the road, at a ruinous rate, without previous sanction of this office, but now contracts have been secured for the same work at a very moderate rate, and a saving of Rs. 35 per mile thereby effected.

Boda Road.—This road is in rather a better state than the two above named. Rs. 3,016-6 was expended on raising some part of the road and for constructing some bridges and repairing others.

Apalchand Road.—Some six miles of this road were raised at an expenditure of Rs. 1,454-8, but no bridges, it appears, were constructed. This work should have been accounted for as an original work, but for want of estimates it was included in the budget under repairs, and thus the expenditure also was treated as such.

Silliguri Road.—This road may be called the only good road of its kind in the district. The flood did not injure it to the extent anticipated, but some bridges, however, require renewal, and it is believed this road will be thoroughly repaired this year with the amount sanctioned in the budget of the current year.

Some insignificant repairs were done to the Ramshiehat road and Paharpore road.

21. Ferries.—The amount expended under this head represents expenditure on account of the cess year 1876-77.

22. Establishment on district works.—There were some important changes under this head. Mr. N. W. Mackenzie, late District Engineer, resigned his appointment, and Mr. J. J. Beck was appointed in his place; but on account of certain legal proceedings, in which Mr. Beck's conduct was pronounced most unsatisfactory, having been brought to the notice of the committee, he was considered as having entirely lost the confidence of the committee, and was accordingly called on to resign. The case was reported to you in extenso in my letter No. 3 of 16th October 1878, and needs no recapitulation here. Thus it will be seen the committee laboured under a great disadvantage last year in pushing on with the work, much time was spent in correspondences, while the works suffered. Baboo Jadub Chunder Dey, a passed Assistant Engineer, lately in the service of the Northern Bengal State Railway, has been appointed now as District Engineer on the recommendation of the Engineer-in-Chief. Two sub-overseers were discharged and a passed overseer appointed in their stead on a salary of Rs. 72 per mensem, and a saving of Rs. 36 annually was effected.

23. Establishment on collection of revenue.—A saving of Rs. 360 annually has also been effected in this quarter by the abolition of the post of a clerk in the treasury, who was entertained there for keeping Register No. 13, which was discontinued by the Board's instruction from the current year, the book being no longer required to be kept up.

24. There was a balance of Rs. 11,849-13-9, together with Rs. 7,146-1-6, at debit of advances at the end of the year; this latter sum includes stock materials that could not be directly charged to any works. This large balance of Rs. 18,995-15-3 shown in the accounts is solely due to the sum of Rs. 15,000, made over to this fund by Government at a time of the year when works could not go on, not having been expended.

25. The accounts were monthly audited by a sub-committee composed of three members, and the annual accounts also were audited and passed by the same body.

26. No amount was spent this year on village roads, probably on account of no applications having been made for the same.

27. The office was inspected only once during last year by the Deputy Examiner of Public Works Accounts, Bengal, and some defects and errors were pointed out by him, which arose only through the ignorance of the Officiating Accountant in book-keeping. They have been since rectified and the defects entirely removed.

REMARKS.—Six members did not attend any meeting at all, and their names have been since removed from the list. The Executive Engineer of the division attended only once during these six months. The sub-divisional officer, Buxa, did not attend any meeting during this period. Most of the members do not take any real interest in the administration.

From—W. C. MULLER, ESQ., for Deputy Commissioner and Chairman, Julpigoree,
To—The Commissioner of Rajshahye and Cooch Behar Division, Rampore Bauleah.

IN reply to your letter No. 724PW of the 27th ultimo, I have the honor to state that on account of the circumstances noted in paragraph 2 of this letter No. 73 of 23rd November 1878, full details of receipts under the heads "Sales of Produce, &c.," "Fines and Refunds," and "Miscellaneous Revenue," as requested, cannot be accurately supplied. The amount shown under the head "Sales of Produce, &c.," however, was realized chiefly from sale of unserviceable wood. As to the details for the amounts credited under "Fines and Refunds" and "Miscellaneous Revenue," I beg to refer you to paragraphs 13 and 14 respectively of the report submitted with the annual account.

2. The distinguishing numbers of the works under the head "Original Works" could not be given in the account, only because the works were not included and numbered in the printed list of district roads; they are, however, all parts of the Sudder station roads. The Kurla bridge is situated in the Sudder station roads numbered I in the list.

E. G. LILLINGSTON, Capt.,
Chairman.

No. 809PW, dated Rampore Beauleah, the 5th February 1879.

From—Lord H. ULICK BROWNE, Commissioner of the Rajshahye and Cooch Behar Division,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department.

I HAVE the honor to submit in original the District Road Fund annual reports and accounts of the several districts of my division, excepting Darjeeling, for the cess year 1877-78, prepared with special reference to the instructions laid down in Government Circular No. 8A and letter No. 173A, dated 4th and 11th February 1878, respectively. I also enclose the explanations received in reply to calls from my office from the districts of Dinagepore, Bogra, Rungpore, and Julpigoree.

2. The subjoined memorandum shews the dates of first receipt in my office of the district reports and returns, and of final explanations in reply to calls from me.

	Date of 1st receipt.	Date of receipt of final explanation.
Dinagepore,	30th November 1878	19th December 1878.
Rajshahye,	9th January 1879	1st February 1879.
Pubna,	8th „ „	1st „ „
Bogra,	3rd December 1878	20th December 1878.
Rungpore,	20th January 1879	31st January 1879.
Julpigoree,	26th November 1878	11th „ 1879.
Darjeeling,	4th February 1879 returned for correction and re-submission.

3. From the above, it will be seen that, though the Dinagepore report was not very late, in no instance were the reports and returns received on the due dates, while in the case of every district, except Pubna, there were either mistakes and omissions which rendered explanations necessary, or the reports and returns were so incorrectly drawn up that they had to be returned for correction and re-submission. The returns for Rajshahye were drawn up in the old form instead of in the forms prescribed by Government in February 1878, and those for Rungpore were in many respects inaccurate and incomplete. The Darjeeling report and returns were only received yesterday, and notwithstanding this great delay they have been prepared so carelessly, and with such entire neglect of all the standing rules and orders of Government on the subject, that I am obliged to return them to the Deputy Commissioner and Chairman, and I now submit the reports and returns for the other districts, instead of waiting any longer for those for Darjeeling, which will be sent to Government as soon as they are re-submitted, correctly prepared.

4. I now proceed to review briefly the results of the year as regards each district, with the preliminary remark that, in the case of the four districts in the plains, the sudder stations of which are not situated on a railway, the object of constructing raised, bridged, and metalled roads connecting each sudder station with the nearest railway station has been kept steadily in view as the first and most important work, ever since I urged it on the Committees in 1876.

5. Dinagepore.—The cash balance at the close of the preceding year was Rs. 88,025-13-0, and the total receipts from all sources during the year of report amounted to Rs. 1,01,016-14-0, making a total available income of Rs. 1,84,042-11-0. The total outlay was Rs. 1,39,171-12-0, and the balance at the end of the year Rs. 44,870-0-0; but this includes Rs. 11,631-9-0 shewn as advances outstanding, leaving an actual cash balance of Rs. 33,339-5-0. The financial condition of the road fund is therefore good, and although the balance in hand at the expiration of the year is still larger than it ought to be, considering what there is to be done in this district, yet it shews a marked reduction as compared with the figures of the previous year, and is satisfactory as indicating that the road requirements of the district have received fuller attention than in former years.

6. The total outlay on original works and repairs amounted to Rs. 1,04,716-0-0, and this sum appears on the whole to have been properly and judiciously spent. The principal and most important undertaking of the year was the straightening and metalling of the so-called Rungpore road, which connects the district with the Northern Bengal State Railway at Parbuttypore. Of the allotment of Rs. 50,266 for the year, Rs. 47,172 have been spent. The earthwork has been completed at a cost of Rs. 1,800; a quantity of bricks has been made for the metalling; and several old bridges have been repaired. During the current year the work will be pushed on, and it is hoped that the road will be drivable by next rains. It is proposed to throw iron girder bridges over two small rivers, and to leave unbridged two other large rivers, which are branches of the Atrai, as the cost of bridging these is beyond the means at the Committee's disposal. Most of the other main roads of the district have been looked to as much as possible during the year. In some cases the estimates were not sanctioned in time for much to be done; in some considerable damage was done by the heavy floods during last rainy season; and in other instances sufficient labour was not procurable owing to outbreaks of cholera. The cutting of jungle on the Darjeeling road is a satisfactory feature in the year's work, and it is hoped that the ravages of man-eating tigers will be now to some extent checked. Much has not been done to village roads, but the subject is engaging the attention of the Committee. Altogether, then, the results of the year are more satisfactory, and the future prospects more promising, than they have been for some time in this district.

7. Rajshahye.—The total available income of the year amounted to Rs. 60,438, the total expenditure was Rs. 73,574, and the balance in hand at the close of the year was Rs. 95,492.

8. As might be expected with so large a balance unutilized, the outturn of work in this district during the year of report is far from satisfactory. The total expenditure on original works was Rs. 29,206; but of this Rs. 25,129 were spent in the purchase and carriage of stone metal required for the Nattore road; and of the balance, Rs. 829 were expended on working out and surveying the Malanchi feeder road, Rs. 1,082 on raising the Godagaree road, and Rs. 2,011 on the Gobindpore road. The plans and estimates for the Nattore road, the most important project at present in hand, were not submitted to Government in time, and the work on the Malanchi road was commenced too late to enable any progress to be made on either of these roads. The aggregate amount spent on repairs was Rs. 21,966, chiefly on earthwork and timber and bamboo bridges on the Nattore road, on surface repairs and maintenance of bridges on the Beauleah to Orooncoola road, and on the Manda road, 1st section, and the Godagaree road. A good deal appears to have been done to the most important village roads at an outlay of Rs. 5,615, and the interest which the people are beginning to evince in improving these communications may be noted as a hopeful sign.

The general unfavourable results of the year's work are attributed to the change of District Engineers at a season of the year when road works were, or ought to have been, in full operation, and to the Committee's desire to get work executed at rates at which it is almost impossible to procure local labour. In connection with the latter point, it will be seen that the repairs to two roads had to be deferred because the Committee wanted the work done at the rate of Rs. 2 per thousand cubic feet, instead of at the estimated rate of Rs. 2-8. This is no doubt a misplaced economy, as rates must necessarily vary at different places and at different seasons of the year according to the demand and supply. It is hoped, however, that this difficulty will be got over by the adoption of, as far as possible, a uniform table of rates drawn up in consultation with the Superintending Engineer.

10. Pubna.—The total available income of the fund for the year was Rs. 72,109, including a cash balance at the close of the previous year amounting to Rs. 23,856; the total expenditure was Rs. 44,986, and there was a balance at the end of the year to the credit of the fund amounting to Rs. 27,123. From this it would appear that available funds have not been sufficiently utilized. The chief original works undertaken were the road from Orooncoola to Sara railway station, which will provide a good road all the way from Pubna to the railway, the completion of the retired line of the Rajshahye road, and of the road from Pubna to Chatmohur, and fair progress was made in all three. Other main roads also received attention. A few village roads were put in order; but out of an allotment of Rs. 1,500, only Rs. 989 were spent.

11. Bogra.—The total income of the year from all sources was Rs. 1,01,143, and the total expenditure Rs. 69,383, and there was a large balance of Rs. 31,760 at the close of the year, including the value of materials in stock. The fund is therefore in a prosperous state. The principal original works of the year were the completion of a bridge on the Dinagepore road, the construction of several culverts and bridges on the Sultanpore road, and completion of a bridge on the Serajgunge road. The Chatiangram road, the most important as connecting Adamdighee with the railway station, has been raised, straightened, widened to a breadth of 20 feet and turfed, and the foundations of a bridge have been laid over the Akhira, a quarter of a mile from Adamdighee. A large number of bridges and roads were also repaired and the slopes turfed. A sum of Rs. 1,500 was spent on village roads, and the repairs were executed by unofficial agency, I am glad to say, and I noticed some of this work during my last year's tours which was creditable to the village. The outturn of work in this district is on the whole good, and would no doubt have been much better, had not the late District Engineer, Mr. Graves, and the two Overseers neglected their duty. I anticipate a great improvement during the current year.

12. Rungpore.—The total income of the year from all sources was Rs. 2,28,598, the total outlay Rs. 1,88,031, and there was a balance, to the credit of the fund at the close of the year amounting to Rs. 40,567. Large sums of Rs 80,522 and Rs. 65,732 were spent on original works and repairs respectively. The most important original work in hand in this district is the reconstruction or proper construction of the Rungpore and Dhubri road. Earthwork and bridging were well pushed on during the year, but much damage was unfortunately caused by the heavy rains and floods. The bridging of other important roads, e.g. the Bogra road, Rungpore to Kaleegunge road, Cooch Behar road, and Dimagepore road, has received special attention during the year, and good progress has been made. Good work appears to have been done on the memorial bridge over the Alaikuri river. It is satisfactory to note that many village roads were taken in hand, and Rs. 6,343 were spent on them through unofficial agency; altogether the result of the year's work is satisfactory and the programme for the current year is promising.

13. Julpigoree.—The total income of the year from all sources was Rs. 61,796, and the total outlay Rs. 42,800. Owing to the fire in March last, details of the receipts and expenditure during the first half of the cess year cannot be given as required by Government. There was a large balance of Rs. 18,995 at the close of the year, but this includes a grant-in-aid from Government for the Dalimkote and Alipore roads. In the absence of detailed figures for the half or main working portion of the year, the work of the whole year cannot be fully reviewed. From the accounts and report submitted, it is evident that much was not done during the second half of the year. Independently of this season of the year being unfavourable for the prosecution of road work, the unsatisfactory results appear to be due to a great extent to the shortcomings of the District Engineer, Mr. Beck, whose case has been separately reported to Government. The heavy floods of July did much damage to some roads, which it will take time and money to repair. The two most important projects in the hands of the Committee are the construction of the Julpigoree to Dalimkote and the Julpigoree to Alipore roads, for which Government have sanctioned Rs. 15,000, and these works will, it is expected, be effectively pushed on during the current cess year. The Committee were unfortunate in losing nearly Rs. 1,000, the outlay on the bridge over the Kurlah river, which was swept away by the unprecedentedly high floods of the year. This sum the Committee could ill-afford to lose.

14. The Committee meetings appear to have been fairly attended in most districts, and some of the non-official members have given efficient assistance to the Chairman, but there is still room for much improvement in this direction. The Act appears to continue to work smoothly and without complaints, and the people evidently appreciate the advantages of improved communications.

No. 903PW, dated Julpigoree, the 31st March 1879.

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department.

IN continuation of my letter No. 809PW, dated 5th February 1879, I have the honor to submit in original the District Road Fund report and accounts of Darjeeling for the cess year 1877-78. I regret that there has been a considerable delay in their submission to Government, owing to the returns and report having been twice returned to the Deputy Commissioner and Chairman for correction, &c.

2. The Road Cess Act was extended to this district during the year 1876, but no operations were undertaken till March 1877. The valuation of the district was completed in December 1877, and the year 1877-78 was the first year in which collections of the cess were made.

3. The total amount at the disposal of the Committee for expenditure was Rs. 28,287-3-5 in all. This amount includes Rs. 5,000, which were given as grant-in-aid, and Rs. 10,000, which were advanced by Government. The expenditure incurred during the year amounted to Rs. 15,036-7-6, leaving a balance of Rs. 13,250-11-11 at the credit of the fund at the close of the year.

4. The total outlay on works amounted to Rs. 11,641-14-8, namely, Rs. 1,449-10-5 on original works, and Rs. 10,192-4-3 on repairs. The sum shown as expended on original works was laid out in the construction of cane suspension bridges over the Balasun. As the funds at the disposal of the District Road Cess Committee were quite inadequate to maintain the services of a sufficient engineering establishment, these bridges were constructed by contractors, who kept them in thorough repair throughout the year; some of the district roads were also made over to the planters for repair, a lump sum being granted for each road. In every case the work done by the planters was pronounced to have been efficiently performed after inspection by the Vice-Chairman. I must remark here that some money appears to have been spent on works on some of the frontier roads not in the Committee's list. If so, it was irregular.

5. On the whole, the Act has worked well so far; the meetings appear to have been fairly attended by the members, but no information as to the number of sittings of the Committee can be given, owing to the loss of the minute-book.

6. No action, it seems, was taken by the Committee in carrying out the orders of Government contained in circular No. 10, dated 28th October 1878, on the subject of planting trees along the lines of roads. The Deputy Commissioner promises to pay attention to the subject during the ensuing year.

5. From and after the commencement of this Act every license granted to a jute warehouse within the town of Calcutta under Bengal Act II of 1872 or Bengal Act II of 1875, shall be subject to the payment of an annual fee, to be fixed by the Local Government, after consulting the Commissioners at a special meeting, and to be paid in such instalments as the Commissioners may direct.

17. The Commissioner of Police for the town of Calcutta shall, as soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, take charge of the existing fire-brigade, with all buildings, engines, animals, accoutrements, tools and implements, and thereafter from time to time make such further or other provision as he may deem expedient in order to maintain it efficiently for the town and suburbs of Calcutta.

Local Government may make orders.

18. The Local Government may from time to time make, and when made, alter or repeal such general or special orders as it may think fit—

For appointing or removing any member or officer of the force.

For furnishing the fire-brigade with such fire-engines, fire-escapes, horses, oxen, accoutrements, tools and implements as it may think proper.

For building, providing, or hiring places for the keeping of the force, engines, horses and appurtenances.

For giving gratuities to persons who have given notice of fires.

For the training, discipline, good conduct, salaries, and pensions of the members of the force.

For the speedy attendance of such members with engines and all necessary implements on the occasion of any alarm of fire.

For sending the force, engines and appurtenances beyond the limits of the town and suburbs of Calcutta in order to extinguish fire in the neighbourhood of the said limits.

For imposing and summarily realizing a fine not exceeding one week's wages from any member of the brigade who may infringe these bye-laws.

Generally, for the maintenance of the fire-brigade in a due state of efficiency.

Such orders shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette, and shall take effect from such publication.

Powers of fire-brigade in cases of fire.

19. On the occasion of a fire, the chief or other officer in charge of the fire-brigade on the spot may

(a) remove, or may order any member of the brigade to remove, any persons who by their presence interfere with the due operation of the brigade;

(b) by himself or by his men break into or through, or pull down, any premises for the purpose of putting an end to the fire, doing as little damage as possible;

(c) cause the mains and pipes of any district to be shut off, so as to give greater pressure of water in the place where the fire has occurred;

(d) call on the officer in charge of the Port Commissioners' fire-engine to render such assistance as may be possible in the case of any fire occurring near the river bank;

(e) and, generally, take such measures as may appear necessary for the preservation of life and property.

Police officers to render assistance

Police officers of all grades shall be authorized to aid the fire-brigade in the execution of its duties. They may close any street in or near which a fire is burning, and they may, of their own motion or on the request of the chief or other officer of the fire-brigade, remove any persons who interfere by their presence with the operations of the fire-brigade.

Damage done to be deemed damage by fire.

Any damage done by the fire-brigade in the due execution of their duties shall be deemed to be damage by fire within the meaning of any policy of insurance of property in Calcutta or the suburbs against fire.

But nothing in this section shall exempt any officer of the police or of the fire-brigade from liability to damages on account of any acts done by him without reasonable cause.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE HEALTH OFFICER OF THE PORT OF CALCUTTA.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.—MARINE.

Calcutta, the 23rd May 1879.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

A letter from the Sanitary Commissioner for Bengal, dated 15th April 1878, forwarding the report of the Health Officer of the Port of Calcutta for the year 1878.

1. The report is submitted by Dr. French, who resumed charge of his appointment in July. Dr. Joubert and Dr. Wall officiated during the first portion of the year. The report would seem to have been detained for nearly two months in the Sanitary Commissioner's office for no apparent reason, as it is now forwarded without any remarks or criticisms by Dr. Coates.

2. The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to learn that the relations between the Health Officer and the shipping community are now more satisfactory than they were. When the Health Officer first assumed charge of his duties in 1875, the nature of his appointment and the object of his inspections were frequently misunderstood by commanders of ships, and he met with considerable opposition; but it is stated that he is now generally looked upon by both commanders and men as 'the best friend that the sailors have in the port,' and every disposition is shown to afford him information and assistance.

3. The number of sailing ships inspected on arrival and departure was 852 against 701 in the previous year. Besides these, steamers and coasting vessels were repeatedly inspected, and visits were occasionally made to ships lying in the harbour, for special enquiries. In future reports the precise number of inspections made and vessels visited should be given, the figures being classified with reference to the character and registry of the vessel, whether belonging to the Foreign or Home trade, steam or sailing, British or other nationality. There can be no difficulty in making a correct note of these facts in the case of each vessel visited. Of 494 in-coming sailing ships, the nationality of which was noted down at the time, 411 were British, 49 French, 12 American, 13 Arab, 1 Italian, 4 Turkish, 3 German, and 1 Norwegian. For sanitary purposes cargo is classified as foul and clean, and all ships bringing foul cargoes are repeatedly cleansed and carefully disinfected. The water-supply on board in-coming ships was found to be good in all but twenty cases. There appear to have been few complaints as to the quality of the provisions supplied at sea. As regards both provisions and accommodation, American ships are found to be superior to all others. Lime-juice is carried on these vessels, but not regularly issued, as the crews are generally well supplied with molasses, pickles, vegetables, and even fresh-baked bread. It is not supplied on board French and German vessels, but these again generally keep a large stock of potatoes, which are an excellent preventive of scurvy. In French ships coffee, claret, or brandy is also issued daily. Nearly all out-going ships take a full supply of water from the municipal hydrants. In the course of the year only five ships (all of them Arab,) were found to have taken water from the river.

4. The report bears testimony to the great improvement which has taken place in recent years in the accommodation provided for the crews in British ships. It is, however, from a sanitary point of view, to be regretted that the practice of lining iron ships with planks, which was started some years ago, is being abandoned. The lining acted as a non-conductor and afforded protection to the men in the forecastle in both hot and cold weather. It is now objected to by surveyors, on the ground that it must always be removed to admit of free examination of the inside of the iron plates; but Dr. French points out that their objection might be satisfactorily met by the use of felt, which could be easily removed and replaced after the survey. Local ships also have begun to provide better accommodation for their men.

5. An important duty of the Health Officer is to watch the sanitary condition of the banks of the river and suggest improvements. A good deal was done in this direction last year. The foreshore at Neemtollah was embanked to prevent accumulation of animal and vegetable refuse along it. On the premises of the East Indian Railway, the Kidderpore Dockyard, and several docks and mills along the banks, latrines which used to discharge night-soil into the river have been closed and replaced by others unconnected with the river. During the year 128 corpses and 2,528 carcasses were found floating in the port and were immediately sunk. The nuisance caused to the shipping below Fort Point by the discharge of night-soil from the Fort continues. The scheme of connecting the Fort drain with the municipal sewers, recommended by the Committee appointed in 1877, is still under the consideration of the Military authorities. The Lieutenant-Governor must again express a hope that it will be found possible before long to carry out some measure which will put a stop to the undoubted nuisance now existing.

6. The total number of seamen who visited the port in British ships last year was 18,965. There were 3,292 cases of illness admitted into the hospitals, the principal diseases being malarious fevers, diarrhœa, dysentery, heat apoplexy or sunstroke, and cholera. The deaths were eighty in number, giving a ratio of 24·3 per mille on the number treated. (The percentages given in paragraph 22 of the Health Officer's report are entirely wrong.) Besides these, twenty-six deaths, including nine from drowning and six from sunstroke, occurred on the river.

7. Orders were issued during the year for the submission of periodical returns to the Health Officer, from the hospitals and the office of the Port Commissioners, to enable him to ascertain the rates of sickness and mortality in different sections of the port, and the effect which the discharge of night-soil from the Fort has on the health of the shipping. Complete returns for the year in the prescribed form could not be obtained; but the Health Officer has submitted statements showing the number of berths occupied at the different moorings, and the number of cases admitted into hospital from each mooring during the last four months of the year. These statements show that the majority of cases came from the moorings at Hastings, the Esplanade, and Prinsep's Ghât, but afford no positive proof of the greater unhealthiness of these moorings, as they were also the most crowded in the river. Dr. French is inclined to hold that no portion of the river is more unhealthy than the rest, and also expresses the opinion that the night-soil from the Fort, although a great nuisance, is not injurious to the health of the shipping. This latter view is opposed to that held by most other medical officers who have considered the subject, and seems to be based on the theory that 'fresh night-soil floating in water cannot affect the health of the crew of a ship by flowing past it for an hour or so.' In the first place, however, the night-soil, as let out with the sewage of the Fort at low water, is not 'fresh,' but in a state of high decomposition and combined with other refuse matter of the most deleterious kind. Then, again, the sewage is not carried away at once, but is frequently caught and brought back by the flood tide and kept about the ships, while the men use the water for washing their clothes, their persons, and the decks of the ships, thus saturating everything about them with noxious matter. The river banks also become foul from the deposit of filth cast there by the eddies. The Lieutenant-Governor cannot understand how any reasonable doubt can exist as to the insanitary character of such a state of things.

8. The most fatal diseases from which seamen suffered during the year were cholera and heat apoplexy. Cholera was most prevalent in March, April, and May, during which period 27 cases and 20 deaths occurred out of a total of 46 cases and 29 deaths for the whole year. The report contains particulars of 44 cases. In the great majority of cases, the attack followed closely on a visit to the town, while in many there was reason to suspect adulteration in the milk sold by native bum-boats to the crews. Compared with 1876 and 1877, in which there were 110 and 55 cases respectively, the past year showed an improvement in the number and severity of cholera cases. There were sixteen deaths from heat apoplexy during the year. This serious mortality is the more to be deplored, because it could be easily avoided by simple precautions on the part of commanders and their men. Dr. French has lately drawn up some plain rules for the treatment of these cases, and the Lieutenant-Governor earnestly hopes that they will be generally observed.

9. Cases of scurvy show a remarkable decrease. There were only twelve in the past year as against thirty-nine in 1877 and twenty-nine in 1876, and no death occurred. Half the cases came from a single vessel, and were due to bad provisions and weak lime-juice served out during a very long voyage of 136 days from Trinidad. This was, however, not the only case in which the lime-juice used on boardship was found on analysis to be of very inferior quality. In two instances the lime-juice appears to have passed through the Calcutta Custom House. The Lieutenant-Governor must insist on very careful inspection of the stocks taken on board before a certificate is granted under the rules, and desires that the Health Officer will bring to his notice every case in which there has been laxity in working the rules. Seven cases of typhoid fever were admitted into hospital during the year. Three cases occurred on board a vessel which brought a cargo of horses from Melbourne, and were probably due to foul emanations from the horse-deck.

10. There are now twelve boats, large and small, supplying water from the Municipal pipes to the shipping. The arrangements appear to give general satisfaction. One commander informed the Health Officer that Calcutta water suited his men so well that before starting for Liverpool he had stored sufficient water for the return as well as the home voyage.

11. Doolies for the conveyance of sick seamen were started in 1877 at Telkul Ghât, Coilah Ghât, and Prinsep's Ghât. They are in constant attendance, and have proved very useful. From May to December in the past year they carried 313 men out of 2,648 admitted into hospital. This number represents the urgent cases. In less serious cases the patients walk or hire a public conveyance.

12. In connection with this report, the Lieutenant-Governor has much pleasure in recognizing the useful and philanthropic work now being done by the Committee which has undertaken the opening and maintenance of sailors' coffee-rooms. It is to be hoped that the Committee's efforts to draw sailors away from the low haunts of the bazars to their own attractive and well managed rooms will meet with increasing success.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

A. MACKENZIE,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

LIBERALITY OF CERTAIN NATIVE GENTLEMEN OF THE DISTRICT OF DACCA IN AFFORDING RELIEF TO INDIGENT PEOPLE IN THEIR NEIGHBOURHOOD.

No. 171T., dated Darjeeling, the 20th May 1879.

From—A. MACKENZIE, Esq., Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal, Revenue Department,
To—The Commissioner of the Dacca Division.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 151, dated the 3rd instant, bringing to notice the fact that, in order to relieve the distress that existed in parts of Dacca last year, certain native gentlemen of that district very liberally established depôts for the sale of rice at low prices, and distributed rice gratis to the really indigent in their own neighbourhood.

2. In reply, I am to say that the Lieutenant-Governor highly appreciates the liberality of these gentlemen, and will cause the facts to be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

No. 151, dated Dacca, the 3rd May 1879.

From—F. B. PEACOCK, Esq., Commissioner of the Dacca Division,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department.

I HAVE the honor to submit the following report for the information of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor.

In reply to this call, I think it right to report that Baboos Janoky Nath Roy, Bykunto Nath Roy, Kishory Mohun Roy, and Gopi Mohun Roy of the well-known Bhaggocool Kundoo family, as well as Baboo Brojendro Kumar Roy of Baliaty, at once commenced relief operations.

3. These, so far as the Kundoo family were concerned, were confined to pergunnah Vikrampore in the Moonsheegunge sub-division. Relief-houses were opened at Moonsheegunge, Sherajdhikha, and Bhaggocool, the first and the last being at the two extremities of the pergunnah, and the second in its centre. The Baboos bought rice and paddy and sold them to the poorer classes at 33 per cent. below market rates, while rice and paddy were distributed gratis to those who were considered to be unable to pay even these reduced rates.

4. Baboo Brojendro Kumar Roy of Baliaty carried on similar measures of relief in the Manickgunge sub-division. He opened two depôts, one at Baliaty and the other at Manickgunge. Rice was sold at a very cheap rate twice a week in the former, and on the market day only in the latter; but impoverished persons of the middle class were allowed to buy at these rates whenever they wished. Subsequently, two additional depôts were opened, one at Shatooria and the other at Dhamrai. In the Manickgunge sub-division rice was distributed gratis in those cases where the recipients were found unable to pay, while it was sent privately to the houses of those who, though in indigent circumstances, were reluctant to come to the depôts.

5. The liberality displayed on this occasion by the gentlemen above mentioned will, I hope, be considered such as to merit recognition, and I would ask that I may be permitted to convey to them His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor's appreciation of it.

THE DEHREE TRAINING SCHOOL.

The 26th May 1879.—The following papers relative to the admission of candidates into the Dehree Training School are published for general information.

D. B. HORN,

Asst. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal,
P. W. Dept., Irrign. Branch.

Memorandum for the information of applicants for admission into the Dehree Training School.

A GOVERNMENT school for training youths for the position of foremen mechanics has been open for some years at Dehree-on-Sone in connection with the Dehree Workshops.

2. Due notice of vacancies will be given by public advertisement.

3. Ordinarily 12 boys will be admitted about October each year, who will be appointed by Government on the recommendation of the Chief Engineer in the Irrigation Branch; after the result of the competitive examination is known.

4. Candidates for admission must produce—

(1) a certificate of birth or age (form attached);
(2) satisfactory evidence as to their moral character;
(3) a certificate from the school where the candidate has been educated, showing his qualifications and how far he has advanced in each branch of study;
(4) a medical certificate of sound health and physical fitness for manual labor, which should be in the prescribed form (attached).

5. On the first day of October of the year of their admission, candidates must be above 15 but under 17 years of age, or they will not be allowed to appear at the entrance examination.

6. At the entrance examination, which will generally be held about September, candidates will be examined in—(1) Dictation; (2) Arithmetic (including proportion, vulgar and decimal fractions); (3) Euclid (First Book); (4) Algebra (up to and including simple equations). Any boy who fails to satisfy the examiner in dictation will not be allowed to proceed further with the examination.

7. If there are more candidates than vacancies, the most qualified will be selected, provided the medical certificate furnished is considered satisfactory.

8. Apprentices may be either European (and Eurasian) or Native. The former are obliged to reside in the school under the superintendence of the schoolmaster. Rs. 20 per month is allowed for their subsistence. Of this sum one-fourth, or Rs. 5, is payable (in advance) by their parents or guardians; the remaining three-fourths is paid by Government. Native apprentices receive Rs. 8 per month as subsistence allowance. Of this sum Re. 1 only is payable (in advance) by their parents or guardians, the remainder being paid by Government.

9. That part of the subsistence allowance which is payable by parents or guardians must be sent to the Executive Engineer, Dehree Workshop Division, Dehree-on-Sone, Shahabad, by money-orders payable at Arrah. If more convenient, the money may be paid in Calcutta to the Executive Engineer, Northern Drainage and Embankment Division, No. 1, Commercial Buildings, Calcutta, whose receipt must be sent at once to the Executive Engineer, Dehree Workshop Division.

10. An apprentice whose subsistence allowance is two months in arrears will be removed without further notice. Parents and guardians will be warned when the subsistence allowance is one month overdue. No subsistence allowance will be payable by parents and guardians on account of any boy whose earnings are sufficient to cover the whole cost of his maintenance, and such sum as is under the standing orders of the school payable to the apprentice himself.

11. The boys will be bound by an agreement to serve an apprenticeship of four years (see form attached for conditions), and will be solely under the control of the Executive Engineer of the Dehree Workshop Division for the time being.

12. The boys will spend the greater part of their time in the workshops, but will receive instruction in the school in mathematics and other subjects likely to prove useful to them in the exercise of their trade.

13. The Executive Engineer, Dehree Workshop Division, has the power, subject to the previous sanction of the Superintending Engineer, to remove an apprentice who is guilty of—

(a) habitual or gross misconduct;
(b) continued idleness or indifference in the workshop or school.

14. No boy will be kept in the school who from any cause appears unlikely to prove qualified as a foreman mechanic. On this point the decision of the Superintending Engineer will be final.

15. Apprentices who pass through the school are not guaranteed appointments, but an endeavour will be made to provide for those whose character and attainments seem likely to fit them for employment in the Public Works Department.

16. Apprentices who do not receive appointments will have received without charge a good education and efficient instruction in mechanical engineering; whilst receiving this instruction they will have been for the most part supported by Government. If industrious, they cannot fail to secure a respectable livelihood.

17. With a view of providing for orphans and for cases in which candidates are in indigent circumstances, free nominations will be given to a few selected candidates. In these cases the Rs. 5 ordinarily payable by parents or guardians (vide paragraph 8) will be paid by Government. But not more than four free admissions will be given in any one year, and candidates will only receive them if their place in the competitive entrance examination justified their admission. Every applicant for a free nomination should state clearly his grounds for asking the favor.

18. Suitable clothing must be provided by parents or guardians.

19. Any further information that may be required can be obtained from the Office of the Chief Engineer for Irrigation in Bengal, No. 12, Writers' Buildings, Calcutta.

May 1879.

Orissa Divn. 37	Cuttack May 24 '79	0·02	Atmosphere very clear. Wind variable. Showers local. Spring crops generally good. Mango-yield excellent. Rain much wanted for ploughing.
38	Pooree, Khoorda „ 22 „	0·02 0 18	Weather—hot in Pooree, sultry in Khoorda. Harvesting of late dalua crop almost over; outturn poor. Sugarcane and cotton crops require rain Two showers in city of Pooree on 22nd, and rain reported from Banpore. Common rice sells at 15¼ to 21 seers a rupee. Public health good.
39	Balasore, „ 23 „	Nil	Weather—very hot, but tolerably cool nights. Occasional high winds. Want of rain causes anxiety in respect of early rice, which, however, is only about 5 per cent. of district crop. In some parts ploughing which had begun now at a stand-still; in others, ploughing not attempted at all Continued drought and scarcity of good water intensifying cholera, especially in south.
	CHOTA NAGPORE
	South-West Frontier Agency.
40	Hazareebagh, May 23 '79	0 36	Weather—seasonable. A slight shower on 19th somewhat cooled air, but not sufficient to admit of any agricultural operations being attempted. Small-pox still prevalent.
41	Lohardugga, „ 24 „	0·65	Slight showers here and there, doing more harm than good. Ploughing stopped for want of rain. Prices rising in Palamow. Cattle suffering from want of grass. Small-pox still prevalent, and several fatal cases of cholera reported.
42	Singbhoom, „ 23 „	Nil	Weather—cooler and a change seems threatening, but no rain has fallen. Rain urgently needed; all agricultural operations at a complete stand-still.
43	Manbhoom, „ 24 „	0·73	A few showers at head-quarters, but not enough to do any good. Temperature, however, lower. Rain very much wanted. Only sugarcane and cotton crops on ground. Complaints from various quarters of insufficiency of water for drinking and culinary purposes. Much sickness about.

The mean pressure, temperature, &c, are deduced from observations made at 6h., 10h., 16h., and 22h.; the maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula

The direction and movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

EAST INDIAN RAILWAY, TRAFFIC MANAGER'S OFFICE, JAMALPORE, THE 16TH MAY 1879.

Remarks on Traffic of East Indian Railway for four weeks ending 26th April 1879.

THE approximate figures for the period are—

	Coaching.		Goods.		Total.
	No.	Rs.	Mds	Rs.	Rs.
1879	654,405	8,72,694	58,99,395	25,59,724	34,32,418
1878	576,389	7,89,260	55,03,441	20,48,194	28,37,454
Increase	78,016	83,434	3,95,954	5,11,530	5,94,964
Decrease	....	.....	.....	.....	.....

The traffic for the period, both coaching and goods, exhibits a satisfactory increase of over 20 per cent.

The staples in which increases and decreases show most prominently are—

Increases.

Coal, up. | Piece-goods. | Sugar.
Do. down. | Railway materials, foreign. | Timber.
Cotton. | Salt.

Decreases.

Beer, Commissariat. | Seeds.
Ghee and oil. | Stone.

Increases.

Coal, up ... ... Mds. 49,812 Rs. 52,437

A steady demand for coal for the Sindh, Punjab, and Delhi, and Punjab Northern State Railways, has been kept up during the month.

The supply to the Oudh and Rohilkund at Benares has been partially stopped owing to accumulation of stocks.

Coal, down ... ... Mds. 87,703 Rs. 12,382

Although this traffic shows an increase over the corresponding period of 1878, it has fallen from what it was last month. The figures for the two months being—

	Weight carried.	Earnings.
March 1879	Tons. 58,817	Rs. 2,21,200
April „	„ 48,000	„ 1,78,650
Cotton	Mds. 1,70,116	„ 3,28,800

A brisk demand existed throughout the month, and the exports have been from Calcutta—

	Bales.
To Europe	25,600
To China	5,810

showing an increase of 4,220 bales over March last.

Piece-goods ... ... Mds. 62,642 Rs. 69,379

Owing to favourable prices in Calcutta.

Railway materials, foreign ... ... „ 85,604 „ 92,795

This consisted chiefly of despatches from Howrah to Bankipore and Agra of permanent-way and other materials for the State Railways.

Salt ... ... Mds. 79,716 Rs. 16,669

The principal increase is in salt from the Rajpootana Salt Lakes vid Agra and vid Delhi.

Sugar and jaggree ... ... Mds. 1,57,381 Rs. 4,719

This traffic shows a considerable increase in weight with but a small increase in receipts.

There has been an improvement generally in this traffic compared with last year, owing to more favourable crops.

Timber—Increase ... ... Mds. 13,547
Decrease. ... ... Rs. 4,626

Decreases.

Beer, Commissariat ... ... Mds. 6,854 Rs. 15,717

Our traffic in this article, as may be expected, is very light this year, owing to the introduction of hill brewed beer for consumption by the troops.

Ghee and oil ... ... Mds. 5,740 Rs. 6,862

This is not a large decrease, and is caused probably by the high prices ruling in the producing districts.

Seeds—Decrease ... ... Mds. 1,83,024
Increase ... ... Rs. 5,139

The figures for the two stations of Patna and Cawnpore will explain the above.

At Patna alone the falling off has amounted to maunds 1,07,700 and Rs. 39,200, but this has to some extent been counterbalanced by larger despatches from Cawnpore this year, the returns showing an increase from that station alone of maunds 22,900, Rs 19 200, while other stations in the North-West above Cawnpore also shew a more favourable traffic.

The great decrease in weight is therefore to be found at Patna and stations below Cawnpore.

The direction of the bulk of the seed traffic has this year been towards Calcutta, and this will account for the improvement in earnings.

Stone ... ... Mds. 22 077 Rs. 699

This is due to less rubble stone for roads having been despatched from Luckeeserai to Bankipore and Patna.

Grain Traffic.

There has been an improvement in the wheat and other grain traffic, but rice and pulses continue to compare unfavourably with last year.

The wheat traffic has this year been chiefly in the direction of the Great Indian Peninsular stations for local consumption, and a moderate quantity to Bombay for shipment, but there being little or no demand in Calcutta, the receipts have fallen owing to the shorter lead over the main line.

In pulses there has been a fair traffic, and although it does not compare favourably with last year, when there was an abnormal demand, yet the figures are an improvement on 1877, thus—

	Weight carried.	Earnings.
1877	Mds. 1,04,693	Rs. 21,516
1879	„ 1,61,180	„ 35,885

Rice shews a decrease of 28,000 maunds and 13,300 rupees.

The Calcutta market has been dull, and our despatches from most of the stations on the Loop-line and Lower Bengal fell off.

Exports from Calcutta for the two periods shew—

1878	Tons 28,000
1879	„ 16,200

Tabulated, the grain traffic appears thus—

	Increases.		Decreases.
	Mds.	Rs.	Mds.	Rs.

The train mileage for the period is—

1878	192,155	370,614	562,769

1878	4 1 9	5 8 6	5 0 8
Increase	0 8 0	0 3 6	0 5 10

The earnings per train mile may, I think, be considered very satisfactory, and may be accounted for by the fact that, while the grain traffic more closely approximates that for the previous year, the very large increase in cotton raises the average earnings

Eastern Bengal Railway.

Report on the Goods Traffic for the four weeks ending 26th April 1879.

Dated Calcutta, the 15th May 1879.

From—W. INNES, ESQ., Acting Traffic Superintendent, Eastern Bengal Railway,

To—The Agent, Eastern Bengal Railway Company, Calcutta.

THE total weight of goods carried over this railway during the above period was 5,52,883 maunds, which, as compared with the corresponding period of last year, shews a decrease of 1,22,041 maunds. This decrease is chiefly in the following articles VIZ.:—

Cotton, gunny, rice, sugar, tobacco, and miscellaneous goods.

The articles shewing the largest increase are hides, bundles and bales, jute, drums and bales, piece-goods, salt and seeds.

Decreases.

Cotton, bundles ... ... Mds. 3,387

This staple shews a falling off in the quantity received in bundles counteracted in a great measure by the increase in bales, which is 1,883 maunds, being an actual decrease of 1,504 maunds only.

Gunny ... ... { Bundles ... Mds. 6,425 / Bales ... „ 184

This decrease is owing to the reduced demand for bags for the conveyance of grain, &c.

Grain, including rice... ... ... Mds. 1,78,855

The backward season, owing to scarcity of rain and no arrivals of new grain, accounts for this large decrease.

Sugar ... ... Mds. 5,285

This decrease is to be attributed to the small demand, owing to the present low prices.

Tobacco ... ... Mds 7,870

This decrease may be attributed to a lull in the demand.

Miscellaneous goods ... ... Mds. 18,161

This shews a great improvement on last month, although there is a falling off as compared with last year owing to the depressed state of trade.

Increases.

Hides ... ... { Bundles ... Mds. 2,802 / Bales ... „ 8,432

This staple fluctuates according to the demand, and this shews a small increase on last report.

Jute ... ... { Drums ... Mds. 23,877 / Bales ... „ 9,675

This staple shews a marked increase, and is attributable to a greater demand on the local mills and for export owing to low prices.

Piece-goods ... ... Mds. 11,262

This increase is owing to the demand for replenishing stock before the rains commence.

Salt ... ... Mds. 23,087

This shews a satisfactory increase which I expect will continue.

Seeds ... ... Mds. 17,214

This increase may be attributed to an in-coming of new crop.

I attach the usual statement of Decreases and Increases.

EASTERN BENGAL RAILWAY.

Report of Fluctuation of Traffic on the Tirhoot State Railway for the month of April 1879.

INCREASES.

Coal ... ... Mds. 2,490
Mostly for brick-burning at Durbhunga.

Hides and horns ... ... ,, 2,236
This increase is due to local collections and good demand.

Iron ... ... ,, 5,466
Entirely dependent on local requirements.

Piece-goods ... ... ,, 10,850
This is the only favourable feature of the month's traffic. The import of English piece-goods into the district and into the interior is steadily increasing.

Railway materials ... ... Mds. 1,904
This is dependent on railway works under construction.

Salt ... ... ,, 3,376
This is but a slight increase, and the traffic in this staple promises to improve as the weather moderates.

DECREASES.

Food-grains ... ... Mds. 12,163
The railway drains the district of all product, and prices of all grain is considerably enhanced; and after the past two extraordinarily dry seasons experienced, local prices have been raised to a par with the average rates quoted at sea-port marts.

Indigo ... ... Mds. 35
This decrease is unimportant, and is due to an exceptional late despatch in 1877.

Seeds, indigo ... ... ,, 1,289
This decrease is due to early import in the year.

Seeds, oil... ... ... ,, 33,204
The same remark applies to this staple as to food-grains.

Saltpetre... ... ... ,, 436
This is but a small decrease.

Sugar ... ... ,, 6,597
The falling off in this staple is attributable to the two preceding dry seasons and to no irrigation of the lands.

Tobacco ... ... Mds. 2 973
A few years back tobacco realized such a high price that the ryots went in generally for the plant, the consequence being that the market is glutted, and the tobacco of two seasons is on hand and can find no price.

Miscellaneous goods ... ... Mds. 12,137
No reason can be assigned for fluctuation under this heading which comprises all other goods not specified.

D. B. HORN,
for Joint-Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal,
P. W. Dept., Irrign. Branch.

RULES UNDER ACT III (B. C.) OF 1876.

1. The Collector, before awarding compensation under section 16, or making a reference under section 17, of the Act, shall obtain the written opinion of the Superintending Canal Officer, which shall form part of the record of the proceedings.

2. Water shall not be granted where, in the opinion of the Divisional Canal Officer, loss from wastage is likely to occur.

3. Water shall not ordinarily be granted where the length of the village channel, from its head to its point of contact with the village boundary, exceeds two (2) miles.

4. Water for irrigation shall not be supplied, except through a village channel so constructed and maintained that, in the opinion of the Divisional Canal Officer—

(a)—the water will pass without wastage;

(b)—the existing necessary lines of communication, the flow of drainage water, and the passage of water for irrigation will not be obstructed.

5. Persons desirous (i) of constructing a village channel, (ii) of registering a channel already constructed, (iii) of taking water from a village channel, or (iv) of taking water from any outlet provided by Government, shall prefer a written application to the Divisional Canal Officer, or to some officer duly authorised by him to receive such applications. In the first two cases (i) and (ii), if the application be received by an officer subordinate to the Divisional Canal Officer, it shall be forwarded to him for orders.

6. An application under rule 5 shall, if granted, and unless otherwise specially agreed upon, be subject to the following conditions :—

(a)—That the water supplied shall not be used for other purposes than irrigation without the written consent of the Divisional or Sub-divisional Canal Officer.

(b)—That the Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall, in consultation with the applicants, appoint a headman (to be called "Suttadar"), known or ascertained to be a substantial person possessed of property, to attend to their interests, to receive and carry out the orders of the Canal Officers, to distribute the water among the shareholders in the village channel according to their shares.

(c)—That in any case where the Sub-divisional Canal Officer cannot agree with the applicants in the appointment of a Suttadar, the Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall make the appointment himself, subject to the approval of the Divisional Canal Officer.

(d)—That the Collector shall appoint a headman (to be called Tehsildar) whose sole duty will be to collect and pay in to the Collector, or other duly authorized person, all water-rates leviable on the lands watered from the village channel.

(e)—That the Tehsildar shall furnish security for the payment of all sums realized by him, the stamp and registration fees on security bonds being deducted from the percentage allowed under rule 11.

(f)—That previous to water being taken for any field, a written application shall be made to the Sub-divisional Canal Officer or any subordinate authorized by the Divisional Canal Officer to receive such applications, and that no water shall be taken until after the receipt of a "permit" (Appendix B) from competent authority.

(g)—That in any case where the Divisional Canal Officer, owing to the known recusancy of any village, or of any class of cultivators, anticipates that there is likely to be difficulty in the realization of the water-rates, he shall intimate the same to the Collector, in whose option it shall be to require payment of water-rates in advance, and the Collector shall inform the Divisional Canal Officer of any villages where he considers that water should not be granted without previous payment

(h)—That any other cultivators in the same village, able and willing to irrigate their lands from the village channel, may, subject to the approval of the Divisional Canal Officer, be admitted as shareholders in it, on paying their proportionate share of the first cost and maintenance thereof, to be determined by the amount of irrigable land held by them.

(i)—That all alterations in the number of shareholders or distribution of shares shall be reported to the Sub-divisional Canal Officer for the sanction of the Divisional Canal Officer.

7. The Divisional Canal Officer is empowered to pay to the Suttadar appointed under rule 8 the fees detailed in the rule next following, subject to the condition of satisfactory performance of duty.

8. The allowance to the Suttadar for duties connected with that village channel, such as arranging that it shall be kept in proper repair, seeing that no lands obtain water without a regular "permit," distributing the water to the shareholders, seeing to the outlet being closed according to the orders of the Divisional Canal Officer, and generally assisting the officers of the Irrigation Department, shall be one-half anna in the rupee on the amount of canal water-rates assessed on the lands irrigated from the village channel under his charge. The Divisional Canal Officer may retrench the whole or any part of the fees under this rule in the event of the conditions not being complied with.

9. The allowance to the Tehsildar of a village channel for collecting the water-rates shall be one-half anna in the rupee on the amount actually paid in by him. If the Tehsildar shall satisfy the Collector that arrears have not accrued through any negligence on his part, it shall be within the discretion of the Collector to pay him the allowance on the whole or on any part of such arrears.

10. Contracts between the Divisional Canal Officer on the part of Government and private individuals for the use of water as a motive power, or for any other purpose whatsoever not included in the published schedule of rates, shall, if for any period not exceeding one year, require the previous sanction of the Superintending Canal Officer.

If proposed for longer periods, such contracts shall be submitted for the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor in the Irrigation Department.

11. Tanks may be filled with canal water without charge, and without reference to the area irrigated in any village, whenever water can be made available without injury to the cultivation dependent on any canal, under the following conditions:—

(a)—No tank shall be so filled unless the water is to be exclusively used for domestic purposes or for watering cattle, or both.

(b)—No tank shall be so filled from which irrigation is practised.

(c)—No tank shall be so filled which, intercepting any line of drainage, is liable to overflow from accumulation of water derived from natural causes.

(d)—No tank shall be so filled except on the written order of the Sub-divisional Canal Officer, issued on the written application of the parties concerned.

(e)—No tank shall be so filled unless the village channel used to fill it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Sub-divisional Canal Officer to be in a sound condition when the application is made.

(f)—The privilege herein accorded may, by written order of the Divisional Canal Officer, subject to revision by the Superintending Canal Officer, whose decision shall be final, be suspended for twelve months for breach of any of the above conditions.

12 The Sub-divisional Canal Officer may, by written order under section 76 (a) (ii), stop the supply to any village channel when he is satisfied, after inspection by himself or by one of his subordinates, that the village channel is not maintained in proper repair. In the case of any such closure of a registered channel, immediate report thereof, with any necessary explanation, shall be made to the Divisional Canal Officer.

13. The Divisional Canal Officer may, under section 76 (a) (iii), regulate the distribution of the available water in proportion to the average area irrigated from the several outlets, or in proportion to the quantities of water contracted for, and may close the outlets in rotation as shall be necessary.

Such periodical closures shall not extend beyond ten consecutive days, and shall be notified to the Suttadars of village channels. For longer closures the authority of the Superintending Canal Officer is required.

Nothing in the above rules shall be taken to affect the power of the Superintending or any Divisional Canal Officer to stop any supply of water in case of pressing emergency.

14. The water-gauges on distributaries or other channels shall be held to give authoritative data for all calculations of discharge required to verify claims for remission of water-rate on account of loss of water.

15. Claims to remission of water-rates, under section 76 (b), shall only be admitted on proof of actual loss caused by the stoppage of supply. On proof of such loss, the Divisional Canal Officer may remit the whole or any portion of the rates. All applications for remission of water-rates shall be made in writing by the parties concerned, either in person or through their headman, to the nearest Sub-divisional Canal Officer, at least seven days prior to the cutting of the crop. On receipt of such application, the Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall, after due local enquiry, forward the application with his remarks to the Divisional Canal Officer for decision.

16. Before awarding compensation under section 76 (c) the Collector shall obtain the written opinion of the Divisional Canal Officer, and such opinion shall form part of the record of the proceedings.

30. Objections to the demand addressed to the Collector shall, if remission be claimed on the score of short supply or of any matter affecting the Irrigation Department, be referred for orders to the Divisional Canal Officer. The collection of the demand shall not be suspended on account of any such objection.

31. Claims for remission referred by the Collector and admitted by the Divisional Canal Officer shall be reported by him for the sanction of the Superintending Canal Officer, except in cases where remissions are made on account of excess areas having been charged for, or wrong name entered in the khatiauni.

32. A remission statement signed by the Superintending or Divisional Canal Officer shall be sufficient authority for a refund by the Collector.

33. If the Divisional Canal Officer reject the claim, an appeal may be made to the Superintending Canal Officer, provided that it is preferred within forty days from the issue of the order of the Divisional Canal Officer.

34. In special cases not otherwise provided for by these rules, and in cases in which water-rates are not recoverable owing to the absconding or bankruptcy of the defaulter, the Collector will obtain the sanction of the Commissioner of the Division to the remission of such sums as he may deem irrecoverable. The details of such remission shall be communicated at the close of each official year to the Divisional Canal Officer.

35. If a cultivator is dissatisfied with the entries made against him in the khatiauni, whether as to the fact of the land having been charged "flow" instead of "lift," or as to the measurements and entries of class of crop, he must lodge a complaint, either personally or through the Suttadar of his watercourse, with the Divisional or Sub-divisional Canal Officer at least seven days prior to the cutting of the crop.

36. No person shall, without the permission in writing of the Divisional or Sub-divisional Canal Officer, pass, or cause any animal or vehicle to pass, on or across any of the works, banks, or channels of a canal or drainage work after he has been desired to desist therefrom, excepting by means of such bridges, fords, and ferries, and their approaches, as are provided by the Divisional Canal Officer.

37. No Canal Officer, unless specially exempted by the Lieutenant-Governor from the operation of this rule, shall have any interest in the distribution of water from any of the canals, or purchase or bid for any Government property sold thereon, either in his own name or in the name of another, or jointly or in shares with others.

38. The Ameen appointed to measure up the area irrigated in an yvillage shall, before leaving it, make over the khusras to a Mohurir, who will then compile the khatiauni. A copy of the khatiauni will be taken by the Putwaree, who must, as a rule, make it himself; but if he cannot from any cause do so, the Mohurir must make it, and the Putwaree is to be held responsible that he gets a copy.

39. The copy of the khatiauni thus made shall be hung up in some conspicuous place in the village, and slips in the prescribed form (Appendix D), showing the amount he will have to pay, area irrigated, &c., shall be prepared by the Putwaree and given to each ryot.

40. The allowance to the Putwaree for the above work shall be one-quarter anna in the rupee on the collections, and shall be paid to him by the Collector on his being satisfied that the work has been properly done.

41. The measurements of each crop irrigated shall be made as soon as practicable, and every care should be taken to have the khatiauni hung up in the village at least fifteen days before the crop is cut, so that the ryot may make his complaints, if he have any, in good time.

42. In case of any subsequent alteration of the khatiauni, owing to correction of clerical errors, &c., such alteration shall be at once communicated to the Putwaree to enable him to correct the village copy and slips accordingly.

43. The Zilladar shall submit his check measurements in a form (Appendix E) which shall be sent in for the inspection of the Divisional Canal Officer. The Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall also check the Ameens' measurements as often as he possibly can. If it be found that any Ameen wilfully or frequently makes wrong measurements, he shall be punished by dismissal, and shall be declared incapable of obtaining further employment under Government.

The 13th May 1879.

No. 141.—Notification.—The following draft rules, having reference to the Narainghur Distributary, referred to in this Department Notification No. 140, dated the 13th May 1879, are hereby published under the provision of section 12 of the Canals Act of 1864 [No. V (B.C.)] :—

I.—Every vessel on entering the canal shall be liable to measurement for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of toll the vessel should pay according to the schedule of rates authorized by Government to be charged on the canal.

II.—The tonnage of every vessel, whether laden or empty, shall, for the purposes of the "Canals Act, 1864," and of these rules, be determined by the following measurements:—

(a) The product of half the length of the vessel, from stem to stern, measured along the water line, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the depth from the water line to the bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as the number of maunds upon which toll shall be levied.

(b) The measurement of the length is to be made in feet, rejecting inches, and the measurement of the breadth and depth in feet and quarters of feet, rejecting portions of less than a quarter of a foot.

(c) In calculating the amount of toll to be levied on vessels exceeding 100 maunds tonnage, any fraction of 100 maunds less than 25 and not exceeding 50 maunds, is to be charged as 25 maunds only; exceeding 50 and not exceeding 75 maunds, to be charged as 50 maunds only; and exceeding 75 maunds, as 75 maunds only. Above one thousand maunds no fraction of 100 maunds tonnage is to be charged. Toll will be charged on vessels under 100 maunds tonnage on the actual measurements of the vessels, omitting fractions of tens of maunds.

III.—Every vessel entering the above canal shall be furnished with a ticket on paying the prescribed toll. The ticket shall specify the station at which it has been issued, the name of the person in charge of the vessel, the date the vessel entered the canal, the point to which it may proceed in the canal, the maundage of the vessel, the amount of toll charged, and the number of days for which the vessel may remain in the canal and the date of such last day. The number of days which the vessel may remain in the canal without additional payment shall be calculated at the rate of one day for every eight miles or portion of eight miles to be traversed.

IV.—Toll may be paid at the first station for the entire line of navigation.

V.—The tickets thus given may be demanded for inspection by any duly authorized canal officer, and must be on board and at hand for that purpose. The tickets should be delivered up at the last toll station.

VI.—Owners of vessels may compound, by the payment of a fixed sum, for the use of the whole or a portion of the above canal for any period that may be agreed upon not exceeding one year. Each vessel so compounded for shall be furnished with a ticket showing the amount of toll paid, the period for which the toll has been compounded for, and the limits of the canals within which the vessel may pass: such ticket shall be kept on board the vessel and shall be produced when required under Rule V, but shall be given up only on the date of the expiry of the period for which granted, and at the station from whence issued.

VII.—Duplicates of lost tickets, of which the numbers and the dates of entry can be satisfactorily established, will be granted by the officer in charge of toll station on payment of a fee of one rupee.

VIII.—Vessels remaining in the canal for a period exceeding that allowed under Rule III, will pay a demurrage of 8 annas per 100 maunds per diem for each day or part of a day that they remain in excess.

IX.—No boats above 10 feet beam over all, and no rafts or floats of more than 10 feet width and 60 feet in length, will be allowed to enter the canal.

X.—It will not be compulsory for the lock to be opened to single vessels of less than 500 maunds burthen, except in the case of mail or despatch boats; but the lock shall be opened for the passage of boats at least twice a day.

XI.—Vessels must have their masts fitted so that they can let down with ease and speed, and when under sale, vessels must always keep in the middle of the canal: when being tracked vessels are, as far as practicable, to keep to their port or left side of the canal.

XII.—All vessels anchoring at night are to keep to their port or left bank of the canal.

XIII.—Only one vessel shall be allowed to make fast along, and in a line with the canal banks, and no vessel shall be made fast, or be placed outside of vessels so secured, without the permission of a canal officer. No vessels shall, however, be placed in such a position as to endanger the safety of other vessels, to obstruct their passage, or to impede the navigation, and no bamboos or poles shall be allowed to be erected on vessels when at anchor. Any infringement of this rule will be punishable by a fine not exceeding Rs. 5 for each offence.

XIV.—Every vessel when put to shall be securely fastened, and shall at all times have some person in attendance on board of it. Any infringement of this rule will be punishable by a fine not exceeding Rs. 5 for each offence.

XV.—In every case of wreck or obstruction of the channel by sunken vessels, the canal officer may call upon the person in charge of the vessel to remove the same without delay, and shall give every reasonable assistance towards so doing. But should the owner of the vessl or raft be not forthcoming, or should he not use reasonable expedition in removing the obstruction, or should he decline or fail to use proper assistance which may be offered to him by the canal officer, this officer may undertake the removal of the obstruction himself at the cost of the owner of the boat, recovering the expense in the manner laid down in section 9 of the "Canals Act of 1864."

XVI.—If the canal officer be unable to ascertain the name and place of business or of abode of the owner of the cargo of any vessel or boat seized under the Canals Act, he shall notify the seizure in the most public manner available.

XVII.—In the event of any damage or injury being occasioned to the canal works by wilfulness or negligence on the part of any person in charge of a vessel, the canal officer may detain the vessel within the canal for a period not exceeding 24 hours, provided that within that period the canal officer shall lodge a complaint against such person in charge of the vessel before a Magistrate under Section 16 of the Canals Act.

XVIII.—The banks or berms of the canal shall not be used as wharves for the deposit of goods, under a penalty of Rs. 10 for each offence; but except in special cases, when the permission of the canal officer will be necessary, all articles shall be removed to the outer banks of the canal, and all such articles as shall not be finally removed from within the boundaries of the canal, within a period of six days after being so deposited, shall be liable to a charge of 4 annas per 100 maunds.

XIX.—The canal may be closed once a year for effecting the necessary repairs to it, on one month's notice of the intention so to close it; but in the event of any sudden emergency, the canals may be closed at any time without prior notice, and no claim shall be made in such case by owners of vessels or others for compensation on account of detention.

XX.—All offences against the provisions of these rules shall be punishable as provided for in section 18 of the "Canals Act of 1864," and all fines imposed may be recovered in the manner mentioned in section 17 of the same Act.

XXI.—The term "Canal Officer" in the foregoing rules shall include the person alluded to in section 8 of the "Canals Act of 1864," and any other person who may be specially appointed to exercise such powers by the person appointed to collect the tolls.

HIGH COURT—Original Side.

NOTIFICATION.

The following rules passed by the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal are published for general information.

By Order,

HIGH COURT, the 30th May 1879. R. BELCHAMBERS, Registrar.

The following rules are to come into effect as rules of the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal in its Original Civil Jurisdiction from the 16th day of June 1879 :—

1. Unless otherwise ordered, suits and proceedings shall be entered in the proper cause list as follows :—Suits instituted in this Court in its Ordinary Original Civil Jurisdiction, in its Testamentary and Intestate Jurisdiction, and its Matrimonial Jurisdiction, or in which a claim has been stated under section 527 of Act X of 1877, after service of the summons to appear and answer; suits instituted in this Court in its Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty Jurisdiction, if in personam, after service of the citation to appear and defend, or, if in rem, after execution of the warrant of arrest; suits transferred to this Court under section 13 of the Letters Patent, on the arrival of the record; suits in which a case has been stated under section 517 of Act X of 1877, or in which a claim has been made under section 332 or section 335, or which stands for judgment upon an award, after the usual notice has been issued; suits which stand for further directions upon the report of a Judge, or an officer, or other referee, on the requisition in writing of the attorney for any party, or of any party acting in person; applications under section 403, or section 523, or section 525 of Act X of 1877, after the usual notice has been issued; rules or alternative orders under section 46 of the "Specific Relief Act, 1877," on the production of such rules or orders.

2. Two general cause lists shall be kept in the Registrar's Office, one headed "General list of causes," the other headed "General list of suits for liquidated claims."

3. Any suit in which the claim is only for a debt or liquidated demand in money may, on the requisition in writing of the attorney of any party, or of any party acting in person, be entered in the list of suits for liquidated claims.

4. Any suit which has already been entered in the general list of causes, whether before or after these rules came into operation, may, on like application, be transferred to the general list of suits for liquidated claims.

5. Suits entered in the general list of causes on or before the 23rd of June 1879, and on or before that day transferred to the general list of suits for liquidated claims, shall have priority over suits subsequently entered, and shall be entered in the order in which they stand in the general list of causes. In all other cases a suit entered in or transferred to the general list of suits for liquidated claims shall be placed at the bottom of the list.

6. If a suit, not being a suit only for a debt or liquidated demand in money, be entered in the general list of suits for liquidated claims, a Judge may, upon the application of any party by summons in chambers, or the Judge at the trial may, whether applied to by any party for that purpose or not, order the suit to be transferred to the general list of causes, and in either case may make such order as to costs and otherwise as he shall think fit.

7. All suits and proceedings, other than those mentioned in rules 3 and 4, shall be entered in the general list of causes.

8. Whenever two Courts shall sit concurrently in the exercise of Ordinary Original Civil Jurisdiction, two peremptory lists of defended causes shall be prepared for every working day; and, unless otherwise ordered, one of such lists shall be supplied with cases from the general list of causes; the other with cases from the general list of suits for liquidated claims, and also, when necessary, from the general list of causes.

9. When only one Court shall sit in the exercise of Ordinary Original Civil Jurisdiction, one peremptory list of defended causes shall be prepared for every working day, and shall, unless otherwise ordered by a Judge, be supplied, first with cases from the general list of suits for liquidated claims, and next with cases from the general list of causes.

10. From the supply of cases to be obtained for each of the peremptory lists under the last two preceding rules, shall, unless otherwise ordered by a Judge, be excluded every case required by the 20th or 21st of these rules to be placed in other lists.

11. Unless otherwise ordered by a Judge, every peremptory list of defended causes shall contain for each day not less than six cases from the general list of causes, or not less than twelve cases from the general list of suits for liquidated claims, or, if supplied partly from one list and partly from the other, not less than twelve cases.

12. Every rule or alternative order granted or made under section 64 of the Specific Relief Act, 1877, shall be placed on the peremptory list of defended causes for the day mentioned in such rule or order.

13. Unless otherwise ordered, a commission to examine witnesses issued in a suit or proceeding shall, until the return or expiration of the time for the return thereof, operate as a stay of such suit or proceeding.

14. No suit or proceeding, the hearing of which is stayed (a) by an injunction, or (b) until the performance of some act, or (c) by reason of a commission to examine witnesses having been issued, shall be placed on a peremptory list until after the dissolution of such injunction, or the performance of such act, or the return or expiration of the time for the return of such commission; unless in case (b) otherwise ordered by a Judge, or in case (c) otherwise ordered by a Judge or consented to by the parties.

15. Any suit or proceeding may, on the requisition in writing of the attorneys for all the parties, or of the parties if acting in person, be omitted from the peremptory list: but in that case such suit or proceeding shall be transferred to the bottom of the general list on which it stands.

16. Except as provided in the last two preceding rules, no suit or proceeding shall, unless otherwise ordered, be omitted from the peremptory list on which it ought to be placed.

17. When a case is ordered to be placed on a peremptory list out of its turn, it shall, unless otherwise ordered, be placed at the bottom of such peremptory list.

18. When a day is specially fixed for the hearing of a case, the day so fixed shall be noted in the margin of the general list in which it stands, and the case shall, unless otherwise specially ordered, be placed on the peremptory list for the day fixed for the hearing thereof, next after any part-heard case in such list.

19. On motion days two peremptory lists shall, unless otherwise ordered by a Judge, be prepared for each of those days, in addition to the daily peremptory lists of defended causes, one of which shall be numbered 1, and headed "Peremptory list of undefended causes," and the other of which shall be numbered 2, and headed "Special peremptory list."

20. Except as provided in rule 21, every suit in the general list of causes, or in the general list of suits for liquidated claims, in which no appearance shall have been entered, and every application under section 403 standing in either of such lists, shall, as regards such suit, be placed in the peremptory list of undefended causes for the first motion day after the expiration of the time allowed to the defendant for his appearance in Court, and shall, as regards such application, be placed in the peremptory list of undefended causes for the motion day mentioned in the notice issued by the Court.

21. Every suit in rem in the Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty Jurisdiction of the Court, in which a first default shall have been pronounced, shall be placed on the top of the peremptory list of undefended causes for the day next after the expiration of two months from the return of the warrant of arrest, i.e. if such day shall be a motion day, otherwise on the top of the peremptory list of defended causes for the day.

22. Every suit, either in the general list of causes or in the general list of suits for liquidated claims, which stands for the settlement of issues, or in which a case has been stated under section 517 or 527 of Act X of 1877, or in which a claim has been made under section 332 or section 335, or which stands for judgment upon an award, or for further directions on a report, and every application under section 523 or section 525 which stands in either of such general cause lists, shall be placed on the special peremptory list.

23. There shall also be kept in the Registrar's Office two general lists of appeals, one headed "List of appeals to the High Court," the other headed "List of appeals to the Privy Council."

24. Every appeal from the original side of the Court, and every reference from the Calcutta Court of Small Causes, shall be entered in the general list of appeals to this Court.

25. When a bench is formed for the hearing of appeals from the Original side, a peremptory list shall be prepared in which shall be entered, first such appeals from the Original side as are ready for hearing, and next the references from the Calcutta Court of Small Causes in which the usual notice has been given to or waived by the parties.

26. Unless otherwise ordered, such appeals from the Original side as were not ready for hearing when the peremptory list of appeals was prepared, or were subsequently preferred, shall, when ready for hearing, either by the removal of any restriction to the hearing thereof or otherwise, be added to the cases on such peremptory list, at any time during the sitting of the Appellate Bench for the hearing of appeals from the Original side.

27. Every appeal to the Privy Council from a decision of the High Court in respect of a case on its Original side shall, on the admission thereof, be entered in the list of appeals to the Privy Council. In such list shall be noted each stage of progress towards and up to the transmission of the record to England, as also the date on which the case is finally disposed of.

HIGH COURT, the 29th May 1879.

RULE.

In cases where, on appeal to the High Court from an appellate decree, an order of remand is passed, the court fees paid on the memorandum of appeal shall ordinarily be treated as costs in the appeal. But where an order of remand is made under section 562, Act X of 1877, on the ground that the Court of first instance disposed of the suit upon a preliminary point, so as to exclude any evidence of fact which appears to the High Court essential to the determination of the rights of the parties, and that such defect was not amended on first appeal, or on the ground that the lower appellate court has disposed of the suit or appeal on a preliminary point without investigating the suit on its merits, and such decision is reversed, the Registrar shall grant an order of refund of the court fees so paid under section 13, Act VII of 1870, to the appellant on his application, provided that such application is made within three months of the date of the order of remand. If such application is made after this period, the applicant shall be instructed to apply to the Court for orders.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT,—BENGAL.

DISTRICT ROAD FUND.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 135.

The 30th May 1879.

UNDER section 89 of Act X (B C.) of 1871, the following annual accounts and reports of the road cess committees of Chittagong and Noakholly and of the Deputy Commissioner of the Chittagong Hill Tracts, of works done and in progress during the past cess year 1877-78, together with the remarks thereon of the Commissioner of the Chittagong Division, are published for general information.

T. H. WICKES,

Offg. Asst. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal in the P. W. Dept.

No. 79L, dated Chittagong, the 15th January 1879.

From—H. J. S. COTTON, ESQ., Chairman of the District Road Committee, Chittagong,

To—The Commissioner of the Chittagong Division.

I HAVE the honor to submit the annual report of the Road Cess Committee, together with a detailed account of receipts and expenditure for the last cess year ending 30th September 1878.

2. The Committee consisted of six official and six non-official members, and ten meetings were held during the year, the average attendance of the members at each meeting being five. An abstract of the attendance is appended in the prescribed form. Mr. Pargiter was Vice-Chairman from October 1877 to July 1878, and Mr. Fasson for the remainder of the year. There is no Sub-Committee in any part of the district.

3. The following table will show the estimated and actual receipts during the year :—

Particulars.	Estimated amount. Rs.	A.	P.	Actual amount. Rs.	A.	P.
(a.) Revenue under the District Road Cess Act at the maximum rate ...	85,600	0	0	51,967	15	9
(b.) Road cess from Government estates	300	0	0	130	14	8
(c.) Tolls and canals	8,160	0	0	2,848	4	0
(d.) Ferry	.....			882	2	6	(arrear of
(e.) Miscellaneous	1,403	0	0	2,867	10	3	1876-77.)
(f.) Sale of produce and stores ...	.....			35	3	9
Total ...	95,463	0	0	58,732	2	11
Balance of last year ...	4,153	0	0	4,153	0	0
Total ...	99,616	0	0	62,885	2	11

The actual receipts therefore fell short of the estimate by Rs. 36,731. This is explained as follows :—

(a) The difference under this head is due to the scarcity that prevailed throughout the year. Of the arrears, about Rs. 18,000 have been realized during the current year.

(b.) The same reason is applicable under this head.

(c.) The difference under this head is Rs. 5,311-12. Of this amount, Rs. 1,019 were realized in the year 1876-77, when the canals were sold ; of the remainder, remissions to the extent of Rs. 1,697 were granted to the farmers by the Committee on the 9th May 1878 : thus the actual arrear at the end of the year under report was Rs. 2,595-12.

The farmers have not paid this sum under the impression that they deserve remissions for the entire balance, as they pretend that these channels were not navigable during the year. Suits for the recovery of the amount will be instituted without delay, unless the farmers pay.

4. The following table will show the estimated and actual expenditure during the year under report :—

Particulars.	Estimated amount. Rs.	A.	P.	Actual amount. Rs.	A.	P.
(a.) Collection of revenue and Committee's control ...	15,006	0	0	20,473	4	9
(b.) Original works	18,000	0	0	6,862	10	6
(c.) Repairs	27,830	0	0	21,906	2	6
(d.) Ferry establishment	.....			164	6	3
(e.) Road establishment	4,515	0	0	2,753	6	6
Total ...	88,639	0	0	52.159	14	6

(a.) A sum of Rs. 5,467-4-9 was expended in excess of the estimate ; but the excess is partly owing to the fact that Rs. 3,288 on account of the salary of road cess establishment for the previous year were paid during the year under report, and that Rs. 2,179-4-9 were also expended on temporary establishment entertained for the completion of assessment operations and collecting the arrears of road cess.

The cost of realizing the arrears has, however, been recovered from the parties in the way of process fees and credited to the fund under the head "Miscellaneous" receipts. The increase above the estimate amounted to Rs. 1,464 only.

(b.) Rs. 3,638-10-9 spent on Jaldi road are included in the Rs. 6,862-10-6 shown under this head, as the sum of Rs. 15,000, sanctioned by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor for relief measures in that part of the district, was not received from Government during the year, and the expenditure incurred had to be met from the Committee's funds. Owing to great delay in receiving sanction of the estimates submitted to Government for original work on the Hill Tracts and Ramghur roads, the actual expenditure under this head is far below the estimate.

(c.) The ferries were transferred to the Provincial Reserve Fund from the beginning of the year under report. The sum of Rs. 164-6-3 is the arrear pay of the establishment for the previous year.

(f.) Refunds have been made from time to time. They amounted to Rs. 10,694 during the year 1877-78. This sum has not been shown in the above statement, but is accounted for in the statement of income and expenditure appended. The balance due to Government at the end of 1877-78 was Rs. 35,634-1-3, and it is hoped that the Committee will be able to clear off this debt by the end of the present year.

5. The following account shows the work done on the roads and canals under the Committee during the year.

Arracan Road.—This road has received surface repairs from the east bank of the Karnafooli river to the Chunati Hills, 37½ miles in length, and slight repairs between Chunati and Harbang, a distance of 8 miles, and has also been raised in different places on the 9th, 10th, 30th, 31st, 35th, 36th, and 37th miles. Wooden bridges with masonry abutments and wing walls have been constructed on the 16th and 17th miles, and masonry wing walls for culverts Nos. 22½ and 42. Three timber bridges of 30, 50 and 15 feet spans have been put up on the 14th, 17th, and 18th miles. The old wooden bridges Nos. 2, 6, 7, 10, 13, 15, 16, 18, 19, 20, 21, 24, and 26, and the masonry works of bridges Nos. 31, 32, 34, and 35, have been repaired, and the wooden rebutment and wing walls to the east approach of bridge No. 9 over the Chandkhali nulla have been erected.

The road is in a very fair condition between the east bank of Karnafooli and Chunati (37½ miles), but is not driveable beyond the 30th mile for want of bridges.

One hundred and fifty-two temporary bamboo shakas or foot-bridges between Satkania and Teknaf, and from Ramu to Gurjonia, were renewed and repaired for dâk-runners. Jungle has also been slightly cleared from the sides of the road where it runs through the hills.

Ramghur Road.—This road runs from the northern boundary of the Chittagong Municipality to the east bank of the second crossing of the hill torrent Dhurung, a distance of 23½ miles, and it has received slight repairs throughout. Bridges Nos. 26, 36, and 41, have been newly constructed, and 22 old timber bridges were put into an efficient state. The crowns of nine masonry bridges and culverts on the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th miles have been metalled, and masonry bridge No. 4 has received repair.

The road is bridged, with the exception of four openings on the 15th and 17th miles.

Hill Tracts Road.—This road has been extended about a mile in length from the village of Gohera to Sharta, and the earthwork is in a good condition. The old road from the junction of the Ramghur road at Hathazari to Gohera has received surface repairs.

For the construction of bridges Nos. 5 and 6 on this road, 176,020 bricks have been manufactured, and it is proposed to extend the road from Sultanpore to Ranjan, about 2½ miles in length. The road is now made passable for foot traffic by placing temporary bamboo shakas or foot-bridges. Between Fatika and Ranjan 29 bamboo bridges have been put up on the present and old lines of roads for dâk-runners and others.

Ramu Road.—The road between Cox's Bazar and Ramu has received repairs. Four new timber bridges have been erected and one old wooden bridge has been repaired. The road can be used by carts. In 1878-79 a new wooden bridge is to be constructed between Saker Mahomed's Ghât and the junction of the old military road at Ramu. Surface repairs to the road and repairs to the old bridges will be required.

Sakerapole Road.—This road runs from the junction of the Arracan road to the bank of Hargeji nulla at Sakerapole, 4½ miles, and received repairs. Bridge No. 4 over nulla Krishna Khali has been widened and reconstructed, and bridges Nos. 2, 3, 5, 6, and 7 have been repaired. The present state of the road is fair, and it is passable for carts.

Necessary surface repairs to the road and repairs to the old bridges will be done in 1878-79.

Dhalghat Road.—This road passes from the Sakerapole road to the south bank of the river Karnafooli (6 miles). Surface repairs have been executed throughout the line, which was also widened on its crest in several places.

Bridges Nos. 2 and 4 have been repaired and are passable for carts. Surface repairs and repairs to bridges Nos. 1 and 3 will be required in 1878-79.

Towing-paths on the banks of Bualkhali Canal.—The jungle between the towing-paths and the water's edge was cleared for a distance of about 2½ miles. The work is going on.

Chandpore Road.—Surface repairs from the north bank of the river Sungu to the east bank of Karnafooli have been executed, and two timber bridges of 70 and 30 feet spans constructed on the 1st and 3rd miles. The road is very circuitous and narrow, and not passable for carts. It is proposed to straighten it between 1st and 7th miles, and in several other places, but the matter has not been decided.

Jaldi Road.—During his late visit to this district, the Lieutenant-Governor sanctioned a grant of Rs. 15,000 for relief measures in the neighbourhood of Jaldi. It was decided to use this grant in extending the road ending at Sadhanpore to Jaldi, and thence to Toetang. Work was accordingly begun in April 1878, and carried on until September, but was then stopped, owing to a difference of opinion as to the advisability of spending on the road the large amount estimated. The matter is still pending before Government.

A total length of about 5½ miles of earthwork and turfing has been completed, but not continuously. Temporary foot-bridges and platforms have been put up between Sadhanpore and Shilkope to make the road passable for foot traffic and dâk-runners.

Bakolia Road, Kalighat Road, Tipperah Pass Road, Nusserabad Road, Halishahur Road, Anwarah Road.—These minor roads have received surface repairs, and the old wooden bridges on the Kalighat road have been temporarily repaired.

Moishkhali towing-path.—This road has been partly repaired for about a mile. Work on the other part of the road was stopped when the Public Works Department commenced clearing out the canal and heaped earth on the towing-path.

Four timber bridges are wanted to make the road passable for carts Surface repairs between the junction of the Halishahur, and a private village road at Kattali, will be executed in 1878-79.

Moishkhali Strand Road.—This road has received surface repairs for about half a mile, and thorough repairs from the western boundary of the Municipality to the Moishkhali canal. A timber bridge 84 feet long has been replaced. The bridges and road are fit for cart traffic. Surface repairs, and repairs to bridge No. 4, will be attended to in 1878-79.

3. Working of the Committee.—Annexed is a tabular statement showing the number of meetings attended in the same form as is usually given. The following are the gentlemen who were members of Committee during the year, and the number of meetings attended by each :—

	Number of meetings attended.
I.—Members residing at the sudder station :—

20. Babu Rhidoy Kisto Mittra, talookdar (name struck off for constant absence)	...
21. Executive Engineer (residing at Chittagong)	...

4. The above shows very clearly that the Committee is rarely attended by any one, except officials, who feel themselves more or less obliged to. Committee's members Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, and 8 give a total of 31. The Government Pleader and the Executive Engineer (Nos. 9 and 21) are rarely able to attend, but all the others, 13 in number, only attended 13 times amongst them throughout the year. The Committee has no power of checking wasteful or irregular expenditure if the Chairman fails to abide by the rules. I do not think any great interest is felt in the business, and the road cess is looked as purely a Government Department , whoever has the power and responsibility for the work and the expenditure will always take the chief interest in it. If the rules were strictly followed, the Committee ought to take this position, but they have not done so yet.

I have put the work done in the above form to show how the money spent has been spread over the district, first in the town, and second in the four quarters of the district, taking the town as a centre. The budget allotments and the sums actually expended are put side by side, because to form a plan of work for the year, and then to work up to it, is the system intended by Government, and this is the best test of the way in which the department has done its work

6. Remarks.—The municipality, which is exempted from road cess, has absorbed a large sum of money, though the Road Cess Committee have not strictly any concern with municipal roads until they are formally made over. The question of rectifying this is under consideration. There are four main lines of roads traversing the district—first, westward by Bhowanigunge to Raipore and Ramgunge; second, northward by Begumgunge to the Tipperah district and thence to Comillah, &c.; third, eastward to Dewangunge; fourth, the old Lakhipore road which runs across the entire centre of the district and connects all the first three. If these roads were put in thorough repair, there would be very fair communication; the other roads are quite subsidiary, and the south of the district and the islands must always rely chiefly on water communication. The Committee have not been in the custom of passing detailed estimates for the year, but lump sums have been allotted, and it is to be regretted, I think, that even this allotment was not adhered to in carrying out the works. The following is an abstract of the money spent on the repairs of the above four lines of road :—

	Amount spent. Rs. A. P.	Amount budgeted. Rs. A. P.
1*st.*—To Ramgunge and Raipore, items above. Repairs II, a b, c, d.	2,197 0 0	7,600 0 0
2*nd.*—Begumgunge and Comillah road. Repairs II, a, c ...	2,118 0 0	2,950 0 0
This is for one bridge and about 10 miles only of the road, the item under Original Works III a, although not budgeted, was important to keep the road open for traffic and should be added here	1,104 0 0
3*rd.*—To Dewangunge road. Repairs IV, b, c, d	1,154 0 0	5,850 0 0
4*th.*—Lakhipore and Begumgunge cross road. Repairs III, b	1,706 0 0	2,550 0 0
Total ...	8,300 0 0	18,950 0 0

7. The following works have been proposed to be undertaken during the cess year 1878-79. They were laid before and passed by the Committee.

8. There is a great tendency to spend money on new schemes which have never been fully considered, or sometimes not sanctioned, and these have to be eventually abandoned; for instance, several of the straightening of bends in old existing roads which, if adhered to, will necessitate the abandoning of old but serviceable bridges and lengths of ready-made embanked road, and the making of new ones, as well as acquisition of new land. Many of the petitions for village works appear to be really for drainage of land for cultivation, or embankments against inundation, more than for communications, and therefore hardly within the scope of the Road Cess Act. The district is within the limits of tidal water, and drainage is not likely to be a profitable undertaking in most instances, nor easy to be done except at an enormous expenditure and under special engineers. Improvements in the navigation of the khals are no doubt possible in many places, but interference with the khals causes much diluvion to neighbouring lands; and owing to the great amount of silt no improvements of that kind can be lasting. No new works ought to be undertaken without full consideration and professional opinion of some specially skilled officer.

9. Hitherto there has been an old Eurasian as district overseer, with no professional training whatever to (nominally) carry out all the works throughout the district, with a second overseer for station roads, &c. The present District Engineer has been called on to do what is really overseer's duty in measuring up works, even of a petty kind, in order to check the bills. The system of contractors with large advances has also apparently led to much expenditure on indifferent work. From the commencement of the new year two professional overseers have been entertained in place of the one referred to above, and in addition to the second overseer before entertained. With these three overseers the District Engineer will be able to make a systematic arrangement of the work, and there will be some one responsible for each line of road. As I joined here at the commencement of the rains, my remarks are necessarily rather a criticism of work done during my predecessor's time, which I am sorry I cannot avoid; but it is not possible to speak well of the road cess work of the year; several of the main roads are hardly passable from want of repairs and broken bridges, and it has been necessary to hurry estimates through as soon as the new year commenced, in order to get the most urgent of them put in hand at once out of the new budget.

10. The Examiner of Public Works Accounts made an examination of the books and accounts at the close of the year, and the errors noted by him will have the Committee's close attention. The rules will be more carefully adhered to in the future than has been the habit hitherto With regard to planting trees along the roadsides (Government Famine Circular No. 10, dated 28th October 1878), the Committee had already made their budget allotments when it was received. They have, however, sanctioned the making of an experiment on a portion of the Dewangunge road. Mango trees grow badly here and give no good fruit; and for aid in time of famine there does not seem to be much need here. The country is thickly wooded already.

Remarks on Officers.

11. Mr. E. M. Desilva was Officiating District Engineer from 1st October 1877 to 31st January 1878, and I have no acquaintance with him.

Baboo Bhava Tara Ghosh, Assistant Overseer, from February 1878 to April 1878, and Officiating District Engineer from May 1878 to the end of the year, has had to work without regularly sanctioned estimates and without sufficient subordinate staff. He is hardly responsible for the deficient state of the roads up to the present time. He is a hard worker, and appears anxious to do his duty; and with a better system will, I feel certain, get the work on a satisfactory footing.

Mr. W. Andrews, District Overseer throughout the year; discharged from 1st October 1878. He was allowed to correspond with the Chairman and Vice-Chairman direct, ignoring the District Engineer. Mr. Andrews' work does not appear to have been very satisfactory. He had been a long time in Government service and had been kept on by the Road Cess Committee, but is very old now.

Mr. D. E. Ferrault, Assistant Overseer throughout the year. He is well spoken of by the District Engineer and gives satisfaction.

A. MANSON, for Vice-Chairman.

No. 169R, dated Rungamattia, the 14th November 1878.

From—CAPTAIN A. E. GORDON, Deputy Commissioner, Chittagong Hill Tracts,
To—The Commissioner of the Chittagong Division.

I HAVE the honor to submit the District Road Fund annual accounts for the cess year commencing from 1st October 1877 and closing with 30th September 1878. The following is an abstract of the transactions for that period :—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Balance in hand on the 1st October 1877 ...	4,880	7	7
Grant-in-aid from Provincial Reserve Fund ...	20,000	0	0
Total Income ...	24,880	7	7
Expenditure from 1st October 1877 to 30th September 1878	11,361	3	4
Balance available on the 1st October 1878 ...	13,519	4	3

2. The grant-in-aid for the cess year from Provincial Reserve Fund was Rs. 10,000, to which was added the grant, Rs. 10,000, of the year 1878-79. This was done on account of scarcity prevailing in the Hill Tracts during the months of May to September last. Out of the above sum Rs. 2,480 were advanced to men at the head-quarter sub-division, Rs. 2,613 to men living in Chingree Valley, and Rs. 2,917-10 to men living in the Ruma, Bunderbun, and Matamori Circles in Sungoo sub-division. The grand total of advances aggregated Rs. 8,410-10. It was not paid indiscriminately to such persons as applied for it, but an enquiry in each case was locally held of the state of the persons suffering from distress, and the reason for which they could not attend to their crops. Those men who abandoned their joom on account of starvation were assisted, and an advance was given to them so as to allay the sufferings until the new paddy was harvested. No less than 8,000 families were assisted during the season. This timely help made the men attend to their crop with renewed vigour, and it appears that the yield of paddy is better in comparison to the previous four or five years.

3. Besides the above, there was another class of men who did not cut joom and were suffering from distress and had no harvest to look after. They were employed in constructing and repairing roads, for which relief centres were opened at Rungamattia, Chingree Valley and Ruma, Bunderbun and Lhama in Matamori Circle. In this work the daily average attendance of laborers, including men, women, and children, was about 70.

4. The Road Cess Act X of 1871 has not been introduced into this district, as there is no property on which the cess can be levied, hence there has been no need of a Sudder or a Branch Committee. The works are executed by the Deputy Commissioner and his assistant after they have been approved by the Executive Engineer and sanctioned by the Commissioner of Chittagong.

5. The works enumerated below were executed during the year :—

The road from the west of Manickcherry Hill, about 2 miles in length and 15 feet broad at the top, was made by raising an embankment about 3½ feet high, and lowering the sides of the hills by 20 feet. About 800,000 cubic feet of earth was thrown on the road and removed from the sides of the hills at a cost of Rs. 2,035-5-3.

The top of Manickcherry Hill was lowered by 18 feet by cutting and removing 640,000 cubic feet of hard sandstone, and thereby making a roadway 20 feet broad, at a cost of Rs. 1,634.

The rocky sides of hills at Daboochcherry and Manickcherry were cut for making a roadway of an average breadth of 15 feet, and 500,000 cubic feet of rock and hard sandstone were removed, and the sides of the hills lowered by 20 feet. The cost of the former was Rs. 1,325-6 and of the latter Rs. 450-8.

At the head-quarter station of Rungamattia one-and-a-quarter miles of minor road were made by cutting and removing 450,000 cubic feet of earth at a cost of Rs. 1,188-6-9.

A part of the road from Demagiri towards Oipoom No. 1, about 200 yards long, was made at a cost of Rs. 33-12, and the road from Puri Rowajah's village to Pyramid Hill, about 24 miles long, was constructed by cutting and removing jungle and undergrowth at a cost of Rs. 509-5.

About five miles of road from Rungamattia towards Chittagong were repaired by filling up gaps and removing the débris which had fallen on the road from the steep hills, at a cost of Rs. 846-3, and sunn grass and undergrowth were cut and cleared along 24 miles of that road, at a cost of Rs. 300

About two-and-a-half miles of minor roads were repaired at the head-quarter station of Rungamattia by cutting and removing débris and filling up gaps, at a cost of Rs. 486-6. The masonry revetment and three wells were repaired and white-washed, cost amounting to Rs. 72.

The road from Chandragonah towards Rungamattia, and the wooden bridge on that road, were repaired; the former at a cost of Rs. 54-4 and the latter at a cost of Rs. 35.

The road from Chandragonah to Bunderbun, and from the latter place to Ruma, was repaired by cutting and clearing jungle and undergrowth, the cost amounting to Rs. 601-14.

The roads from Bunderbun to Dobacherry, and from Feskicherra to Burkul, were repaired. The cost of the former was Rs. 50 and of the latter Rs. 672-10. In the latter twelve bridges were repaired.

The rapids at Utaunchuttra, river Kurnafooli, were cleared at a cost of Rs. 230-9, by removing the débris which had collected during the rainy season, and by closing small passages and allowing the water to flow through the main channel.

The establishment entertained during the year consisted of a mohurrir permanently employed, three temporary overseers employed as occasion required, and two temporary sirdars. The mohurrir, one of the overseers, and two sirdars were deputed for the purpose of supervising the works, and for keeping the accounts of works executed. Two overseers were employed in looking into the works of the men who were employed in relief work during the scarcity, and in making local enquiries about the state of the distress and the joom crop. They have worked satisfactorily in the discharge of their duties. No person was employed in the collection of revenue, as such collections are not in existence in the Hill Tracts under the Road Cess Act. The cost of establishment during the year amounted to Rs. 509-3-6.

The amounts paid for the value of forms and printing charges, Rs. 55-1-4, and Rs. 271-5-6 for new tools and repairs, need no comment.

6. The contract for cutting earth and hard sandstone was greatly reduced. In 1876-77 it was Rs. 4-8 for every 1,000 cubic feet of the former, and Rs. 9 of the latter. During the year under review the works were executed at Rs. 3-6 and Rs. 6-12 respectively, by which more work was obtained than the preceding year.

7. The execution of the following works have been proposed during the year 1878-79, for which there was a fund amounting to Rs. 13,519-4-3 available on the 1st October 1878, and will be devoted to the following purposes :—

	Rs.	A.	P.
To original works	8,071	4	0
,, repairs and maintenance	3,929	0	0

Total ...	13,519	4	3

The construction of a quarter mile of road on the west of Manickcherry Hill, by cutting and removing 75,000 cubic feet of rocky sides of hills.

The construction of half a mile of the road on the west of Gogra Hill, by raising an embankment about four feet high and fifteen feet broad at the top, and throwing about 150,000 cubic feet of earth on that embankment.

The cutting down and lowering the top of Manickcherry and Gogra Hills, and removing from the former about 80,000 cubic feet of hard sandstone, and from the latter about 100,000 cubic feet of earth.

Constructing 90 temporary bridges on the road from Rungamattia to Raujan. For the latter purpose 33 maunds of telegraph wire have been purchased. The bridges made with wire will stand at least five years, while the bamboo bridges hitherto made do not last more than one rainy season.

About half a mile of small roads will be constructed at the head-quarter station of Rungamattia by cutting and removing about 150,000 cubic feet of earth.

About 21 miles of road from Ramghur police station to Manickcherry, and 32 miles of road from Mahalcherry to Kanchannuggur, will be made by cutting and removing jungle from those roads.

About 40 miles of road from Ruma towards Rungamattia and the village road to Singhimillah will be taken in hand.

The road from Rungamattia to Raujan will be repaired by cutting and removing jungle and by filling up gaps Three miles of road at the head-quarter station of Rungamattia will also be repaired.

The following repairs will also be executed :—

1 wooden bridge
1 masonry revetment } at Rungamattia.
3 wells

20 miles of road from Chandragona to Bunderbun.
3 „ „ Chandragona towards Rungamattia.
The wooden bridge on that road.
24 miles of road from Puri Rowajah's village to Pyramid Hill.
12 ditto ditto Ruma to Polityc.
10 ditto ditto Bunderbun to Dobacherry.
2 ditto ditto and 18 bridges from Feskicherra to Burkul, and the rapids at Utaunchuttra.

For supervising the above works it is proposed to employ the following establishment :—

1 Mohurir for 12 months. | 2 Overseers for 6 months.
1 Overseer for 8 months. | 1 Sirdar for 12 months.
1 Sirdar for 6 months.

Cost of purchasing 800 kodalies, and repairing 400 kodalies, pick-axes, and other tools, has been estimated for.

8. The Chairman of the District Road Committee, Chittagong, has requested to move Government to assist that district in constructing the Hill Tracts road to Rungamattia on the grounds that the trade from the Hill Tracts is trifling, and the ordinary needs of that traffic are amply met by the water-way supplied by the Kurnafooli and the Halda rivers. The Hill Tract road meets no local want save that of communication between the Hathazaree and Raujan thanas, and this can be given by a much less costly work, which work would certainly have been postponed in preference to the many more urgently necessary roads, such as continuation of Ramgarh road, which is non-existent beyond Fatickcherra or the Ramnaud, Teknaf, or the Chandpur, Jaldi, and Chakariya road. The Hill Tract road runs across the Halda Valley, crossing at right-angles the drainage into the Kurnafooli of the Halda and its affluents, passing therefore over many wide quaggy nullas and hill streams, and requiring heavy bridging. The earthwork is completed to within five miles of Raujan, and some Rs. 3,000 will probably be enough to complete this; but it is only passable for carts for one-and-a-half miles owing to want of bridges. The Committee have this year allotted Rs. 24,000, or one-fourth of their gross income, to bridges, which will complete the road for four miles of its length to Raujan. From that the line has not been laid, as we have to wait the decision of the Hill Tract authorities, as to where their road will debouch into the plains. To complete the road to Raujan even will be a heavy burden on our scanty finance. The reason for pushing on this work originally was purely for Imperial purposes, as it was wanted for a military road with a view to having communication for wheeled vehicles in the case of another expedition against the frontier tribes. The object of the road being Imperial, its being so little required for local needs, and the bridging being so costly, lead the Committee to hope that some part of the cost may be met from Imperial funds. The reason that so large a sum has been allotted to this road this year is that there was no survey ready for other works, nor any estimate passed. The Committee could undertake to keep the Hill Tract road in repair if it were once completed.

9. In previous annual reports it had been urged by the Deputy Commissioner that the road from Rungamattia to Raujan, in the regulation district of Chittagong, was of great importance, not only politically, but in opening the Hill Tracts with the plains, and thereby attracting the commerce overland in wheeled vehicles, and that, if the road could be made, the wild country lying between the two places would be dotted with paddy and tea cultivation. The paucity of the grant, amounting to Rs. 10,000 per annum for the whole district, and the difficulty of making a road through the hills, prevent its extension at such a rate as was originally proposed. The road cannot be completed with the funds at the disposal of the Chittagong and Hill Tract officers, and an Imperial grant is much needed and wished for.

10. The Executive Engineer of Chittagong, who has surveyed the road, has been requested to report on the cost of its construction, and to supply the information regarding the place where the Hill Tract road will debouch in the plains. On the receipt of his reply a special report will hereafter be submitted.

J. WOOD,

District Supdt. of Police, for Dy. Commr.

No. 54GM, dated Chittagong, the 3rd February 1879.

From—JOHN BEAMES, ESQ., Officiating Commissioner of the Chittagong Division,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department.

I HAVE the honor to submit the following annual report on the administration of the District Road Fund in the districts of the Chittagong division, for the cess year ending with 30th September 1878, and to enclose herein the district reports and accounts, together with a general abstract of the latter for the whole division.

2. An abstract of particulars regarding the meetings of the District Road Committees in the regulation districts of this division during the year under review also accompanies. The Road Cess Act X (B.C.) of 1871 has not been extended to the Chittagong Hill Tracts district, nor has any committee been formed for the management of its road fund, the administration of which rests solely with the Deputy Commissioner.

3. During the year under report the committee in Chittagong consisted of six official and six non-official members, and they had ten meetings, the average attendance being five.

4. In Noakholly the committee, composed of five official and 14 non-official members, had six meetings, with an average attendance of 7·5.

5. In the Chittagong district the non-official members seem, as usual here, to have taken some interest in the administration of the District Road Fund, but not so in Noakholly. Accordingly two of the members have been removed from the committee on account of non-attendance throughout the year.

6. The receipts of this division during the year under report on account of the District Road Fund amounted to Rs. 1,48,700-13-7, against Rs. 1,00,855-9-2 of the preceding year, viz.—

	Cess year. 1876-77. Rs. A. P.	1877-78. Rs. A. P.

Total ...	1,00,855 9 2	1,48,700 13 7

7. The road cess valuation in Chittagong was completed during the year under review. No more than Rs. 51,773-2-7½ on account of cess on lands, and Rs. 161-4-1½ on account of that on houses, was realized out of the estimated receipt of Rs. 85,600, owing to the scarcity that was alleged to prevail in the district throughout the year. The people have just reaped a good crop, and about Rs. 18,000, the arrears of the cess, has been collected since the close of the year.

8. No grants were made to Chittagong or Noakholly from Provincial Reserve Fund. Rs. 20,000 were given only to the Hill Tracts district for the expenditure of the past and current years,—vide Government Notification No. 252, of 18th September 1877, published in page 1376 of Part I of the Calcutta Gazette dated the 19th September 1877, and also Notification No. 104, of 6th May 1878, published in page 420 of Part I of the same Gazette, dated the 8th May 1878. The grant for the current cess year was also drawn in the year under review, and almost the whole advanced to the hillmen as relief on account of scarcity prevailing in the Hill Tracts during the months from May to September last.

9. No contribution from any private person was received. No more contributions can be expected from this source: the people are now beginning to understand Government is bound, by the levy of road cess, to construct and maintain roads, &c., up to their very doors. The rule requiring applicants for construction of village roads to contribute some part of the cost is regarded as a hard one.

10. Of the miscellaneous receipts, Rs. 179-15-8 (road cess process fees) appertain to Noakholly and Rs. 1,634-10-3 (attachment expenses and process fees) to the district of Chittagong.

11. The total receipt (Rs. 1,48,700-13-7), together with the unexpended balance (Rs. 17,774-6-5) of the preceding year, minus the deficit balance (Rs. 43,679-12-7) of the same year, gives Rs. 1,22,795-7-5, which was available for expenditure during the year of report. The deficit balance, Rs. 43,679-12-7, is obtained by adding together the deficits of the two years 1875-76 and 1876-77, i.e., Rs. 20,102-12-0 and Rs. 26,472-12-8 respectively, less cash in hand at close of the year 1876-77 which amounted to Rs. 2,895-12-1.

12. The actual expenditure during the past year was Rs. 1,27,470-6-3, against Rs. 1,20,832-5-3 of the preceding year, viz.—

	Cess year. 1876-77. Rs. A. P.	1877-78. Rs. A. P.
On collections of revenue, &c.	50,696 13 6	42,629 14 1
On original district works	13,843 13 7	32,166 13 7
On repairs	44,234 2 10	41,676 13 6
On establishment	10,781 3 4	10,107 3 7
On tools and plant	1,276 4 0	889 9 6
Total ...	1,20,832 5 3	1,27,470 6 3

13. The above expenditure (Rs. 1,27,470-6-3) of the past year, together with the unexpended balance (Rs. 32,332-14-3) remaining at its close, amounts to Rs. 1,59,803-4-6, consequently there is a deficit expenditure of Rs. 37,007-13-1 over and above the total net receipt, Rs. 1,22,795-7-5, and this deficit is payable to Government by the Chittagong Committee, whose income fell short of the required expenditure owing to the reasons given above.

14. In Chittagong Rs. 17,891-6-4 were spent on collection establishment and Rs. 2,753-6-6 on works establishment. Having regard to the income, the Committee would not be justified in maintaining such a large establishment had they been able to complete the road cess valuation in the preceding year.

15. In Noakholly there was no valuation work during the past year, and the total outlay on district works was Rs. 34,384-14-0 only. The collection and works establishments, maintained at the cost of Rs. 20,643-8-7 and Rs. 6,844-9-7 respectively, seem to be very large.

16. No contribution was made to the Public Works Department during the year of report. The agency at the disposal of the Committees and the Deputy Commissioner of the Hill Tracts were sufficient to cope with the works done.

17. The following is a statement shewing the proposed works and the amounts estimated to be spent on them during the current cess year :—

18. The sudder committees and the different establishments under them seem to have worked well in the districts of this division during the year under review.

19. The road cess is not as yet popular in the regulation districts where the Act has been extended. Much of this unpopularity is due to the prevailing scarcity throughout the year, and to the introduction of the License Tax Act, as most of the landholders in these districts are also liable to that tax.

20. It seems the contract rules prescribed by Government resolution No. 6903, dated 1st December 1874, and received with the Government office docket, No. 3531 of 15th July 1875, are not resorted to in any of the districts of this division.

THE following Act, passed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in Council, received the assent of His Honor on the 17th April 1879, and having received the assent of His Excellency the Governor-General on the 22nd May 1879, is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. VIII OF 1879.

An Act to define and limit the powers of Settlement Officers.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to define and limit the powers of Settlement Officers: It is enacted as follows:—

Extent.

1. This Act extends to all the territories under the administration of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and it shall come into force from the date on which it may be published in the Calcutta Gazette with the assent of the Governor-General.

Commencement of Act.

Repeal of Bengal Act III of 1878.

2. Bengal Act No. III of 1878 (an Act to define and limit the powers of settlement officers with respect to enhancement of rent) is hereby repealed.

3. In this Act—

"Settlement Officer."

"Settlement Officer" means the Collector or any officer in charge of the revenue jurisdiction of a district, and includes any Assistant Commissioner, Deputy Collector, or Sub-Deputy Collector whom the Collector or other officer as aforesaid may authorize to conduct the enquiries and proceedings connected with any settlement of land revenue, and any officer who may be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor to make any such settlement;

"Under-tenant."

"Under-tenant" means any holder of a heritable and transferable intermediate tenure between the Government and the ryot other than a zemindar.

Settlement proceedings not affected by certain Acts.

4. Nothing contained in section 51 of Regulation VIII of 1793, or in sections 13, 14, and 17 of Act X of 1859, or in sections 14, 15, and 18 of Bengal Act VIII of 1869, shall affect any settlement proceedings under Regulation VII of 1822, or under any other law for the time being in force for the regulation of settlements of land revenue.

Rent to be in accordance with rates sanctioned by the revenue authorities.

5. In any such settlement proceedings the rent recorded as demandable from each ryot shall, except as herein otherwise provided, be in accordance with the general rates sanctioned or subsequently approved for adoption in such settlement by the revenue authorities from time to time empowered in that behalf by the Lieutenant-Governor.

Grounds of enhancement.

6. The Settlement Officer may, on some one or other of the following grounds and not otherwise, record a higher rent as demandable from any ryot having a right of occupancy than the rent which was previously paid by him. viz.—

(i) That the higher rent so recorded is calculated on rates which are not above the prevailing rates payable by the same class of ryots for land of a similar description and with similar advantages in the surrounding neighbourhood.

(ii) That the enhancement is not greater than is justified by the increase which has taken place in the productive powers of the land otherwise than by the agency, or at the expense, of the ryot since the rent of the ryot was last fixed.

(iii) That the value of the produce of the land has been increased otherwise than by the agency, or at the expense, of the ryot since the rent of the ryot was last fixed; and that such higher rent does not bear a higher proportion to the rent of such ryot as last fixed than the normal price of produce at or about the time of the present settlement bears to the normal price of similar produce which prevailed at or about the time when such rent was last fixed.

(iv) That the value of the produce of the land has been increased otherwise than by the agency, or at the expense, of the ryot since the last

previous settlement of the lands was made; and that such higher rent does not bear a higher proportion to that which would have been the rent of lands of a similar description and the same area, according to the rates of such previous settlement, than the normal price of produce at or about the time of the present settlement bears to the normal price of similar produce which prevailed at or about the time of such previous settlement, as recorded in the papers of such settlements, or as otherwise ascertained and certified by the Settlement Officer.

(v) That the quantity of land held by the ryot has been proved by measurement to be greater than the quantity for which rent has been previously paid by him.

Rules for determining rent recorded as demandable.

7. The rent recorded as demandable from an under-tenant shall be determined in accordance with the following rules:—

(a) Whenever the Settlement Officer shall find any person holding as an under-tenant, he shall first ascertain and record whether the tenure so held is binding as against the Government.

(b) If the Settlement Officer finds the tenure to be so binding, the rent recorded as demandable from such under-tenant shall in no case be higher than an amount which shall be ten per cent. below the aggregate of the rents recorded as payable to him from the subordinate under-tenants and ryots whose holdings fall within his tenure.

(c) If the Settlement Officer shall find that the tenure is not binding as against the Government, he shall first determine the proportionate amount of the demand of land revenue to be assessed upon the lands included in the tenure in accordance with any orders of Government for the time being in force regulating the demand of land revenue, and shall record the rent payable by such under-tenant at such a sum (not being less than such proportionate amount of land revenue or more than the aggregate of the rents recorded as payable to him from the subordinate under-tenants and ryots whose holdings fall within his tenure) as may seem fair and equitable with reference to the character and circumstances of the tenure.

Procedure when rent demandable is recorded below that to which it might have been enhanced.

8. When the rent demandable from any under-tenant or ryot is recorded at an amount below that to which the rent of such under-tenant or ryot might have been enhanced under this Act, it may be recorded that such under-tenant or ryot shall from time to time be liable to pay increased rent from such dates as may be fixed by the Settlement Officer, until the rent paid by him reaches the amount which the Settlement Officer may determine to be properly payable by him under this Act.

Service of notice of enhancement.

9. Whenever a higher rent has been recorded as demandable from any under-tenant or ryot than the rent previously paid by him, the Settlement Officer shall cause to be published a copy of the jummabundi, or extracts therefrom, specifying in respect of each such under-tenant or ryot the rent recorded as payable by him, and, in the case of a ryot, the clause or clauses of section 6 of this Act under which his rent is enhanced.

Such publication may be lawfully made by affixing a copy of the jummabundi, or of such extracts therefrom as the Collector may think fit, at the mal cutcherry of the village to which the jummabundi relates, or at some other conspicuous place therein, and by proclamation by beat of drum in the said village to the effect that the said copy or extracts have been so affixed, and that the jummabundi can be inspected at the office of the Settlement Officer.

Suit to contest rents.

10. Every under-tenant and ryot shall be liable to pay the rent recorded as demandable from him under this Act, unless it shall be proved in any suit instituted by such under-tenant or ryot to contest his liability to pay the same that such rent has not been assessed in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

But nothing in clause (c) of section 7 of this Act or in this section shall be held to limit the discretion of the Court in determining in any suit under this section the rent of an under-tenant of the class described in the said clause (c).

No suit under this section shall be instituted otherwise than within four months after the publication of the jummabundi, or extracts as aforesaid, in the village in which the lands which are the subject of the suit or any part thereof are situated.

Procedure in suits to contest rent recorded as demandable.

11. In all suits instituted to contest the rent recorded as demandable under this Act the Court shall, if it modifies or sets aside such rent, proceed to determine the rent payable by the plaintiff in accordance with this Act, and if any arrears of rent at the rates determined by the Court are found to be due, shall make a decree in favor of the defendant for such arrears, with such costs as may seem proper.

Enhancement when to take effect:

12. If publication of the copy of a jummabundi or of extracts therefrom as provided in section 9 of this Act is made within the first six months of the year of the era current in the district, the enhancement may take effect from the beginning of the year in which such publication may have been made; otherwise it shall take effect from the beginning of the next following year.

Rent to hold good for 10 years or until expiration of settlement.

13. Rent recorded as demandable under this Act, or fixed by a final decree in any suit as aforesaid, shall not be liable to enhancement until ten years shall have elapsed from the date on which the settlement took effect, or until the period of the settlement shall have expired, whichever may first occur.

Application of Act.

14. The provisions of this Act shall apply to all settlement proceedings under Regulation VII of 1822 which may have been confirmed after the commencement of Bengal Act III of 1878, or which may hereafter be confirmed or sanctioned by the revenue authorities from time to time empowered in that behalf by the Lieutenant-Governor, whether such proceedings shall have been commenced before or after the commencement of the said Act.

14. If any dispute arises as to whether any vessel is chargeable with any coast-light dues, expenses, or costs under this Act, or as to the amount of such dues, expenses, or costs, such dispute shall, upon application made in that behalf by either of the disputing parties, be heard and determined in the towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, by a Presidency Magistrate, and elsewhere by any Magistrate exercising at the place where the dispute arises powers under the Code of Criminal Procedure not less than those of a Magistrate of the second class. All decisions under this section shall be final.

16. The Governor-General in Council shall, on or before the first day of October in each year, publish in the Gazette of India a statement showing the amount received on account of coast-light dues during the year ending on the thirty-first day of March last preceding, and the amount expended during the same period on the establishment and maintenance of coast lights in the eastern part the Bay of Bengal.

PART VI.

Bills of the India Council.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced into the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 21st May 1879, and was referred to a Select Committee:—

No. 5 of 1879.

A Bill to provide for the registration of Trade-marks.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the registration of trade-marks; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preamble

Short title

I. This Act may be called "The Indian Trade-marks Act, 1879:"

Local extent.

It extends to the whole of British India;

Commencement.

and it shall come into force at once.

Interpretation-clause.

2. In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context,—

"Trade-mark."

"trade-mark" means a mark consisting of one or more of the following essential particulars (namely):

(a) a name of an individual or firm printed, impressed or woven in some particular and distinctive manner, or

(b) a written signature or copy of a written signature of an individual or firm, or

(c) a distinctive device, mark, heading, label or ticket:

provided that there may be added to any one or more of the said particulars any letters, words or numerals, or combination of letters, words or numerals:

it includes also any special and distinctive word or words, or combination of numerals or letters, used as a trade-mark before the passing of this Act:

"Registered" and "registration."

"registered" and "registration" respectively mean registered and registration under this Act and the rules made hereunder and for the time being in force:

"The Court."

"the Court" means the High Court of Judicature at Fort William.

Appointment of a Registrar.

3. An officer (hereinafter called "the Registrar") shall be appointed from time to time, by name or in virtue of his office, by the Governor General in Council to register trade marks and the proprietors thereof.

Registration of trade-marks.

4. From and after the first day of January 1880, no person shall be entitled to institute any suit or other proceeding to prevent, or to recover damages for, the infringement of any trade-mark, unless such trade-mark is registered; but nothing in this section shall apply to any device, mark, name, combination of words, or other matter or thing which has been in use as a trade-mark before the passing of this Act, and which the Registrar has refused to register under this Act.

Characteristics of registered trade-marks.

5. A trade-mark must be registered as belonging to particular goods or classes of goods; and, when registered, shall be assigned and transmitted only in connexion with the good-will of the business concerned in such particular goods or classes of goods, and shall be determinable with such good-will.

Registration of a trade-mark shall be deemed to be equivalent to public use of such mark.

Title of first proprietor of a trade-mark.

6. The registration of a person as first proprietor of a trade mark shall be primâ facie proof, and, after the expiration of five years from the date of such registration, conclusive proof of his right to the exclusive use of such trade-mark, subject to the provisions of this Act as to its connexion with the good-will of a business.

Title of proprietor claiming by transmitted proprietorship.

7. Every person registered as proprietor of a trade-mark subsequently to the first person so registered shall, as respects his title to such trade-mark, stand in the same position as if his title were a continuation of the title of the first person so registered.

Rectification of register.

8. If any person who is not for the time being entitled, in accordance with this Act or otherwise in accordance with law, to the exclusive use of a trade-mark is registered as a proprietor of such trade-mark, or if the Registrar refuses to register, as proprietor of a trade-mark, the name of any person who is for the time being entitled in accordance with this Act or otherwise in accordance with law to the exclusive use of such trade-mark, or if any mark is registered as a trade-mark which is not authorized to be so registered, any person aggrieved by such registration or refusal may apply by motion, or in such other manner as the Court may direct, for an order of the Court that the register may be rectified.

The Court may either refuse such application, or it may, if satisfied of the justice of the case, make an order for the rectification of the register and award damages to the party aggrieved.

Case of several persons claiming to be registered in respect of same mark

9. When each of several persons claims to be registered as proprietor of the same trade-mark, the Registrar may refuse to comply with the claims of any of such persons until their rights have been determined by the Court.

The Registrar may himself submit, or require the claimants to submit, their rights to the Court, by stating a case under section 527 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or in such other manner as the Court may direct.

What Court may decide in proceedings under Act.

10. The Court may, in any proceeding under section eight or section nine, decide—

(a) whether a mark is or is not such a trade-mark as is authorized to be registered under this Act;

(b) any question as to the right of any person who is party to such proceeding to have his name entered on the register of trade-marks, or to have the name of some other person removed from such register; and

(c) any other question that it may be necessary or expedient to decide for the rectification of the register.

Notice to be given by order of Court.

Whenever any order has been made rectifying the register, the Court shall by its order direct that due notice of such rectification be given to the Registrar.

Registration not to be granted without leave of Court in certain cases.

11. The Registrar shall not, without the special leave of the Court, to be given on motion or in such other manner as the Court may direct, register in respect of the same goods or classes of goods—

(a) a trade-mark identical with one which is already registered with respect to such goods or classes of goods; or

(b) a trade mark so nearly resembling a trade-mark already registered with respect to such goods or classes of goods as to be calculated to deceive.

Registration when not to be granted.

12. The Registrar shall not register, as part of or in combination with, a trade-mark, any scandalous designs, or any words, if the exclusive use of such words would not, by reason of their being calculated to deceive or otherwise, be deemed entitled to protection in a Court.

Governor General in Council may make rules to carry out Act.

13. The Governor General in Council may from time to time make rules consistent with this Act as to—

(a) the manner in which applications for registration of trade-marks shall be made;

(b) the notices to be given by advertisement before the registration of trade-marks;

(c) the classification of goods for the purposes of this Act;

(d) the registration of first and subsequent proprietors of trade-marks;

(e) the fees to be charged for registration of trade-marks, for the continuance of a trade-mark on the register, and for granting certificates of refusal to register anything as a trade-mark;

(f) the removal from the register of any trade-mark;

(g) the form of notices under this Act, the mode of addressing and serving such notices, and the proof of such service;

(h) the persons entitled to inspect the register, and (i) generally for the purpose of carrying this Act into effect.

Such rules shall be published in the Gazette of India, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

Certificate of Registrar to be evidence.

14. The certificate of the Registrar as to any entry, matter or thing which he is authorized by this Act, or any rules made hereunder, to make or do, shall be evidence of such entry having been made and of the contents thereof, and of such matters and things having been done or left undone.

Saving of marks and devices not capable of being registered under Act.

15. When an application by any person to register as a trade-mark a device mark, name, word, combination of words, or other matter or thing which has been in use as a trade-mark before the passing of this Act, has been refused, the Registrar shall, at the request of the applicant and on payment by him of the fee prescribed by the rules made under section thirteen, grant him a certificate of such refusal.

A certificate so granted shall be conclusive proof of such refusal.

Saving of existing jurisdiction of Courts.

16. The provisions of this Act conferring a special jurisdiction on the said High Court shall not, except so far as such jurisdiction extends, affect the jurisdiction of any other Court in suits or proceedings relating to trade-marks.

If the register requires to be rectified in consequence of any proceedings in any such other Court, due notice of such requirement shall be given to the Registrar, and he shall rectify the register accordingly.

Registrar to rectify register on notice from them.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THIS Bill has been prepared, at the request of the Government of Bombay, to meet the wishes of the Mill-owners Association and the Bombay Chamber of Commerce. Both these bodies call the attention of the Local Government to the provisions of the English Trade-marks Registration Acts of 1875 and 1876 (which have been held by the High Court of Bombay not to apply to India), and state that it seems desirable, having regard to the increase of manufactures in this country, and especially of the cotton-manufactures of Bombay, that there should be a law of a similar nature in India.

2. The Bill is nothing more than a reproduction, with the changes required to fit them to the different circumstances of this country, of the provisions of the Statutes 38 and 39 Vic., chapter 91 (An Act to establish a register of Trade-marks), and 39 and 40 Vic., chapter 33 (An Act for the amendment of the Trade-marks Registration Act, 1875). It seems desirable (more especially in the case of laws dealing with large commercial interests), when the object of one of our Acts is merely to extend the provisions of an Imperial Statute to this country, to follow closely the lines of such Statute, so as to make the law in this country as nearly as possible identical with that in England.

3. The Bill provides for the appointment of a Registrar and the registration of trade-marks, and enacts that, after a certain fixed date, no suit shall be brought for the infringement of a trade-mark, unless such trade-mark is registered in accordance with the provisions of the Bill; it further defines the essential particulars of which a trade-mark must hereafter consist; but it saves from the operation of these provisions the trade-marks which are at present in use and entitled to protection as such. The other provisions of the Bill are subsidiary to these, and the only one of them calling for notice here is that by which the High Court at Fort William is appointed the Court for the purposes of the Act. As it is understood that the registry-office will be situate at Calcutta (where alone proprietorship in copyright and specifications of inventions are registered), that Court is obviously the most convenient one to appoint.

The following Bill was introduced into the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 21st May 1879, and was referred to a Select Committee :—

No. 7 of 1879.

A Bill to provide for the revision of proceedings in trials held under the Military Cantonments Act, 1864, section 20.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the revision of the proceedings in trials held under the twentieth section of Act No. XXII of 1864 (to make provision for the Administration of Military Cantonments) ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

1. For the last clause of the said section, the following shall be substituted (that is to say) :—

New clause substituted in Act XXII of 1864, sec. 20.

"There shall be no appeal in any case tried under this section; but every person trying any such case shall, for the purposes of chapter XXII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, be deemed to be subordinate to the High Court, the Court of Session and the Magistrate of the District."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

IN a case tried some months ago by an officer specially invested, under section 20 of Act XXII of 1864, with power to try breaches of Cantonment rules, the Judges of the Chief Court of the Panjab, to whom the officer's order was submitted for revision, expressed a doubt as to whether the twenty-second chapter of the Code of Criminal Procedure gave them any power of revision in such a case. They, at the same time, expressed an opinion to the effect that such a power ought to be provided. The Governor-General in Council concurs as to the need of such a power, and the present Bill has been drafted to provide it.

RESOLUTION ON THE ANNUAL REPORT ON THE LUNATIC ASYLUMS IN BENGAL FOR THE YEAR 1878.

MEDICAL.

Calcutta, the 23rd May 1879.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

The Report on the Lunatic Asylums in Bengal for the year 1878.

Read again—

The Reports for the years 1876 and 1877, and the orders of Government passed upon them.

The report for the year has been submitted with great punctuality, and the administration of the asylums has been carefully analysed by the Surgeon-General. For the first time since the year 1872 the number of lunatics in confinement in the Bengal asylums has fallen below a thousand. The number on the 31st December 1878 was 991, against 1,077, 1,131 and 1,147, respectively, on the corresponding day in the previous three years—1877, 1876, and 1875. The reasons for the decrease in the asylum population during the past three years were given at length in the resolution on the last two annual reports, and the principle is, the Lieutenant-Governor believes, now thoroughly understood and acted upon, that only those lunatics should be detained at the public cost whose release would be dangerous, or who are in the acute stage of lunacy in which there is most hope of successful treatment. Several recovered criminal lunatics who could not, on account of their previous history, be safely released have recently been transferred to jail for employment as work overseers, servants, or on light labour; and it is now improbable that Government will again have to provide accommodation in asylums for even so many as a thousand lunatics. In the six asylums of Dullunda, Dacca, Patna, Cuttack, Berhampore and Hazareebagh, there was during the past year accommodation available for 1,475 patients, and as this is much in excess of the requirements of the lunatic population, the Lieutenant-Governor has directed the closing of the Hazareebagh asylum as soon as the inmates can be transferred to other asylums. A Committee was appointed last year to consider the question of the distribution of lunatics among the various institutions, and it was in accordance with their recommendation that the Hazareebagh asylum was selected for abolition. The local wants of Chota Nagpore are very small, only nine lunatics having been admitted last year, and its inaccessibility renders it very unsuitable as a place of confinement for lunatics collected from all parts of Bengal. After the abolition of the Hazareebagh asylum, and having regard to the recommendation of the Committee that no more than 250 lunatics should ordinarily be confined in any one asylum, there will still remain accommodation for 1,027 patients, allowing each patient a capacity of 50 superficial feet.

2. The number of first admissions during the past year was only 196, against 247 in 1877 and 329 in 1876. There were two more admissions to the Cuttack asylum than in the previous year, but in each of the other asylums there was a diminution in the number admitted. In Dullunda, 65 were received against 78; in Dacca, 32 against 50; in Patna, 56 against 74; in Berhampore, 18 against 21; and in Hazareebagh, 9 against 10. The average daily number of inmates in all the asylums was 831 men and 220 women, against 889 men and 228 women in 1877.

3. The total number of lunatics discharged was 213, against 266 in 1877 and 263 in 1876, the decrease being entirely due to the care now taken not to admit harmless lunatics who can safely be entrusted to their friends, and to the large number of persons of this class discharged in 1876 and 1877. The percentage of recoveries to admissions was last year 65·2, against 51·57 in 1877 and 42·03 in the ten years 1868-77, although the ratios of recoveries to the total number of persons treated and to the average number of inmates were only 11·34 and 14·07, respectively, as compared with averages of 14·23 and 20·12 for the ten preceding years. In Dullunda, the percentage of cures on the total population was 16·4; in Dacca, 14·2; in Patna, 14·9. In Cuttack, Berhampore and Hazareebagh, where the number of recoveries was too small to render a calculation of averages of any value, there were altogether 27 cures out of a total population of 469. The mortality per cent. of mean strength was 9·51, as compared with 6·53 in 1877 and 10·85 in the six years 1872-77.

4. The returns for the past year show a further increase in the number of criminal lunatics in confinement, the number of this class on the 31st December 1878 being 288, against 278 in 1877, and a daily average of 196·3 during the ten years from 1868 to 1877. The admissions for the past ten years have been nearly constant, having been 70 in 1878, 68 in 1877, and an average of 66 for the ten previous years. In the resolution on the report for 1877, the Lieutenant-Governor drew attention to the question of segregating bonâ fide criminal lunatics from ordinary insane patients, and it was stated that the question had been referred to a Committee for consideration. The Committee, when submiting their report at the close of the past year, pointed out that, however desirable it might be to have a special asylum for criminal lunatics, the object was practically unattainable in Bengal. It would be scarcely possible to assemble in any one building all classes of insane criminals, those under trial, those acquitted on the ground of insanity, and those under sentence in jails, scattered throughout the whole province. The proposal for a special asylum for criminal lunatics has therefore been abandoned. Recovered criminal lunatics who cannot, with reference to their previous history, be safely discharged will in future be transferred to jail for confinement under section 430 of the Criminal Procedure Code and be employed on the jail establishments, or on light labour. The presence in the asylums of these recovered lunatics, whom it was impossible to discharge, has long been found to be detrimental to discipline and good management, and with their removal the principal reason for a special criminal asylum will, as pointed out by the Committee, have disappeared. The transfer to jail of 15 recovered criminal lunatics has been ordered by Government since the close of the past year. In each case the visitors certified that the prisoner had for years shown no sign of insanity, and could safely be removed to jail, while the history of the case showed that the man's release would not be right, though while kept in confinement, away from the temptation of intoxicating drugs, there was no reason to fear a fresh outbreak of insanity. In such cases as these, the removal of the prisoner from the depressing surroundings of a lunatic asylum by his transfer to active life in jail is an act of humanity to the prisoner as well as desirable in the interests of good discipline and economy.

5. Of 1,264 persons who were under treatment during the year, 259 were suffering from acute mania, 487 from chronic mania, 114 from melancholia, 61 from acute dementia, and 297 from chronic dementia. There was a satisfactory falling-off in the number of cases of chronic mania and chronic dementia, the number of cases of these forms of lunacy, which are seldom capable of cure, having been respectively 548 and 331 in 1877. There were 11 cases of idiocy and 5 of imbecility in each of the past two years, one case of dementia in 1878 against two in 1877; and 29 cases were described as "not insane," against 36 similarly entered in 1877. No explanation is given regarding these cases, but the persons described must, it is assumed, have been sent to the asylums on the certificate of the Civil Surgeon, or after acquittal on the ground of insanity, although on arrival at the asylums they may have shown no signs of insanity. Of 123 new admissions, in which the predisposing cause of insanity was ascertained and recorded, 111 are assigned to physical and 12 to moral circumstances. Of the former, 85 cases were attributed to the excessive use of ganja, bhang and churrus, 5 to spirits, and 3 to opium. In 5 cases the cause assigned was hereditary predisposition, and 9 cases were attributed to grief. Of the whole number of patients in the asylums in 1878, the cause of insanity is given in 601 cases, and 405 of these are assigned to the excessive use of ganja, bhang, churrus, spirits and opium. Out of the 405, only 69 completely and 14 partially recovered during the year. The previous occupations of only 199 out of 227 patients admitted and re-admitted during the year were ascertained: of these, 111 were cultivators, coolies, beggars, or unemployed; of the remainder, 25 were servants and 11 shop-keepers.

6. The health of lunatics in confinement was better during the past year than in any of the three previous years. The average daily number of sick in the asylums was only 60, or 5·7 per cent. of mean strength, against 68·99, or 6·17 per cent. of mean strength in 1877, and 8·02 and 7·75 per cent. in 1876 and 1875 respectively. The numbers in hospital, as well as the percentages on the mean strength, were, as in 1877, highest in Hazareebagh, Dacca and Patna, the percentages of sick in the asylums at these stations being 10·32, 8·17 and 5·83 respectively. Notwithstanding the prevalence of sickness in Calcutta and its neighbourhood, the Dullunda asylum was remarkably healthy during the past year. With a daily average population of 204 persons, the average number of sick was only 3·15. Out of 784 cases treated in the hospitals of the different asylums during the year, 240, 111, and 119 were respectively cases of fever, dysentery, and diarrhœa, while in Dullunda only one case of fever and one of diarrhœa, and not a single case of dysentery, occurred. This remarkable freedom from disease is no doubt due to the excellent arrangements made by Dr. Payne to prevent his patients having access to any but pure water, and the absence of any such arrangements was clearly the cause of the great sickness and mortality in the Hazareebagh asylum. Out of 242 cases treated in the hospital of the latter asylum during the year, 90 were cases of cholera, dysentery and diarrhœa,

31 of the remainder being cases of fever. The orders for the abolition of this asylum render it unnecessary to consider the question of improving its sanitary condition. Of 189 cases treated in the Berhampore asylum, 110 were cases of fever and 55 of dysentery. The Dullunda and Patna asylums were entirely free from cholera; in each of the Dacca and Cuttack asylums there was one case; in Berhampore there were 4, and in Hazareebagh 10 admissions to hospital from this disease. Out of the 16 cases, 10 ended fatally. The Dacca and Hazareebagh asylums are still conspicuous for the number of cases of injuries sustained by patients. There were 21 such cases in the Dacca asylum against 32 in 1877, and the number in the Hazareebagh asylum was 28 in each of the past two years. Of the Dacca cases, 14 were caused by other patients; of those in Hazareebagh, 15 were caused by other lunatics and four were self-inflicted. Dr. Crombie considers it surprising that the cases in the Dacca asylum in his charge should be so few, considering the large number of criminal lunatics, and the fact that they are entrusted with tools required for the manufactures on which they are employed. This explanation cannot, however, be accepted. The Dullunda, Patna, and Berhampore asylums also contain a very large number of criminal lunatics, and yet in none of these asylums was there a single case of wound or contusion admitted to hospital during the year. In Hazareebagh, where the number of injuries sustained by patients was largest, there was only an average of one criminal lunatic throughout the year. In the Lieutenant-Governor's opinion the frequency of cases of violence in the Dacca and Hazareebagh asylums is very unsatisfactory, and can only be accounted for either by a want of discretion in the selection of lunatics entrusted with dangerous tools, or by defective discipline and negligence on the part of the keepers.

7. In all the asylums taken together there were 100 deaths, or 9·5 per cent. of average strength, against 73, or 6·5 per cent. in 1877, and 119, or 9·7 per cent. in 1876. The increased mortality of 1878, as compared with the previous year, is more than accounted for by the heavy death-rate in the Hazareebagh asylum, where there were 43 deaths with a daily average strength of only 207. There was an outbreak of cholera in this asylum in July, and that disease, and dysentery and diarrhœa, account for 25 out of the 43 deaths. Omitting Hazareebagh, where the mortality was quite abnormal, there were only 57 deaths out of an average daily strength of 844, against 62 out of an average daily strength of 895 in 1877. In all the asylums together there were 20 deaths from diarrhœa, 17 from dysentery, 10 from cholera, 10 from pneumonia, and 7 from phthisis. Seven out of the ten deaths from pneumonia occurred at Hazareebagh, and four out of the seven cases of phthisis at Dullunda.

8. The gross expense during the year was Rs. 1,14,629 with a daily average of 1,051 lunatics, against Rs. 1,13,458 with a daily average of 1,117 in 1877. The gross average cost was therefore Rs. 109 against Rs. 101 in 1877. The amount realized from the relations or friends of lunatics was Rs. 2,548 against Rs. 1,704, and the profits from manufactures were Rs. 11,259 against Rs. 12,237 in 1877 and Rs. 8,177 in 1876. The gross and net average cost of each patient in the different asylums are given in the following statement, the Cuttack asylum alone showing a lower cost for patients than in 1877:—

	Gross.	Net.		Gross.	Net.
Dullunda ...	137	121	Cuttack ...	109	96
Dacca ...	119	98	Berhampore ...	86	78
Patna ...	112	95	Hazareebagh ...	89	85

The high cost at the Dullunda asylum is explained by the heavy charge for superintendence, and by the inclusion, under the head of contingencies, of expenditure on account of an iron shed over the pumps, a new shower-bath, and other improvements which would ordinarily be debited to the Public Works Department. The Lieutenant-Governor noticed last year the great divergence in the proportion of keepers to lunatics in the different asylums, and the scales of establishment have in consequence been more nearly equalized. Excluding the Hazareebagh asylum which is about to be closed, the proportion of male keepers to male patients now varies only from 1 to 7·4 at Dacca, to 1 to 8·76 at Patna. As regards the proportion of female keepers to female lunatics there is, however, still a great divergence, there being 1 to 5·6 patients at Dacca, 1 to 5·96 at Cuttack, while at Patna 1 to 10·68, and at Berhampore 1 to 12·3 are found to be sufficient. The number of paid water-carriers employed in the six asylums has been reduced from 15 to 9. The abolition of the Moydapore asylum and the transfer of the inmates to Berhampore, has reduced the average cost per patient in the latter asylum, under the head of establishment, by Rs. 6-4-8 per head as the staff at Berhampore did not require any increase for the additional number of lunatics. The average charge for diet during the past two years was as follows:—

	1877. Rs.	1878. Rs.		1877. Rs.	1878. Rs.
Dullunda	58	56	Cuttack	37	36
Dacca	57	65	Berhampore	37	44
Patna	46	55	Hazareebagh	35	40

The decrease at the Dullunda asylum is explained by the fact that only the actual cost of the articles has this year been entered, and not the value of the articles at the time of consumption; the decrease at Cuttack is due to increased economy. The increased charge for diet at the other asylums is attributed by the Superintendents to the dearness of provisions, but no attempt has been made to explain the great difference between the charges for diet at the different asylums. The average cost of each diet was at Cuttack 1 anna 6¾ pie; at Hazareebagh, 1 anna 9 pie; at Berhampore, 1 anna 11 pie; at Dullunda, 2 annas 5 pie; at Patna, 2 annas 5 pie; and at Dacca, 2 annas 10 pie. In accordance with the orders of Government no uniform scale has hitherto been adopted, but it is quite clear that the differences in the cost of diets given above cannot be satisfactorily accounted for by the variations in the price of food, or by the different requirements of lunatics in the several asylums. The Lieutenant-Governor has therefore referred the whole question of the cost of diet in asylums for the consideration of the Committee of Enquiry into Medical Expenditure in Bengal.

9. The average daily number employed on the various classes of work during the year was 889, or 84·61 per cent. of the total asylum population, against 911, or 81·64 per cent., in 1877. The net profits during the past year amounted to Rs. 1,514 at the Dullunda asylum, Rs. 3,923 at Dacca, Rs. 3,219 at Patna, Rs. 372 at Cuttack, Rs. 1,458 at Berhampore, and Rs. 773 at Hazareebagh: the profits from manufactures at the six asylums being Rs. 11,259, against Rs. 12,237 in the previous year. There was an apparent decrease of Rs. 2,500 in the net profits of manufactures at the Dullunda asylum, as compared with those of the previous year, but this is in part explained by savings on account of articles of diet prepared in the asylum not being this year credited to manufactures. The profit earned by each inmate employed was Rs. 12-10-6, against Rs. 18-13-3, the falling-off being apparently due to some extent to the larger proportion of inmates engaged in manufactures, many of whom were not efficient workers. The advantage of giving occupation to as many of the lunatics as possible is very great, although the average earnings of those employed are necessarily diminished by the inclusion of less skilful workmen. Compared with the average daily population of the asylums, the profits were Rs. 10-11-4 per head, against Rs. 10-15-3 in 1877. Both Dr. Crombie and Dr. Bird appear to have devoted much attention to the profitable employment of the lunatics in the Dacca and Patna asylums; and their efforts were eminently successful. The Committee on Medical Expenditure have recently recommended that the system noticed in last year's resolution, of giving lunatics a direct interest in the out-turn of their labour, should be tried, and the Lieutenant-Governor has accordingly authorized the adoption of the system experimentally, the details being left to the discretion of the Superintendents of the different asylums.

10. There were only 23 new admissions to the Bhowanipore asylum, against 34 in 1877. Of the 50 inmates treated during the year five died, six were discharged as cured, two were transferred to the military authorities as partially cured, five were despatched to Europe under the Merchant Shipping Act, and twelve were made over to the care of their friends. In 26 out of the 50 cases treated insanity was hereditary, and five of the remaining cases were attributed to intemperance. The number of paying patients treated during the year was 29, the same number as treated in 1877, and from these the asylum recovered Rs. 15,475. In addition to this amount a sum of Rs. 791 was charged to the Port Dues Fund on account of the maintenance of sailors treated in the asylum.

11. The Lieutenant-Governor gladly acknowledges the success with which all the Superintendents have administered the institutions in their charge. The subordinate establishments of all the asylums are favourably noticed by the Superintendents, and cases of ill-treatment of patients by keepers were extremely rare.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution, together with a copy of the Report, be submitted to the Government of India in the Home Department for information.

Ordered also that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Surgeon-General, Bengal.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

GILCHRIST SCHOLARSHIPS.

THE following Resolution of the Government of India, Home Department, is published for general information, in continuation of the notification dated 28th March 1877.

A. MACKENZIE,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

No. 3/133-139.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India in the Home Department (Education),—under date Simla, the 21st May 1879.

READ again the Resolution of the Government of India, Home Department, Nos. 91 to 97, dated 11th February 1868, on the subject of the scheme of the Gilchrist Trustees for awarding two Indian Scholarships of £100 each.

Read also the despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, No. 3, dated 3rd April 1879.

RESOLUTION.

In connection with the scheme of the Gilchrist Trustees, it was announced in 1867, by the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India, that £100 would be granted for passage to each of the successful candidates proceeding to England. This announcement was made public in paragraph 3 of the Resolution cited above, dated 11th February 1878.

2. It has recently been represented to the Secretary of State by a successful candidate who proceeded from Bombay, that the equivalent of Rs. 1,000 paid to him in Bombay on account of his passage to England was at the date on which he converted a portion of the money into English currency only £82-16-3, whereas he expected £100. The Secretary of State is therefore of opinion that the grant to the Gilchrist scholars on account of passage money being payable in India, it would have been preferable had the amount been fixed in Indian currency instead of in pounds sterling. His Lordship desires that it may now be announced that the sum of Rs. 1,000 is the amount payable to the Gilchrist scholars on account of passage money to England instead of £100. This announcement will therefore now be made.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be sent to local Governments and Administrations* for information, and for re-publication in the local Gazettes.

* Except Madras and Bombay.

NOTE.

Barometric Pressure.—The pressures in column 2 of the above table for all stations below 500 feet are reduced from those given in column 3 of the table on the previous page, by adding the weight of a column of air of the temperatures given in column 18. For stations above 500 feet elevation the reduction is made by Captain Allan Cunningham's table, "Prof. Papers on Indian Engineering, No. CXIII." The temperatures at the sea-level are taken from column 3 of the above table.

Temperature.—The temperatures in column 3 are reduced from those in column 18 on the preceding page, by adding 1° Fahrenheit for every 450 feet.

Wind Resultant.—The resultant wind direction and its comparative predominance are calculated from the whole number of wind observations recorded during the month. The relative predominance in the direction of the resultant is given as a percentage of the whole number of observations. The direction is computed in the usual way by Lambert's formula.

Cloud.—This column gives the average proportion of clouded sky, a cloudless sky being indicated by o, and one completely overcast by 1*o*.

The above, being all comparable, afford the data for constructing a meteorological chart for the month, which will show the isobaric and isothermal lines and the resultant wind directions, which last may be represented by arrows of varying length, proportioned to the prevalence of the wind. To these may be added the rainfall from the previous tables.

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from observations made at 6h., 10h., 16h., and 22h.; the maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The direction and movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

No. 141.—Notification.—The following draft rules, having reference to the Narainghur Distributary, referred to in this Department Notification No. 140, dated the 13th May 1879, are hereby published under the provision of section 12 of the Canals Act of 1864 [No. V (B.C.)] :—

I.—Every vessel on entering the canal shall be liable to measurement for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of toll the vessel should pay according to the schedule of rates authorized by Government to be charged on the canal.

II.—The tonnage of every vessel, whether laden or empty, shall, for the purposes of the "Canals Act, 1864," and of these rules, be determined by the following measurements :—

(a) The product of half the length of the vessel, from stem to stern, measured along the water line, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the depth from the water line to the bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as the number of maunds upon which toll shall be levied.

(b) The measurement of the length is to be made in feet, rejecting inches, and the measurement of the breadth and depth in feet and quarters of feet, rejecting portions of less than a quarter of a foot.

(c) In calculating the amount of toll to be levied on vessels exceeding 100 maunds tonnage, any fraction of 100 maunds less than 25 and not exceeding 50 maunds, is to be charged as 25 maunds only ; exceeding 50 and not exceeding 75 maunds, to be charged as 50 maunds only ; and exceeding 75 maunds, as 75 maunds only. Above one thousand maunds no fraction of 100 maunds tonnage is to be charged. Toll will be charged on vessels under 100 maunds tonnage on the actual measurements of the vessels, omitting fractions of tens of maunds.

III.—Every vessel entering the above canal shall be furnished with a ticket on paying the prescribed toll. The ticket shall specify the station at which it has been issued, the name of the person in charge of the vessel, the date the vessel entered the canal, the point to which it may proceed in the canal, the maundage of the vessel, the amount of toll charged, and the number of days for which the vessel may remain in the canal and the date of such last day. The number of days which the vessel may remain in the canal without additional payment shall be calculated at the rate of one day for every eight miles or portion of eight miles to be traversed.

IV.—Toll may be paid at the first station for the entire line of navigation.

V.—The tickets thus given may be demanded for inspection by any duly authorized canal officer, and must be on board and at hand for that purpose. The tickets should be delivered up at the last toll station.

VI.—Owners of vessels may compound, by the payment of a fixed sum, for the use of the whole or a portion of the above canal for any period that may be agreed upon not exceeding one year. Each vessel so compounded for shall be furnished with a ticket showing the amount of toll paid, the period for which the toll has been compounded for, and the limits of the canals within which the vessel may pass: such ticket shall be kept on board the vessel and shall be produced when required under Rule V, but shall be given up only on the date of the expiry of the period for which granted, and at the station from whence issued.

VII.—Duplicates of lost tickets, of which the numbers and the dates of entry can be satisfactorily established, will be granted by the officer in charge of toll station on payment of a fee of one rupee.

VIII.—Vessels remaining in the canal for a period exceeding that allowed under Rule III, will pay a demurrage of 8 annas per 100 maunds per diem for each day or part of a day that they remain in excess.

IX.—No boats above 10 feet beam over all, and no rafts or floats of more than 10 feet width and 60 feet in length, will be allowed to enter the canal.

X.—It will not be compulsory for the lock to be opened to single vessels of less than 500 maunds burthen, except in the case of mail or despatch boats; but the lock shall be opened for the passage of boats at least twice a day.

XI.—Vessels must have their masts fitted so that they can let down with ease and speed, and when under sale, vessels must always keep in the middle of the canal: when being tracked vessels are, as far as practicable, to keep to their port or left side of the canal.

XII.—All vessels anchoring at night are to keep to their port or left bank of the canal.

XIII.—Only one vessel shall be allowed to make fast along, and in a line with the canal banks, and no vessel shall be made fast, or be placed outside of vessels so secured, without the permission of a canal officer. No vessels shall, however, be placed in such a position as to endanger the safety of other vessels, to obstruct their passage, or to impede the navigation, and no bamboos or poles shall be allowed to be erected on vessels when at anchor. Any infringement of this rule will be punishable by a fine not exceeding Rs. 5 for each offence.

XIV.—Every vessel when put to shall be securely fastened, and shall at all times have some person in attendance on board of it. Any infringement of this rule will be punishable by a fine not exceeding Rs. 5 for each offence.

XV.—In every case of wreck or obstruction of the channel by sunken vessels, the canal officer may call upon the person in charge of the vessel to remove the same without delay, and shall give every reasonable assistance towards so doing. But should the owner of the vessl or raft be not forthcoming, or should he not use reasonable expedition in removing the obstruction, or should he decline or fail to use proper assistance which may be offered to him by the canal officer, this officer may undertake the removal of the obstruction himself at the cost of the owner of the boat, recovering the expense in the manner laid down in section 9 of the "Canals Act of 1864."

XVI.—If the canal officer be unable to ascertain the name and place of business or of abode of the owner of the cargo of any vessel or boat seized under the Canals Act, he shall notify the seizure in the most public manner available.

XVII.—In the event of any damage or injury being occasioned to the canal works by wilfulness or negligence on the part of any person in charge of a vessel, the canal officer may detain the vessel within the canal for a period not exceeding 24 hours, provided that within that period the canal officer shall lodge a complaint against such person in charge of the vessel before a Magistrate under Section 16 of the Canals Act.

XVIII.—The banks or berms of the canal shall not be used as wharves for the deposit of goods, under a penalty of Rs. 10 for each offence; but except in special cases, when the permission of the canal officer will be necessary, all articles shall be removed to the outer banks of the canal, and all such articles as shall not be finally removed from within the boundaries of the canal, within a period of six days after being so deposited, shall be liable to a charge of ¼ annas per 100 maunds.

XIX.—The canal may be closed once a year for effecting the necessary repairs to it, on one month's notice of the intention so to close it; but in the event of any sudden emergency, the canals may be closed at any time without prior notice, and no claim shall be made in such case by owners of vessels or others for compensation on account of detention.

XX.—All offences against the provisions of these rules shall be punishable as provided for in section 18 of the "Canals Act of 1864," and all fines imposed may be recovered in the manner mentioned in section 17 of the same Act.

XXI.—The term "Canal Officer" in the foregoing rules shall include the person alluded to in section 8 of the "Canals Act of 1864," and any other person who may be specially appointed to exercise such powers by the person appointed to collect the tolls.

Treaty between the British Government and His Highness MUHAMMAD YAKUB KHAN, Amir of Afghanistan, and its Dependencies, concluded at Gandamak on the 26th May 1879 by His Highness the AMIR MUHAMMAD YAKUB KHAN on his own part, and on the part of the British Government by MAJOR P. L. N. CAVAGNARI, C.S.I., Political Officer on Special Duty, in virtue of full powers vested in him by the Right Honorable EDWARD ROBERT LYTTON, BULWER LYTTON, BARON LYTTON OF KNEBWORTH, and a Baronet, Grand Master of the Most Exalted Order of the Star of India, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Grand Master of the Order of the Indian Empire, Viceroy and Governor-General of India.

The following Articles of a Treaty for the restoration of peace and amicable relations have been agreed upon between the British Government and His Highness Muhammad Yakub Khan, Amir of Afghanistan, and its Dependencies :—

ARTICLE 1.

From the day of the exchange of the ratifications of the present Treaty there shall be perpetual peace and friendship between the British Government on the one part, and His Highness the Amir of Afghanistan, and its Dependencies, and his successors, on the other.

ARTICLE 2.

His Highness the Amir of Afghanistan, and its Dependencies, engages, on the exchange of the ratifications of this Treaty, to publish a full and complete amnesty, absolving all his subjects from any responsibility for intercourse with the British Forces during the war, and to guarantee and protect all persons of whatever degree from any punishment or molestation on that account.

ARTICLE 3.

His Highness the Amir of Afghanistan, and its Dependencies, agrees to conduct his relations with Foreign States in accordance with the advice and wishes of the British Government. His Highness the Amir will enter into no engagements with Foreign States, and will not take up arms against any Foreign State, except with the concurrence of the British Government. On these conditions, the British Government will support the Amir against any foreign aggression with money, arms, or troops, to be employed in whatsoever manner the British Government may judge best for this purpose. Should British troops at any time enter Afghanistan for the purpose of repelling foreign aggression, they will return to their stations in British territory as soon as the object for which they entered has been accomplished.

ARTICLE 4.

With a view to the maintenance of the direct and intimate relations now established between the British Government and His Highness the Amir of Afghanistan, and for the better protection of the frontiers of His Highness' dominions, it is agreed that a British Representative shall reside at Kabul, with a suitable escort, in a place of residence appropriate to his rank and dignity. It is also agreed that the British Government shall have the right to depute British Agents with suitable escorts to the Afghan frontiers, whensoever this may be considered necessary by the British Government in the interests of both States on the occurrence of any important external fact. His Highness the Amir of Afghanistan may on his part depute an Agent to reside at the Court of His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General of India, and at such other places in British India as may be similarly agreed upon.

ARTICLE 5.

His Highness the Amir of Afghanistan, and its Dependencies, guarantees the personal safety and honorable treatment of British Agents within his jurisdiction; and the British Government on its part undertakes that its Agents shall never in any way interfere with the internal administration of His Highness' dominions.

ARTICLE 6.

His Highness the Amir of Afghanistan, and its Dependencies, undertakes, on behalf of himself and his successors, to offer no impediment to British subjects peacefully trading within his dominions, so long as they do so with the permission of the British Government, and in accordance with such arrangements as may be mutually agreed upon from time to time between the two Governments.

ARTICLE 7.

In order that the passage of trade between the territories of the British Government and of His Highness the Amir of Afghanistan may be open and uninterrupted, His Highness the Amir of Afghanistan agrees to use his best endeavours to ensure the protection of traders and to facilitate the transit of goods along the well-known customary roads of Afghanistan. These roads shall be improved and maintained in such manner as the two Governments may decide to be most expedient for the general convenience of traffic, and under such financial arrangements as may be mutually determined upon between them. The arrangements made for the maintenance and security of the aforesaid roads, for the settlement of the duties to be levied upon merchandise carried over these roads, and for the general protection and development of trade with, and through, the dominions of His Highness, will be stated in a separate Commercial Treaty, to be concluded within one year, due regard being given to the state of the country.

ARTICLE 8.

With a view to facilitate communications between the allied Governments, and to aid and develope intercourse and commercial relations between the two countries, it is hereby agreed that a line of telegraph from Kurram to Kabul shall be constructed by, and at the cost of, the British Government: and the Amir of Afghanistan hereby undertakes to provide for the proper protection of this telegraph line.

ARTICLE 9.

In consideration of the renewal of a friendly alliance between the two States, which has been attested and secured by the foregoing Articles, the British Government restores to His Highness the Amir of Afghanistan, and its Dependencies, the towns of Kandahar and Jellalabad, with all the territory now in possession of the British armies, excepting the districts of Kurram, Pishin, and Sibi. His Highness the Amir of Afghanistan, and its Dependencies, agrees on his part that the districts of Kurram and Pishin and Sibi, according to the limits defined in the schedule annexed,* shall remain under the protection and administrative control of the British Government: that is to say, the aforesaid districts shall be treated as assigned districts, and shall not be considered as permanently severed from the limits of the Afghan kingdom. The revenues of these districts, after deducting the charges of civil administration, shall be paid to His Highness the Amir.

The British Government will retain in its own hands the control of the Khyber and Michni Passes, which lie between the Peshawar and Jellalabad Districts, and of all relations with the independent tribes of the territory directly connected with these Passes.

ARTICLE 10.

For the further support of His Highness the Amir, in the recovery and maintenance of his legitimate authority, and in consideration of the efficient fulfilment in their entirety of the engagements stipulated by the foregoing Articles, the British Government agrees to pay to His Highness the Amir, and to his successors, an annual subsidy of six lakhs of Rupees.

SIMLA, the 30th May 1879. A. M. MONTEATH, Director-General of the Post Office of India.

HITHERTO it has been the practice to affix postage stamps to parcels which the sender desires to prepay, but serious inconvenience has been found to arise from the stamps so affixed adhering imperfectly to the cloth, wax-cloth, tin, or other materials commonly used by the public for covering parcels. Fraud has also been found to result from the re-use of stamps which have become detached from the parcels to which they were affixed.

With effect from the 1st July 1879, prepayment of parcel postage may be made only in cash tendered with the parcel at the Post Office window within the prescribed hours.

Receipts will be given to the senders for all parcels tendered at the window during the prescribed hours, whether prepaid in cash or unpaid, the amount of prepayment, if any, being specified on the receipt.

This order applies to all parcels (inland, overland, insured, or value-payable), except those sent on the public service, which, if prepaid, must as heretofore be prepaid with service stamps.

A. M. MONTEATH,
Director-General of the Post Office of India.

THE following Act, passed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in Council, received the assent of His Honor on the 17th April 1879, and having received the assent of His Excellency the Governor-General on the 22nd May 1879, is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. VIII OF 1879.

An Act to define and limit the powers of Settlement Officers.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to define and limit the powers of Settlement Officers: It is enacted as follows:—

Extent.

1. This Act extends to all the territories under the administration of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and Commencement of Act.

it shall come into force from the date on which it may be published in the Calcutta Gazette with the assent of the Governor-General.

Repeal of Bengal Act III of 1878.

2. Bengal Act No. III of 1878 (an Act to define and limit the powers of settlement officers with respect to enhancement of rent) is hereby repealed.

3. In this Act—

"Settlement Officer."

"Settlement Officer" means the Collector, or any officer in charge of the revenue jurisdiction of a district, and includes any Assistant Commissioner, Deputy Collector, or Sub-Deputy Collector whom the Collector or other officer as aforesaid may authorize to conduct the enquiries and proceedings connected with any settlement of land revenue, and any officer who may be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor to make any such settlement;

"Under-tenant."

"Under-tenant" means any holder of a heritable and transferable intermediate tenure between the Government and the ryot other than a zemindar.

Settlement proceedings not affected by certain Acts.

4. Nothing contained in section 51 of Regulation VIII of 1793, or in sections 13, 14, and 17 of Act X of 1859, or in sections 14, 15, and 18 of Bengal Act VIII of 1869, shall affect any settlement proceedings under Regulation VII of 1822, or under any other law for the time being in force for the regulation of settlements of land revenue.

Rent to be in accordance with rates sanctioned by the revenue authorities.

5. In any such settlement proceedings the rent recorded as demandable from each ryot shall, except as herein otherwise provided, be in accordance with the general rates sanctioned or subsequently approved for adoption in such settlement by the revenue authorities from time to time empowered in that behalf by the Lieutenant-Governor.

Grounds of enhancement.

6. The Settlement Officer may, on some one or other of the following grounds and not otherwise, record a higher rent as demandable from any ryot having a right of occupancy than the rent which was previously paid by him, viz.—

(i) That the higher rent so recorded is calculated on rates which are not above the prevailing rates payable by the same class of ryots for land of a similar description and with similar advantages in the surrounding neighbourhood.

(ii) That the enhancement is not greater than is justified by the increase which has taken place in the productive powers of the land otherwise than by the agency, or at the expense, of the ryot since the rent of the ryot was last fixed.

(iii) That the value of the produce of the land has been increased otherwise than by the agency, or at the expense, of the ryot since the rent of the ryot was last fixed; and that such higher rent does not bear a higher proportion to the rent of such ryot as last fixed than the normal price of produce at or about the time of the present settlement bears to the normal price of similar produce which prevailed at or about the time when such rent was last fixed.

(iv) That the value of the produce of the land has been increased otherwise than by the agency, or at the expense, of the ryot since the last

previous settlement of the lands was made; and that such higher rent does not bear a higher proportion to that which would have been the rent of lands of a similar description and the same area, according to the rates of such previous settlement, than the normal price of produce at or about the time of the present settlement bears to the normal price of similar produce which prevailed at or about the time of such previous settlement, as recorded in the papers of such settlements, or as otherwise ascertained and certified by the Settlement Officer.

(v) That the quantity of land held by the ryot has been proved by measurement to be greater than the quantity for which rent has been previously paid by him.

Rules for determining rent recorded as demandable

7. The rent recorded as demandable from an under-tenant shall be determined in accordance with the following rules :—

(a) Whenever the Settlement Officer shall find any person holding as an under-tenant, he shall first ascertain and record whether the tenure so held is binding as against the Government.

(b) If the Settlement Officer finds the tenure to be so binding, the rent recorded as demandable from such under-tenant shall in no case be higher than an amount which shall be ten per cent. below the aggregate of the rents recorded as payable to him from the subordinate under-tenants and ryots whose holdings fall within his tenure.

(c) If the Settlement Officer shall find that the tenure is not binding as against the Government, he shall first determine the proportionate amount of the demand of land revenue to be assessed upon the lands included in the tenure in accordance with any orders of Government for the time being in force regulating the demand of land revenue, and shall record the rent payable by such under-tenant at such a sum (not being less than such proportionate amount of land revenue or more than the aggregate of the rents recorded as payable to him from the subordinate under-tenants and ryots whose holdings fall within his tenure) as may seem fair and equitable with reference to the character and circumstances of the tenure.

Procedure when rent demandable is recorded below that to which it might have been enhanced.

8. When the rent demandable from any under-tenant or ryot is recorded at an amount below that to which the rent of such under-tenant or ryot might have been enhanced under this Act, it may be recorded that such under-tenant or ryot shall from time to time be liable to pay increased rent from such dates as may be fixed by the Settlement Officer, until the rent paid by him reaches the amount which the Settlement Officer may determine to be properly payable by him under this Act.

Service of notice of enhancement.

9. Whenever a higher rent has been recorded as demandable from any under-tenant or ryot than the rent previously paid by him, the Settlement Officer shall cause to be published a copy of the jummabundi, or extracts therefrom, specifying in respect of each such under-tenant or ryot the rent recorded as payable by him, and, in the case of a ryot, the clause or clauses of section 6 of this Act under which his rent is enhanced.

Such publication may be lawfully made by affixing a copy of the jummabundi, or of such extracts therefrom as the Collector may think fit, at the mal cutcherry of the village to which the jummabundi relates, or at some other conspicuous place therein, and by proclamation by beat of drum in the said village to the effect that the said copy or extracts have been so affixed, and that the jummabundi can be inspected at the office of the Settlement Officer.

Suit to contest rents.

10. Every under-tenant and ryot shall be liable to pay the rent recorded as demandable from him under this Act, unless it shall be proved in any suit instituted by such under-tenant or ryot to contest his liability to pay the same that such rent has not been assessed in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

But nothing in clause (c) of section 7 of this Act or in this section shall be held to limit the discretion of the Court in determining in any suit under this section the rent of an under-tenant of the class described in the said clause (c).

No suit under this section shall be instituted otherwise than within four months after the publication of the jummabundi, or extracts as aforesaid, in the village in which the lands which are the subject of the suit or any part thereof are situated.

Procedure in suits to contest rent recorded as demandable.

11. In all suits instituted to contest the rent recorded as demandable under this Act the Court shall, if it modifies or sets aside such rent, proceed to determine the rent payable by the plaintiff in accordance with this Act, and if any arrears of rent at the rates determined by the Court are found to be due, shall make a decree in favor of the defendant for such arrears, with such costs as may seem proper.

Enhancement when to take effect.

12. If publication of the copy of a jummabundi or of extracts therefrom as provided in section 9 of this Act is made within the first six months of the year of the era current in the district, the enhancement may take effect from the beginning of the year in which such publication may have been made; otherwise it shall take effect from the beginning of the next following year.

Rent to hold good for 10 years or until expiration of settlement

13. Rent recorded as demandable under this Act, or fixed by a final decree in any suit as aforesaid, shall not be liable to enhancement until ten years shall have elapsed from the date on which the settlement took effect, or until the period of the settlement shall have expired, whichever may first occur.

Application of Act.

14. The provisions of this Act shall apply to all settlement proceedings under Regulation VII of 1822 which may have been confirmed after the commencement of Bengal Act III of 1878, or which may hereafter be confirmed or sanctioned by the revenue authorities from time to time empowered in that behalf by the Lieutenant-Governor, whether such proceedings shall have been commenced before or after the commencement of the said Act.

MANAGEMENT OF THE ZOOLOGICAL GARDENS DURING THE YEAR 1878-79.

No 277T, dated Darjeeling, the 4th June 1879.

From—A. MACKENZIE, Esq., Secretary to the Government of Bengal, General Department,

To—The Honorary Secretary to the Committee for the Management of the Zoological Gardens at Calcutta.

I HAVE laid before the Lieutenant-Governor the report of the Committee for the Management of the Calcutta Zoological Gardens for the year ending the 31st March 1879, submitted with your letter dated the 29th ultimo, and I am desired to convey the thanks of Government to the President and Members of the Committee, and to yourself as Secretary and Treasurer, for their and your efficient management of the Gardens during the past official year. The thanks of the Lieutenant-Governor are also due to the donors of animals named in Appendix D to the report.

2. With reference to the remarks made by the Committee in paragraph 13 of the report, relative to the employment of a qualified European Superintendent for the Gardens, I am to say that the Lieutenant-Governor regrets his inability to promise any increase to the present annual grant made by Government to the Gardens; but hopes that the Committee will be able soon to engage a competent Superintendent for themselves through their economical administration of the funds at their disposal.

REPORT OF THE HONORARY COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT FOR THE ZOOLOGICAL GARDENS, 1878-79.

THE Honorary Committee of Management of the Calcutta Zoological Gardens submit their Report for the Financial year commencing on 1st April 1878 and ending 31st March 1879. Their Report submitted last year included a period of fifteen months.

2. The Committee, as at present constituted, consists of the following members:—

President:

HON'BLE C. T. BUCKLAND, C.S., Member of the Board of Revenue.

Honorary Secretary and Treasurer:

DR. JOHN ANDERSON, Superintendent, Indian Museum.

Members:

L. SCHWENDLER, Esq, Superintendent Electrician, Government of India.
DR. G. KING, Superintendent, Royal Botanical Gardens.
C. E. BUCKLAND, ESQ., C.S., Press Commissioner.
ROSS L. MANGLES, ESQ., V.C., C.S., Commissioner of Presidency Division.
W. DUFF BRUCE, ESQ., C.E., Vice-Chairman, Port Commissioners.
MAJOR R. STERNDALE, Vice-Chairman, Calcutta Suburban Municipality.
M. G. STEWART, ESQ., Merchant.
A. WILSON, ESQ., Merchant.
NAWAB AMIR ALI KHAN, BAHADUR.
RAJAH RAJENDRA LAL MULLICK, BAHADUR.
W. T. BLANFORD, ESQ., F.R.S., President of the Asiatic Society of Bengal.
CAPTAIN WATERHOUSE, Natural History Secretary to the Asiatic Society of Bengal.

3. It will thus be seen that the Committee has been considerably enlarged during the year, first by the appointment of Mr. Alexander Wilson, and more recently by the addition of two native gentlemen, the Nawab Amir Ali Khan, Bahadur, and Rajah Rajendra Mullick, Bahadur. Towards the close of the year the Honorary Committee of Management suggested to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor that the President of the Asiatic Society of Bengal and the Natural History Secretary to that Society should be ex-officio members of the Committee, and this proposal met with His Honor's approval. The Honorary Committee were led to make this recommendation, because they considered it but right that the Asiatic Society of Bengal, an institution which has done so much for the advancement of science in India, should be represented in the management of the Gardens.

4. Besides the Committee as thus constituted, a still wider basis has been given it by the appointment of the Commissioner of each Division to be an ex-officio member. It is hoped that, by the assistance of the Divisional Commissioners, the district officers and influential residents in the interior of the country may be induced to give their active support to the Gardens, especially by the contribution of mammals, birds, &c., for which the Committee have agreed to pay the expenses of carriage, provided that they have been consulted and have agreed to accept the specimens offered.

5. No new work of any importance has been constructed during the year, beyond the erection of a house for the protection of the pumping-engine and its belt, and the enclosing with an iron railing of a piece of ground around the tank adjoining the Sonebursa house for the reception of the Wapiti deer. Only one improvement entailing some expenditure has been undertaken, viz. the laying of the floor of the aquatic bird-house with bricks, to prevent the inroads of rats. It was necessary, however, during the year to carry out a number of small repairs, as many of the buildings and fences were in the third year of their existence.

6. Accessions and donations.—(a) One of the most valuable contributions to the Gardens during the year has been the presentation, by Babu Rameswar Pershad Narain Sing, of three full-grown tigers entrapped by him in pitfalls in their wild state in the district of Hazaribagh. They have the additional interest of belonging to a well-known family of man-eating tigers. The Committee are under great obligations to Babu Rameswar Pershad Narain Sing for his splendid donation, and to Colonel Boddam for the valuable assistance he rendered to the Committee in transmitting the animals from their places of capture to the railway.

(b) The next donation calling for notice is that of three Llamas received from the Alfred Park, Allahabad, through Mr. James Simpson, C.S.

(c) The Committee, aided by Mr. Ganstandt at Aden, obtained a fine specimen of Oryx beisa, which, however, unfortunately did not recover from the effects of its long sea voyage direct from Aden to Calcutta.

(d) The Maharajah of Tipperah, who has long and largely contributed to the Gardens, presented a female Gyal calf.

(e) The Committee have again to express their deep obligations to Mr. Falkner Carter, of Basreh, for the donation of a fine young Mesopotamian lioness, forming a fit companion to the lion received from Mr. Carter last year.

(f) The most recent, and at the same time the most important, contribution to the Gardens has been the presentation, by His Excellency the Viceroy, Lord Lytton, of the collection of animals hitherto kept in the Barrackpore Menagerie, comprising a lion and lioness, a tiger, six leopards, an Indian lynx, an Indian fox, and other mammals, besides some interesting birds and reptiles. Among the latter was a very fine gigantic land-tortoise which, although removed from Barrackpore with the utmost care and during the night, the Committee regret to say succumbed to the effects of its journey on the second day after its arrival—a most regrettable circumstance, as the race of gigantic land-tortoises is rapidly becoming extinct.

(g) A donation worthy of special mention is an example of Ursus malayanus received from the Garo Hills from Mr. G. P. Sanderson.

(h) Dr. D. D. Cunningham, who has always largely contributed to the Gardens, has presented a fine series of birds in handsome cages, accompanying them with a donation of rare crotons and other plants.

(i) The Committee have received some valuable animals by exchange with the Zoological Society of London, the most important being a pair of Wapiti deer, two armadillos, and two Capuchin monkeys. These were received in return for two Samber and a female orang-outang which the Committee had sent to London under the care of its keeper.

(j) Other exchanges of considerable importance have been effected with Mr. Rutledge, by means of which the Gardens have been put in possession of many rare and interesting birds and a few mammals.

7. Sir Ashley Eden, Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, deposited on exhibition, during the cold weather, two Yaks, a Sikkim wild sheep and a Marmot, which were on their way as a presentation by His Honor to the London Zoological Society. These animals proved a great attraction, and more especially the Yaks, which were tended by a Chinaman and a Bhutea.

8. (a) The Committee embrace this opportunity to record their indebtedness to the East Indian Railway Company who, for some years past, with great liberality, have given free transit along the whole extent of their line of railway to animals coming to the Zoological Gardens, besides having provided free passes to the keepers accompanying the animals.

(b) The Eastern Bengal Railway Company have recently intimated their intention to afford facilities of transit in a similar spirit of liberality.

(c) The Committee are likewise very much indebted to Messrs. Mackinnon, Mackenzie and Company, who, since the commencement of the Gardens, have frequently carried animals for the Committee in their steamers long distances without any charge.

(d) Messrs. Hoare, Miller and Company have also taken animals to London from the Gardens at an almost nominal cost.

9. Towards the close of the financial year, the Committee of Management having observed that the Gardens were much frequented by students from the schools and colleges of Calcutta, and being desirous to extend their usefulness as a means of communicating a practical knowledge of natural history, addressed the Director of Public Instruction on the subject, informing him of their willingness to admit free of charge any students of the Calcutta educational institutions desirous of availing themselves of the Committee's offer, but on the understanding that they were to be accompanied by their teachers.

10. The Committee regret to observe that the popularity of the Gardens with the European community seems to be decreasing, as the returns taken on Sundays indicate a considerable falling off. Last financial year 8,327 paying visitors, exclusive of members, visited the Gardens on Sundays; whereas during the financial year just closed, the numbers have decreased by 1,618 persons. It is gratifying, however, to find that the Gardens are not losing their attractions to the native community. In 1877-78 the number of week-day paying visitors amounted to 89,609; but in 1878-79 the number had increased by 14,973, making an annual total for week days of 104,582. In Appendix A will be found a return of the number of visitors on Sundays and week days throughout the year now ended, and also for 1877-78.

11. Statement B of the present financial position of the Gardens is appended. The Honorary Committee are glad to be able to report, in view of paragraph 8 of the Financial Resolution dated 4th March 1879, that they have cleared off the deficit of last year, amounting to Rs. 7,221-12-11, besides having paid for the pumping-engine Rs. 5,390, and discharged a sum of Rs. 4,739-6-9 due on account of general construction for 1877-78. The year closed with a balance of Rs. 2,468-11-9 in favor of the Gardens, but from this has to be deducted the sum of Rs. 1,686-8-5 on account of the engine-house, &c.—an expenditure incurred in the year under report, but which falls to be paid along with the iron railing for the Wapiti deer in the financial year commencing 1st April 1879. This alteration for the better, in the financial position of the Gardens, arose from the following circumstances:—first, that only those works of General Construction that were absolutely necessary were undertaken; second, that only a few inexpensive animals were purchased; third, that some large donations were received which contributed to the reduction of the deficit; and fourth, that a most rigid economy was practised. This economy was only justifiable in view of the end to be gained, because there remains yet a great deal to be done to put the Zoological Gardens in an efficient and thoroughly prosperous condition, having always due regard to their further development.

12. For these reasons of economy also Dr. King has not been able to carry out the many and decided improvements on the horticultural aspect of the Gardens which he had planned, and to which it is the intention of the Committee to give effect, in accordance with the expressed wish of the Lieutenant-Governor, as soon as the funds at their disposal will allow.

13 Under the foregoing circumstances connected with the financial condition of the Gardens, the question of appointing an European Superintendent was kept in abeyance. The Committee, however, are fully impressed with the necessity of having a properly qualified European in charge of the Gardens, and their only difficulty is how to provide for his salary. During the last three months the Gardens have been managed by two of the members of the Honorary Committee, but during the previous nine months their whole supervision devolved upon the Honorary Secretary. It has been found to be absolutely necessary that the Gardens should be visited daily, morning and evening, in order to ensure that everything is carried on in a proper manner, and especially that none of the animals are neglected. But as Government officials are liable to be changed, or to be absent on duty, or on furlough, the Committee feel that they might not always be in a position to find two of their members having the requisite knowledge to conduct the Gardens, and the willingness to devote so much time to the work as Dr. Anderson and Mr. Schwendler have done. Were such services not forthcoming from other members of the Honorary Committee, the Gardens would certainly deteriorate and ultimately prove a signal failure. The Committee would therefore urge the great importance of having this matter definitely settled by the appointment of a capable and skilled European naturalist to work under their direction. Until such an official is provided, it will not be within the power of the Committee to carry out, on the Begunbarri ground, one of the leading features of the original scheme, viz. the encouragement of the acclimatization, domestication, and breeding of animals, and the improvement of the indigenous breeds of cattle and farm stock,—a feature of the Original Prospectus, which doubtless induced many of the public to subscribe to the founding of a Zoological Garden for Calcutta.

14. The Committee take this opportunity to record their appreciation of the zeal and interest Babu R. B. Sanyal, the Native Superintendent, has taken in the performance of his duties, and of the desire he has manifested to give effect to the instructions regarding the food and general management of the animals communicated to him by the managing members of the Honorary Committee.

15. The Committee append a list (C) of those who have become life members during the past year.

16. In Appendix D will be found a list of the donors of animals for the year ending 31st March 1879.

The mean pressure, temperature, &c, are deduced from observations made at 6h., 10h., 16h., and 22h.; the maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula

The direction and movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground

The results of observations at the Alipore Observatory are not rigorously comparable with the registers of past years (at the Park Street Observatory). The barometer is about 3 feet higher at Alipore, and other things being equal, reads therefore 0·003 lower. The diurnal range of temperature is also greater at Alipore, and the mean temperature apparently about 1° or 1½° lower; and finally, the thermometer, which has furnished the record of temperature at the Surveyor-General's Office during the last 20 years and upwards, is found to read 0·6 higher than the Kew standard thermometer, which is the standard of reference at the present Observatory.

The increase in coal traffic is due to the reduction of rate made by the Eastern Bengal Railway for coal for the rice mills between Chitpore and the junction with the Calcutta and South-Eastern State Railway.

The increase in straw is due to increased demand.

Increase in rice is due to the working of the rice mills on an extensive scale.

Increase in gunny-bags is due to the demand in the rice mills being greater.

Increase in building material is due to the repairs of building at Canning belonging to Port Canning Company.

The decrease in firewood is due to the rate for license being doubled by the Port Canning Company and to the strong wind which prevented boats from plying.

The decrease in hay is due to the insufficient supply of wagons.

Decrease in wooloo is due to the enhanced rate of freight.

Decrease in paddy is due to the high rate at Canning and less demand at Calcutta.

The decrease in brass and brassware is trifling.

The decrease in coal is probably due to the accumulation reported in the statement for the last month.

The increase in edible grains is due to the market being favourable.

The increase in jaggree and sugar is trifling

The increase in piece-goods is due to greater demands.

The increase in silk and silk-cloths is due to the market being favourable.

The decrease in seeds is due to less import.

DRAFT RULES

1. Except as may be herein provided, every vessel before leaving any toll station shall pay tolls in accordance with Schedule A appended to these rules.

2. The tonnage of every laden vessel, excepting steamers and flats, shall for the purpose of the "Canals Act, 1864," and of these rules be determined by the following measurements:—

(a.) The product of half the length of the vessel from stem to stern, measured along the waterline, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the depths from the waterline to the bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as the number of maunds upon which toll shall be levied.

(b.) The measurement of the length is to be made in feet, rejecting inches; and the measurement of the breadth and depth in feet and quarters of a foot, rejecting portions of less than a quarter of a foot.

(c.) In calculating the amount of toll to be levied, any fraction of 100 maunds less than 25 maunds is to be omitted; exceeding 25 and not exceeding 50 maunds is to be charged as 25 maunds only; exceeding 50 maunds and not exceeding 75 maunds is to be charged as 50 maunds only; and exceeding 75 maunds as 75 maunds only. Above 1,000 maunds no fraction of 100 maunds are to be charged.

3. The tonnage of every empty vessel, excepting steamers and flats, shall for the purpose of the "Canals Act of 1864" and of these rules be determined, and tolls shall be levied thereon, under the same rules and by the same system of measurement as above laid down for laden vessels, with the following exception, viz.—

The measurement of the depth of an empty vessel shall be made from the gunwale to the bottom of the vessel, instead of being taken from the waterline, as in the case of a laden vessel.

4. The measurement of steamers and flats shall be taken to be as ascertained by the Master Attendant's Department at Calcutta for the payment by such vessels of the port dues under the Merchant Seamen's Act, subject to the following deductions : —

(a.) In the case of steamers, 35 per cent. of the tonnage of the hull, excluding the cabin accommodation altogether, will be allowed as the tonnage of the engine-room, coal-bunkers, &c., and toll will be levied on the remaining 65 per cent of the tonnage.

(b.) In the case of flats, 10 per cent. of the tonnage will be allowed for accommodation, &c., and tolls will be levied on the remaining 90 per cent. of tonnage.

5. All vessels which may be employed solely in conveying troops on military duty, or military stores, or which may be employed solely in work connected with the maintenance or improvement of the Nuddea rivers, as well as boats used by police officers on actual duty, shall be exempted from paying tolls. This shall not be held to apply to police officers in transit from one district to another, unless for the purpose of making an arrest or for holding an investigation.

6. If a vessel, on which toll has been duly paid, be unable, by reason of the shallowness of the water, or of any other natural obstacle, to prosecute her voyage up the river, she may, provided she returns to the toll station without unloading or taking in cargo, be permitted to pass along the other river (if any) without extra charge. If the vessel be unable to pass along either river, the Toll Collector may, at his discretion and after consideration of the circumstances of the case, refund the amount of toll which may have been paid on such vessel.

7. Every boat or vessel carrying passengers, or used for fishing, shall pay tolls only once in the same day. Provided that no passenger vessel shall be allowed this privilege unless returning empty or conveying the same passengers as on the first trip. The word "day" in this and the following rule shall mean a day between sunrise and sunset, and shall not mean 24 hours.

8. An empty cargo-vessel or boat leaving and returning empty to the station limits on the same day, having paid toll, shall not be required to pay toll a second time. A vessel leaving the Chowkey limits laden, and paying toll accordingly, shall not be required to pay toll again if returning empty on the same day.

9. Boats or vessels which may have entered the Nuddea rivers unladen or partially laden, and paid toll accordingly, shall, if they receive on board any additional freight, be subject to re-measurement and to the payment of any additional amount of toll which may be leviable on account of the additional maundage.

10. Immediately after entering the Chowkey limits, the manjee of every cargo-vessel shall take such vessel to the measuring ghât, and such vessel shall remain there until it shall have been measured in accordance with the rules for measurement.

11. After measurement shall have been duly effected, the measuring Mohurir shall deliver to the manjee of the vessel a pass in the form annexed (Appendix EI.), and shall inform the manjee verbally of the amount of toll payable by him.

12. The manjee shall take the pass to the Toll Collector's Office, and shall then pay the amount of the toll demanded from him. He shall then receive a ticket in the form annexed (Appendix EII.), which shall entitle him to pass the Chowkey limits free of all further charge. This ticket shall bear the stamp of the Toll Collector's Office and the signature of the Toll Collector, or in his absence that of the Toll Darogah.

13. The manjee or other person in charge of a vessel conveying passengers only, or laden with horses, cattle, fowls, or other live-stock, or with fruit, fish, or other articles which may be likely to be spoiled by detention, shall not be required to attend at the Toll Office, but may pay toll to the Mohurir in charge of the Chowkey boat at the rate of four annas for each oar of the vessel, and shall receive from the Mohurir a ticket in the form annexed (Appendix EIII), which shall entitle such vessel to pass Chowkey limits without further charge.

14. Passenger boats having on board cargo other than that is necessary for the passengers for the trip, and which measure 25 maunds and upwards, shall be dealt with as cargo-boats.

15. Empty boats having on board articles which are only requisite for the subsistence of the crew for the trip, shall be considered as empty.

16. No cargo shall be taken out of any boat, either measured or unmeasured, within the toll limits without the permission of the Toll Collector.

17. Tickets and passes are not transferable.

18. Passes collected at the Chowkey boats shall be brought back into the Toll Office on the morning of the following day and counterfoiled.

19. Measurement shall be made between the hours of 6 A.M. and 6 P M from April 1st to September 30th; and between 7 A.M. and 5 P.M. from October 1st to March 31st. Tickets under rule 12 shall be issued within the hours of 7 A.M. and 5 P.M. in summer, and 8 A.M. and 5 P M. in winter.

20. Any person who may have lost or mislaid his measurement ticket may apply for a duplicate. Such applications shall be in writing, and shall set forth clearly the circumstances of the loss, and shall be verified by the applicant. The Toll Collector, if he be satisfied that no fraud has been intended, shall supply a duplicate on receipt of a fee of eight annas in the case of a passenger boat or empty boat, and one rupee in the case of a laden boat

.21. Any officer of Government or other person claiming exemption under rule 5 shall be supplied by the measuring Mohurir with a certificate in the form annexed (Appendix EIV), and shall fill up and return such form to the Mohurir, who shall thereupon grant a passenger ticket in form (EIII). In case of doubt as to the good faith of any claim to exemption from toll, the measuring Mohurir may detain the vessel for which exemption is claimed, and report the case for the orders of the Toll Collector.

22. No fleet of vessels or rafts lashed together and exceeding 150 feet in length, or carrying or floating timbers exceeding in all twenty in number, shall pass into or through any of the Nuddea rivers at one time or abreast.

23. No single vessel or raft carrying or floating a greater number than twelve timbers shall pass into, or out of, or through, any of the Nuddea rivers. And no single vessel or raft carrying or floating more than six timbers shall pass into or through any of the aforesaid rivers between the 1st of December of any year and the 1st of July following.

24. For every vessel or raft, or fleet of vessels or of rafts, and for every timber which shall pass into, or out of, or through any of the Nuddea rivers in violation of rules 22 and 23, the owner thereof or the person in charge shall, on conviction by a Magistrate under section 18 of the "Canals Act, 1864," be punishable by a fine not exceeding Rs. 10 for each vessel, raft, or timber in excess of the number authorized, besides being subjected to the payment of the prescribed toll on the same. The payment of the toll shall, if necessary, be enforced in the manner described in section 9 of the "Canals Act, 1864."

25. Owners and agents of steamers who may desire to avoid the delay consequent on payment of toll on passing toll stations, may give notice to the Board of Revenue of their desire and willingness to pay toll in Calcutta on demand; and on depositing such amount as the Board of Revenue may determine, they shall be furnished with a certificate which shall entitle the steamer or flat to pass any toll station without detention, the amount of toll due on account thereof being paid in Calcutta on demand, or deducted from the amount deposited with the Board of Revenue.

26. The Commander of any vessel or vessels obtaining the privilege mentioned above shall leave at the toll station a certificate of having passed the toll station. The certificate shall mention the date of passing. It will be attached as a voucher to the bill, which will be presented for payment to the owners or agents of the vessel by the officer in Calcutta authorized to receive payment thereof.

27. Refusal to pay the toll on steamers or flats, except on those which are furnished with a certificate under rule 25, or evasion, or attempt at evasion, of such payment, will be dealt with under sections 9 and 10 of the "Canals Act, 1864;" except that, instead of the vessel being seized and detained as directed in section 9, any separate cargo or stores, the sale-proceeds of which will be sufficient to defray the amount of toll that should be paid, and which can, without inconvenience or danger to itself or to the rest of the cargo, be taken out of the vessel, shall be so taken out and detained, and subsequent proceedings shall be taken thereon as directed in section 9.

28. Any person who may without just cause refuse to pay any toll demanded of him by the officers of the toll establishment, or who may evade, or attempt to evade, any such toll, or who may be a party to the transfer, or attempted transfer, of any ticket or pass, or who may without reasonable cause neglect or refuse to place his vessel in any situation in which he may be required by the Toll Collector to place it, or who may without reasonable cause neglect or refuse to remove his vessel from the measuring ghât after measurement, or unload cargo without the permission of the Toll Collector, shall be punishable under section 10 of Act V of 1864 (B.L.C), on conviction before a Magistrate, with a fine which may amount to Rs. 50, or with simple imprisonment in lieu of fine which may extend to one month.

29. Any person who shall without sufficient excuse neglect or refuse to produce when called upon by the Toll Officers, or by any other person whose duty it may be to check the collection of tolls on the rivers, any ticket or pass which he may be required by these rules to produce, shall be liable to pay tolls, whether he shall or shall not have previously paid them, and shall also be liable to a fine under section 10 of the Canals Act which may amount to Rs. 50.

30. Complaints against the conduct of the subordinate officers and enquiries for information must be preferred to the Toll Collector.

DRAFT RULES PROPOSED UNDER ACT III (B. C.) OF 1876.

Dated the 26th May 1879.

No. 145.—Notification.—In exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 99 of Act III (B.C.) of 1876, the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to direct the publication of the following rules for the Sone Canals which it is proposed to substitute for the rules passed and published at pages 1151 to 1159, Part I, of the Calcutta Gazette of the 23rd October 1878.

D. B. HORN,
for Joint-Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal,
P. W. Dept., Irrign. Branch.

RULES UNDER ACT III (B. C.) OF 1876.

1. The Collector, before awarding compensation under section 16, or making a reference under section 17, of the Act, shall obtain the written opinion of the Superintending Canal Officer, which shall form part of the record of the proceedings.

2. Water shall not be granted where, in the opinion of the Divisional Canal Officer, loss from wastage is likely to occur.

3. Water shall not ordinarily be granted where the length of the village channel, from its head to its point of contact with the village boundary, exceeds two (2) miles.

4. Water for irrigation shall not be supplied, except through a village channel so constructed and maintained that, in the opinion of the Divisional Canal Officer—

(a)—the water will pass without wastage;

(b)—the existing necessary lines of communication, the flow of drainage water, and the passage of water for irrigation will not be obstructed.

5. Persons desirous (i) of constructing a village channel, (ii) of registering a channel already constructed, (iii) of taking water from a village channel, or (iv) of taking water from any outlet provided by Government, shall prefer a written application to the Divisional Canal Officer, or to some officer duly authorised by him to receive such applications. In the first two cases (i) and (ii), if the application be received by an officer subordinate to the Divisional Canal Officer, it shall be forwarded to him for orders.

6. An application under rule 5 shall, if granted, and unless otherwise specially agreed upon, be subject to the following conditions :—

(a)—That the water supplied shall not be used for other purposes than irrigation without the written consent of the Divisional or Sub-divisional Canal Officer.

(b)—That the Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall, in consultation with the applicants, appoint a headman (to be called "Suttadar"), known or ascertained to be a substantial person possessed of property, to attend to their interests, to receive and carry out the orders of the Canal Officers, to distribute the water among the shareholders in the village channel according to their shares.

(c)—That in any case where the Sub-divisional Canal Officer cannot agree with the applicants in the appointment of a Suttadar, the Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall make the appointment himself, subject to the approval of the Divisional Canal Officer.

(d)—That the Collector shall appoint a headman (to be called Tehsildar) whose sole duty will be to collect and pay in to the Collector, or other duly authorized person, all water-rates leviable on the lands watered from the village channel.

(e)—That the Tehsildar shall furnish security for the payment of all sums realized by him, the stamp and registration fees on security bonds being deducted from the percentage allowed under rule 11.

(f)—That previous to water being taken for any field, a written application shall be made to the Sub-divisional Canal Officer or any subordinate authorized by the Divisional Canal Officer to receive such applications, and that no water shall be taken until after the receipt of a "permit" (Appendix B) from competent authority.

(g)—That in any case where the Divisional Canal Officer, owing to the known recusancy of any village, or of any class of cultivators, anticipates that there is likely to be difficulty in the realization of the water-rates, he shall intimate the same to the Collector, in whose option it shall be to require payment of water-rates in advance, and the Collector shall inform the Divisional Canal Officer of any villages where he considers that water should not be granted without previous payment

(h)—That any other cultivators in the same village, able and willing to irrigate their lands from the village channel, may, subject to the approval of the Divisional Canal Officer, be admitted as shareholders in it, on paying their proportionate share of the first cost and maintenance thereof, to be determined by the amount of irrigable land held by them.

(i)—That all alterations in the number of shareholders or distribution of shares shall be reported to the Sub-divisional Canal Officer for the sanction of the Divisional Canal Officer.

7. The Divisional Canal Officer is empowered to pay to the Suttadar appointed under rule 8 the fees detailed in the rule next following, subject to the condition of satisfactory performance of duty.

8. The allowance to the Suttadar for duties connected with that village channel, such as arranging that it shall be kept in proper repair, seeing that no lands obtain water without a regular "permit," distributing the water to the shareholders, seeing to the outlet being closed according to the orders of the Divisional Canal Officer, and generally assisting the officers of the Irrigation Department, shall be one-half anna in the rupee on the amount of canal water-rates assessed on the lands irrigated from the village channel under his charge. The Divisional Canal Officer may retrench the whole or any part of the fees under this rule in the event of the conditions not being complied with.

9. The allowance to the Tehsildar of a village channel for collecting the water-rates shall be one-half anna in the rupee on the amount actually paid in by him. If the Tehsildar shall satisfy the Collector that arrears have not accrued through any negligence on his part, it shall be within the discretion of the Collector to pay him the allowance on the whole or on any part of such arrears.

10. Contracts between the Divisional Canal Officer on the part of Government and private individuals for the use of water as a motive power, or for any other purpose whatsoever not included in the published schedule of rates, shall, if for any period not exceeding one year, require the previous sanction of the Superintending Canal Officer.

If proposed for longer periods, such contracts shall be submitted for the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor in the Irrigation Department.

11. Tanks may be filled with canal water without charge, and without reference to the area irrigated in any village, whenever water can be made available without injury to the cultivation dependent on any canal, under the following conditions:—

(a)—No tank shall be so filled unless the water is to be exclusively used for domestic purposes or for watering cattle, or both.

(b)—No tank shall be so filled from which irrigation is practised.

(c)—No tank shall be so filled which, intercepting any line of drainage, is liable to overflow from accumulation of water derived from natural causes.

(d)—No tank shall be so filled except on the written order of the Sub-divisional Canal Officer, issued on the written application of the parties concerned.

(e)—No tank shall be so filled unless the village channel used to fill it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Sub-divisional Canal Officer to be in a sound condition when the application is made.

(f)—The privilege herein accorded may, by written order of the Divisional Canal Officer, subject to revision by the Superintending Canal Officer, whose decision shall be final, be suspended for twelve months for breach of any of the above conditions.

12. The Sub-divisional Canal Officer may, by written order under section 76 (a) (ii), stop the supply to any village channel when he is satisfied, after inspection by himself or by one of his subordinates, that the village channel is not maintained in proper repair. In the case of any such closure of a registered channel, immediate report thereof, with any necessary explanation, shall be made to the Divisional Canal Officer.

13. The Divisional Canal Officer may, under section 76 (a) (iii), regulate the distribution of the available water in proportion to the average area irrigated from the several outlets, or in proportion to the quantities of water contracted for, and may close the outlets in rotation as shall be necessary.

Such periodical closures shall not extend beyond ten consecutive days, and shall be notified to the Suttadars of village channels. For longer closures the authority of the Superintending Canal Officer is required.

Nothing in the above rules shall be taken to affect the power of the Superintending or any Divisional Canal Officer to stop any supply of water in case of pressing emergency.

14. The water-gauges on distributaries or other channels shall be held to give authoritative data for all calculations of discharge required to verify claims for remission of water-rate on account of loss of water.

15. Claims to remission of water-rates, under section 76 (b), shall only be admitted on proof of actual loss caused by the stoppage of supply. On proof of such loss, the Divisional Canal Officer may remit the whole or any portion of the rates. All applications for remission of water-rates shall be made in writing by the parties concerned, either in person or through their headman, to the nearest Sub-divisional Canal Officer, at least seven days prior to the cutting of the crop. On receipt of such application, the Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall, after due local enquiry, forward the application with his remarks to the Divisional Canal Officer for decision.

16. Before awarding compensation under section 76 (c) the Collector shall obtain the written opinion of the Divisional Canal Officer, and such opinion shall form part of the record of the proceedings.

17. Under section 78 of the Act, the rates chargeable per acre on the different descriptions of crops are fixed for three years, viz. from 1st June 1876 to the 1st June 1879, and are as follow:—

WATER-RATES.

Sone Canals.

NOTE

1 Cottah .. = 1 361·25 s. feet
1 Beegha ... . = 27 225 00 „
1 Acre .. .. = 43,560 00 „

18. If only a portion of a field be irrigated, the water-rate shall be chargeable on the whole field, unless such portion shall have been clearly demarcated, previous to the admission of the water, by a ridge not less than half a foot high.

19. When a portion of a field has been irrigated with canal water and a portion with well or reservoir water, the whole field shall be liable for canal water-rate, unless a clearly distinguishable boundary exists between the two portions.

20. If well or reservoir water is conveyed in the same channel as canal water, the whole of the irrigation from that channel shall be liable to canal water-rate. The Suttadar will be held personally responsible for the due observance of this rule and of rules 19 to 23 and 24.

21. Irrigation from natural or artificial escape channels, when the supply is permanent, shall be governed by the same rules as irrigation from other parts of the canal.

22. Irrigation from such channels, when the supply is intermittent, may be allowed at such reduced rates as shall from time to time be fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor.

23. Persons irrigating lands from a canal without a written permit for water for such lands, or taking water at times prohibited by proper authority, shall be chargeable with double water-rates on the area irrigated.

24. The charge leviable for water suffered to run to waste on uncultivated lands shall be calculated at the highest rate specified in the schedule, viz. five rupees per acre on the area flooded; provided that in every such case the Divisional Canal Officer may impose a lower rate if he thinks fit. The Suttadar to be held responsible for reporting such waste of water.

25. When the original crop sown in a field, irrigated by the canal water, fails and is ploughed up, and a fresh crop is sown in the same season, the water-rates shall be levied on the second crop.

26. The statements of the amounts demandable for water-rates levied under the rules in force shall be prepared under the supervision and signature of the Divisional Canal Officer in such form as shall from time to time be sanctioned by the Lieutenant-Governor.

27. All water-rates shall become due on the dates noted on the "permits," as herein below stated, and shall be paid within one month of such dates:—

Water-rate on spring crops, wheat, barley, peas, poppy, &c.—15th April.

Water-rate on summer crops, cheena, &c.—15th August.

Water-rate on bhadoi crops, early rice, Indian-corn, murwa, &c.—30th November.

Water-rate on annual and winter crops, sugarcane aghani rice, joaur, &c.—31st January.

28. In the case of lands held in bhaoli, the water-rate shall be recoverable from both the cultivator and the person or persons in receipt of the bhaoli rents, in the same proportion as the produce is divisible amongst them.

29. Collection of all water-rate shall be made by the Collector in accordance with the statement of demands furnished to him by the Divisional Canal Officer.

30. Objections to the demand addressed to the Collector shall, if remission be claimed on the score of short supply or of any matter affecting the Irrigation Department, be referred for orders to the Divisional Canal Officer. The collection of the demand shall not be suspended on account of any such objection.

31. Claims for remission referred by the Collector and admitted by the Divisional Canal Officer shall be reported by him for the sanction of the Superintending Canal Officer, except in cases where remissions are made on account of excess areas having been charged for, or wrong name entered in the khatiauni.

32. A remission statement signed by the Superintending or Divisional Canal Officer shall be sufficient authority for a refund by the Collector.

33 If the Divisional Canal Officer reject the claim, an appeal may be made to the Superintending Canal Officer, provided that it is preferred within forty days from the issue of the order of the Divisional Canal Officer.

34. In special cases not otherwise provided for by these rules, and in cases in which water-rates are not recoverable owing to the absconding or bankruptcy of the defaulter, the Collector will obtain the sanction of the Commissioner of the Division to the remission of such sums as he may deem irrecoverable. The details of such remission shall be communicated at the close of each official year to the Divisional Canal Officer.

35. If a cultivator is dissatisfied with the entries made against him in the khatiauni, whether as to the fact of the land having been charged "flow" instead of "lift," or as to the measurements and entries of class of crop, he must lodge a complaint, either personally or through the Suttadar of his watercourse, with the Divisional or Sub-divisional Canal Officer at least seven days prior to the cutting of the crop.

36. No person shall, without the permission in writing of the Divisional or Sub-divisional Canal Officer, pass, or cause any animal or vehicle to pass, on or across any of the works, banks, or channels of a canal or drainage work after he has been desired to desist therefrom, excepting by means of such bridges, fords, and ferries, and their approaches, as are provided by the Divisional Canal Officer.

37 No Canal Officer, unless specially exempted by the Lieutenant-Governor from the operation of this rule, shall have any interest in the distribution of water from any of the canals, or purchase or bid for any Government property sold thereon, either in his own name or in the name of another, or jointly or in shares with others.

38. The Ameen appointed to measure up the area irrigated in any village shall, before leaving it, make over the khusras to a Mohurir, who will then compile the khatiauni. A copy of the khatiauni will be taken by the Putwaree, who must, as a rule, make it himself; but if he cannot from any cause do so, the Mohurir must make it, and the Putwaree is to be held responsible that he gets a copy.

39. The copy of the khatiauni thus made shall be hung up in some conspicuous place in the village, and slips in the prescribed form (Appendix D), showing the amount he will have to pay, area irrigated, &c., shall be prepared by the Putwaree and given to each ryot.

40. The allowance to the Putwaree for the above work shall be one-quarter anna in the rupee on the collections, and shall be paid to him by the Collector on his being satisfied that the work has been properly done.

41. The measurements of each crop irrigated shall be made as soon as practicable, and every care should be taken to have the khatiauni hung up in the village at least fifteen days before the crop is cut, so that the ryot may make his complaints, if he have any, in good time.

42. In case of any subsequent alteration of the khatiauni, owing to correction of clerical errors, &c., such alteration shall be at once communicated to the Putwaree to enable him to correct the village copy and slips accordingly.

43. The Zilladar shall submit his check measurements in a form (Appendix E) which shall be sent in for the inspection of the Divisional Canal Officer. The Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall also check the Ameens' measurements as often as he possibly can. If it be found that any Ameen wilfully or frequently makes wrong measurements, he shall be punished by dismissal, and shall be declared incapable of obtaining further employment under Government.

[Sixth Publication.]

The 13th May 1879.

No. 141.—Notification.—The following draft rules, having reference to the Narainghur distributary, referred to in this Department Notification No. 140, dated the 13th May 1879, are hereby published under the provision of section 12 of the Canals Act of 1864 [No. V (B.C.)] :—

I.—Every vessel on entering the canal shall be liable to measurement for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of toll the vessel should pay according to the schedule of rates authorized by Government to be charged on the canal.

II.—The tonnage of every vessel, whether laden or empty, shall, for the purposes of the "Canals Act, 1864," and of these rules, be determined by the following measurements :—

(a) The product of half the length of the vessel, from stem to stern, measured along the water line, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the depth from the water line to the bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as the number of maunds upon which toll shall be levied.

(b) The measurement of the length is to be made in feet, rejecting inches, and the measurement of the breadth and depth in feet and quarters of feet, rejecting portions of less than a quarter of a foot.

(c) In calculating the amount of toll to be levied on vessels exceeding 100 maunds tonnage, any fraction of 100 maunds less than 25 and not exceeding 50 maunds, is to be charged as 25 maunds only; exceeding 50 and not exceeding 75 maunds, to be charged as 50 maunds only; and exceeding 75 maunds, as 75 maunds only. Above 1,000 maunds no fraction of 100 maunds tonnage is to be charged. Toll will be charged on vessels under 100 maunds tonnage on the actual measurements of the vessels, omitting fractions of tens of maunds.

III.—Every vessel entering the above canal shall be furnished with a ticket on paying the prescribed toll. The ticket shall specify the station at which it has been issued, the name of the person in charge of the vessel, the date the vessel entered the canal, the point to which it may proceed in the canal, the maundage of the vessel, the amount of toll charged, and the number of days for which the vessel may remain in the canal and the date of such last day. The number of days which the vessel may remain in the canal without additional payment shall be calculated at the rate of one day for every eight miles or portion of eight miles to be traversed.

IV.—Toll may be paid at the first station for the entire line of navigation.

V.—The tickets thus given may be demanded for inspection by any duly authorized canal officer, and must be on board and at hand for that purpose. The tickets should be delivered up at the last toll station.

VI.—Owners of vessels may compound, by the payment of a fixed sum, for the use of the whole or a portion of the above canal for any period that may be agreed upon not exceeding one year. Each vessel so compounded for shall be furnished with a ticket showing the amount of toll paid, the period for which the toll has been compounded for, and the limits of the canals within which the vessel may pass: such ticket shall be kept on board the vessel and shall be produced when required under Rule V, but shall be given up only on the date of the expiry of the period for which granted, and at the station from whence issued.

VII.—Duplicates of lost tickets, of which the numbers and the dates of entry can be satisfactorily established, will be granted by the officer in charge of toll station on payment of a fee of one rupee.

VIII.—Vessels remaining in the canal for a period exceeding that allowed under Rule III will pay a demurrage of 8 annas per 100 maunds per diem for each day or part of a day that they remain in excess.

IX.—No boats above 10 feet beam over-all, and no rafts or floats of more than 10 feet width and 60 feet in length, will be allowed to enter the canal.

X.—It will not be compulsory for the lock to be opened to single vessels of less than 500 maunds burthen, except in the case of mail or despatch boats; but the lock shall be opened for the passage of boats at least twice a day.

XI.—Vessels must have their masts fitted so that they can let down with ease and speed; and when under sail, vessels must always keep in the middle of the canal: when being tracked, vessels are, as far as practicable, to keep to their port or left side of the canal.

XII.—All vessels anchoring at night are to keep to their port or left bank of the canal.

XIII.—Only one vessel shall be allowed to make fast along, and in a line with the canal banks, and no vessel shall be made fast, or be placed outside of vessels so secured, without the permission of a canal officer. No vessels shall, however, be placed in such a position as to endanger the safety of other vessels, to obstruct their passage, or to impede the navigation, and no bamboos or poles shall be allowed to be erected on vessels when at anchor. Any infringement of this rule will be punishable by a fine not exceeding Rs. 5 for each offence.

XIV.—Every vessel when put-to shall be securely fastened, and shall at all times have some person in attendance on board of it. Any infringement of this rule will be punishable by a fine not exceeding Rs. 5 for each offence.

XV.—In every case of wreck or obstruction of the channel by sunken vessels, the canal officer may call upon the person in charge of the vessel to remove the same without delay, and shall give every reasonable assistance towards so doing. But should the owner of the vessel or raft be not forthcoming, or should he not use reasonable expedition in removing the obstruction, or should he decline or fail to use proper assistance which may be offered to him by the canal officer, this officer may undertake the removal of the obstruction himself at the cost of the owner of the boat, recovering the expense in the manner laid down in section 9 of the "Canals Act of 1864."

XVI.—If the canal officer be unable to ascertain the name and place of business or of abode of the owner of the cargo of any vessel or boat seized under the Canals Act, he shall notify the seizure in the most public manner available.

XVII.—In the event of any damage or injury being occasioned to the canal works by wilfulness or negligence on the part of any person in charge of a vessel, the canal officer may detain the vessel within the canal for a period not exceeding 24 hours, provided that within that period the canal officer shall lodge a complaint against such person in charge of the vessel before a Magistrate under section 16 of the Canals Act.

XVIII.—The banks or berms of the canal shall not be used as wharves for the deposit of goods, under a penalty of Rs. 10 for each offence; but, except in special cases, when the permission of the canal officer will be necessary, all articles shall be removed to the outer banks of the canal, and all such articles as shall not be finally removed from within the boundaries of the canal, within a period of six days after being so deposited, shall be liable to a charge of 4 annas per 100 maunds.

XIX.—The canal may be closed once a year for effecting the necessary repairs to it, on one month's notice of the intention so to close it; but in the event of any sudden emergency, the canal may be closed at any time without prior notice, and no claim shall be made in such case by owners of vessels or others for compensation on account of detention.

XX.—All offences against the provisions of these rules shall be punishable as provided for in section 18 of the "Canals Act of 1864," and all fines imposed may be recovered in the manner mentioned in section 17 of the same Act.

XXI.—The term "canal officer" in the foregoing rules shall include the person alluded to in section 8 of the "Canals Act of 1864," and any other person who may be specially appointed to exercise such powers by the person appointed to collect the tolls.

CIVIL.

No. 23, dated the 7th June 1879.

A doubt having been expressed as to whether the form of "Certificate by Judge of due service of summons under Section 59," Act VIII of 1859, prescribed by Circular Order No. 9, dated the 6th April 1871, has been superseded by the form No. 121 in the 4th Schedule of Act X of 1877, the Judges are pleased formally to cancel the form first mentioned, and to direct that the latter be used instead thereof.

No. 24, dated 14*th June* 1879.

It is not necessary that a detailed list of the Exhibits admitted in evidence in a case should form part of the General Index of the contents of the Trial Nuthee, the preparation of which is enjoined by the orders noted in the margin. It is sufficient to state in the General Index the number of Exhibits used by each party, the necessary detail being given in the supplementary lists of Exhibits, which should also have a column to show the distinguishing mark put upon each by the Court.

PRESENT :

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

ARTIKEL IV.

Die Auslieferung soll nicht stattfinden, wenn die von der Schweizrischen Regierung verfolgte Person im Vereinigten Königreich, oder die Seitens der Regierung des Vereinigten Königreiches verfolgte Person in einem Kanton der Schweiz wegen derselben strafbaren Handlung, wegen deren die Auslieferung nachgesucht wird, in Untersuchung gewesen und ausser Verfolgung gesezt worden, oder sich noch in Untersuchung befindet, oder bereits bestraft worden ist.

Wenn die von der Schweizerischen Regierung verfolgte Person im Vereinigten Königreich, oder wenn die Seitens der Regierung des Vereinigten Königreiches verfolgte Person in einem Kanton der Schweiz wegen einer andern strafbaren Handlung in Untersuchung liegt oder bestraft worden ist, so kann die Auslieferung verschoben werden, bis diese Person in gehörigen Rechtsgang in Freiheit gesezt worden ist.

In case such individual should be proceeded against or detained in the country in which he has taken refuge, on account of obligations contracted towards private individuals, his extradition shall, nevertheless, take place, the injured party retaining his right to prosecute his claims before the competent authority.

ARTICLE V.

The extradition shall not take place if, subsequently to the commission of the crime, or the institution of the penal prosecution, or the conviction thereon, exemption from prosecution or punishment has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of the State applied to.

ARTICLE VI.

If the individual claimed by one of the two Contracting Parties in pursuance of the present Treaty should be also claimed by one or several other powers, on account of other crimes committed upon their respective territories, his surrender shall be granted to that State whose demand is earliest in date, unless any other arrangement should be made between the Governments which have claimed him, either on account of the gravity of the crimes committed, or for any other reason.

ARTICLE VII.

A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or is connected with a crime of that nature, or if he prove that the requisition for his surrender has, in fact, been made with a view to try and punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTICLE VIII.

A person surrendered can in no case be kept in prison, or be brought to trial in the State to which the surrender has been made, for any other crime, or on account of any other matters than those for which the extradition shall have taken place.

This stipulation does not apply to crimes committed after the extradition.

ARTICLE IX.

The requisition for extradition must always be made by the way of diplomacy, and to wit, in Switzerland by the British Minister to the President of the Confederation, and in the United Kingdom to the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs by the Consul-General of Switzerland, who, for the purposes of this Treaty, is hereby recognised by Her Majesty as a Diplomatic Representative of Switzerland.

The requisition for the extradition of an accused person must be accompanied by a warrant of arrest issued by the competent authority of the State requiring the extradition, and by Wird ein solches Individuum wegen Verpflichtungen, die dasselbe mit Privatpersonen abgeschlossen hat, in jenem Lande, in welchem es Zuflucht genommen hat, gerichtlich verfolgt oder mit Personalarrest belegt, so soll dessen Auslieferung dennoch stattfinden, dabei aber der deschädigten Partei das Recht vorbehalten bleiben, ihre Aussprache vor der kompetenten Behörde geltend zu machen.

ARTIKEL V.

Die Auslieferung soll nicht stattfinden, wenn seit der begangenen strafbaren Handlung, oder der Einleitung der strafgerichtlichen Verfolgung, oder der erfolgten Verurtheilung nach den Gesczen des ersuchten Staates Verjährung der strafgerichtlichen Verfolgung oder der erkannten Strafe eingetreten ist.

ARTIKEL VI.

Wird ein Individuum von einer der beiden Vertragsperteien auf Grund des gegenwärtigen Verträges zur Ausleiferung reklamirt, zugleich aber auch dessen Auslieferung von einer oder mehrern andern Mächten wegen andern auf deren Gebieten begangenen Verbrechen verlangt, so ist dasjenige Gesuch im Vorgange zu bewilligen, welches das älteste im datum ist, es sei denn, das zwischen den Regierungen, die das betreffende Individuum reklamirt haben, entweder wegen der Wichtigkeit der begangenen Verbrechen oder aus andern Gründen ein anderes Abkommen getroffen würde.

ARTIKEL VII.

Ein flüchtiger Verbrecher soll nicht ausgeliefert werden, wenn die strafbare Handlung, wegen deren seine Auslieferung verlangt wird, einen politischen Charakter an sich trägt, oder mit einem derartigen Verbrechen zusammenhängt, oder wenn er nachweisen kann, dass der Antrag auf seine Auslieferung in Wirklichkeit mit der Absicht gestellt worden ist, ihn wegen eines Verbrechens oder Vergehens politischer Natur zu verfolgen oder zu bestrafen.

ARTIKEL VIII.

Die ausgelieferte Person darf in dem Staate, an welchen die Auslieferung erfolgt ist, keinenfalls wegen einer andern strafbaren Handlung oder auf Grund anderer Thatsachen, als derjenigen, wegen deren die Auslieferung erfolgt ist, in Haft behalten oder zur Untersuchung gezogen werden.

Auf strafbare Handlungen, welche nach erfolgter Auslieferung verübt sind, findet diese Bestimmung keine Anwendung.

ARTIKEL IX.

Das Auslieferungsbegehren muss immer auf diplomatischem Wege gestellt werden und zwar in der Schweiz durch den Englischen Gesandten bei dem Bundespräsidenten und in Grossbritannien durch den Schweizerischen General-Konsul in London, welcher von Ihrer Majestät für die Zweke dieses Vertrages als diplomatischer Repräsentant der Schweiz anerkannt wird, bei dem Staatssekretär für die auswärtigen Angelegenheiten.

Mit dem Gesuche auf Auslieferung eines Beschuldigten müssen ein Verhaftsbefehl welcher von der zuständigen Behörde des die Auslieferung begehrenden Staates erlassen ist, und solche such evidence as, according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

If the requisition relates to a person already convicted, it must be accompanied by the sentence of condemnation passed against the convicted person by the competent Court of the State that makes the requisition for extradition.

A requisition for extradition cannot be founded on sentences passed in contumaciam.

ARTICLE X.

A fugitive criminal may, however, be apprehended under a warrant issued by any police magistrate, justice of the peace, or other competent authority, in either country, on such information or complaint, together with such evidence, or after such judicial proceedings as would, in the opinion of the officer issuing the warrant, justify its issue, if the crime had been committed in that part of the dominions of the two Contracting Parties in which he exercises jurisdiction. Provided, however, that in the United Kingdom the accused shall in such case be sent as speedily as possible before a police magistrate in London. Such requisition may be made by means of the post or by telegraph.

The accused shall, however, be discharged if, within such reasonable time as, with reference to the circumstances of the case, the police Magistrate may fix, the requisition shall not have been made according to the stipulations contained in Article IX.

ARTICLE XI.

The extradition shall not take place before the expiration of fifteen days from the apprehension, and then only if the evidence be found sufficient, according to the laws of the State applied to, either to justify the committal of the prisoner for trial in case the crime had been committed in the territory of the said State, or to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the Courts of the State which makes the requisition.

ARTICLE XII.

In the examinations which they have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State applied to shall admit as entirely valid evidence the sworn depositions or statement of witnesses taken in the other State or copies thereof, and likewise the warrants and sentences issued therein, provided such documents are signed or certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or Officer of such State, and are authenticated by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of a British Secretary of State, or of the Chancellor of the Swiss Confederation.

Beweise beigebracht werden, welche nach den Gesezen des Ortes, wo der Beschuldigte aufgefunden wird, dessen Verhaftung rechtfertigen würden, wenn die strafbare handlung dort begangen ware

Betrifft das Auslieferungsbegehren eine bereits verurtheilte Person, so muss das Strafurtheil beigebracht werden, welches von dem zuständigen Gericht des die Auslieferung begehrenden Staates gegen den Verurtheilten erlassen worden ist.

Auf Strafurtheile, welche in contumaciam erlassen worden sind, kann das Auslieferungsgesuch nicht gegründet werden.

ARTIKEL X.

Indessen kann ein flüchtiger Verbrecher in beiden Landern auch verhaftet werden auf Grund eines Verhaftsbefehles, der von einem Polizeimagistrat, Friedensrichter, oder von einer andern kompetenten Behorde auf eine solche Strafanzeige oder Klage und zugleich auf einen solchen Beweis oder nach einem solchen gerichtlichen Verfahren erlassen wird, dass nach der Ansicht des Beamten, welcher den Verhaftsbefehl erlasst, dessen Erlass gerechtfertigt ware, wenn das Verbrechen in demjenigen Theile der Gebiete der Vertragsparteien begangen worden ware, in welchem der Beamte Gerichtsbarkeit ausübt. Es wird indessen bedungen, dass in dem Vereinigten Königreiche in einem solchen Falle der Beklagte so schnell wie möglich vor einen Polizeimagistrat in London gesendetwerden soll. Solche Requisitionen mögen vermittels der Post oder durch den Telegraphen gemacht werden.

Der Angeklagte soll indess des Verhaftes entlassen werden, wenn inner einer billigen Frist, die von dem Polizeimagistrat anzusezen ist und bei deren Fixirung die Verumstandungen des einzelnen Falles zu beruksichtigen sind, das Begehren nicht in Gemassheit der in Artikel IX enthaltenen Bestimmungen gestellt worden ist.

ARTIKEL XI.

Die Auslieferung erfolgt nicht vor Ablauf von funfzehn Tagen seit der Ergreifung und nur dann wenn die Beweise fur genügend befunden worden sind, um nach den Gesezen des ersuchten Staates entweder die Verweisung des Ergriffenen zur Hauptuntersuchung zu rechtfertigen, falls die strafbare Handlung im Gebiet dieses Staates begangen ware oder darzuthun, dass der Ergriffene mit der von den Gerichten des ersuchenden Staates verurtheilten Person identisch ist.

ARTIKEL XII.

And whereas a Protocol amending Article XVI of the aforesaid Treaty was signed by the Plenipotentiaries of Her Majesty and of the Swiss Confederation on the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, which Protocol is in the following terms:—

The undersigned Plenipotentiaries of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the Federal Council of the Swiss Confederation, having met in Conference, have taken into their consideration the following subject:—

They have directed their attention to the fact that the second paragraph of the XVIth Article of the Treaty, which stipulates that the requisition for the arrest of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any of the Colonies or foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty shall be made through the Swiss Consul-General in London to the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, was not in accordance with the law of England, and they have consequently resolved to declare that the second paragraph of that Article beginning:

"The requisition for the arrest," and concluding with, "and the laws of the land," shall be null and void, and in lieu thereof the following words shall be substituted:

"The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any of such Colonies or foreign possessions shall be made to the Governor or to the Supreme Authority of such Colony or Possession through the Swiss Consul, or, in case there should be no Swiss Consul, through the Consular Agent of another State charged for the occasion with the Swiss interests in the Colony or Possession in question.

"The Governor or Supreme Authority abovementioned shall decide with regard to such requisitions as nearly as possible in accordance with the provisions of the present Treaty. He will, however, be at liberty either to consent to the extradition or report the case to his Government.

The other provisions of Article XVI remain in force as they have been agreed upon in the Treaty.

This Protocol shall be regarded and acted upon as forming part of the Treaty in question.

In witness whereof the Undersigned have signed this Protocol, and have hereunto affixed their seals.

Done in duplicate at Berne, the twenty-eighth day of November, in the year of Grace, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

The Plenipotentiary of Great Britain,

(L.S.) EDWIN CORBETT.

Die unterzeichneten Bevollmächtigten Ihrer Majestät der Königin des Vereinigten Königreichs von Grossbritannien und Irland, und des Bundesrathes der Schweizerischen Eidgenossenschaft, haben in einer Conferenz folgenden Gegenstand in Erwagung gezogen:—

Sie haben ihre Aufmerksamkeit auf die Thatsache gerichtet, dass der zweite Absaz von Artikel XVI des Vertrages, welcher bestimmt, dass das Gesuch um Verhaftung eines flüchtigen Verbrechers, welcher sich nach einer der colonien oder auswärtigen Besizungen Ihrer Grossbritannischen Majestat gewendet hat, durch den Schweizerischen General-Konsul in London an den Staatssekretar fur die auswärtigen Angelegenheiten gerichtet werden soll, mit den Gesezen Englands nicht in Einklang steht. Sie sind daher übereingekommen zu erklaren, dass der zweite Absaz besagten Artikels, also beginnend:

"Der Antrag auf Verhaftung," und schliessend, "der bestehenden Geseze zu verfahren hat," null und nichtig sein, und an Stelle desselben die nachfolgenden Worte eingeschaltet werden sollen:

"Der Antrag auf Auslieferung eines flüchtigen Verbrechers, welcher in einer dieser Colonien oder auswartigen Besizungen Zuflucht gefunden hat, soll bei dem Gouverneur oder bei der höchsten Behörde der betreffenden Colonie oder Besizung durch den in derselben residirenden Schweizerischen Consul, oder in Ermangelung eines solchen, durch den Consularagenten eines andern Staates welchen fur diesen speciellen Fall die Wahrnehmung der Schweizerischen Interessen in der fraglichen Colonie oder Besizung anvertraut wird, gestellt werden.

"Der Gouverneur oder die höchste Behörde, welche oben erwahnt sind, sollen bezüglich solcher Auslieferungsbegehren moglichst conform mit den Bestimmungen des vorliegenden Vertrages entscheiden. Es steht ihnen indess frei, die Auslieferung zu bewilligen oder den Fall ihrer Regierung zum Entscheid zu überweisen."

Die andern Punkte von Artikel XVI bleiben in der im Vertrag vereinbarten Form in Kraft.

Dieses Protokoll soll als integrirender Bestandtheil des Vertrages angesehen und beobachtet Warden.

Zur Urkunde dessen haben die Unterfertigten dasselbe unterzeichnet und ihre Siegel beigesezt.

So geschehen in doppelter Ausfertigung in Bern, den achtundzwanzigsten Tag des Wintermonats im Jahre des Heils ein tausend acht hundert vier und siebenzig.

THE following Act, passed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in Council, received the assent of His Honor on the 17th April 1879, and having received the assent of His Excellency the Governor-General on the 22nd May 1879, is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. VIII OF 1879.

An Act to define and limit the powers of Settlement Officers.

Preamble

WHEREAS it is expedient to define and limit the powers of Settlement Officers: It is enacted as follows :—

Extent.

1. This Act extends to all the territories under the administration of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and Commencement of Act.

it shall come into force from the date on which it may be published in the Calcutta Gazette with the assent of the Governor-General.

Repeal of Bengal Act III of 1878.

2. Bengal Act No. III of 1878 (an Act to define and limit the powers of settlement officers with respect to enhancement of rent) is hereby repealed.

3. In this Act—

"Settlement Officer" means the Collector or any officer in charge of the revenue jurisdiction of a district, and includes any Assistant Commissioner, Deputy Collector, or Sub-Deputy Collector whom the Collector or other officer as aforesaid may authorize to conduct the enquiries and proceedings connected with any settlement of land revenue, and any officer who may be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor to make any such settlement;

"Settlement Officer."

"Under-tenant" means any holder of a heritable and transferable intermediate tenure between the Government and the ryot other than a zemindar

"Under-tenant."

4. Nothing contained in section 51 of Regulation VIII of 1793, or in sections 13, 14, and 17 of Act X of 1859, or in sections 14, 15, and 18 of Bengal Act VIII of 1869, shall affect any settlement proceedings under Regulation VII of 1822, or under any other law for the time being in force for the regulation of settlements of land revenue.

Settlement proceedings not affected by certain Acts.

5. In any such settlement proceedings the rent recorded as demandable from each ryot shall, except as herein otherwise provided, be in accordance with the general rates sanctioned or subsequently approved for adoption in such settlement by the revenue authorities from time to time empowered in that behalf by the Lieutenant-Governor.

Rent to be in accordance with rates sanctioned by the revenue authorities.

6. The Settlement Officer may, on some one or other of the following grounds and not otherwise, record a higher rent as demandable from any ryot having a right of occupancy than the rent which was previously paid by him, viz. –

Grounds of enhancement.

(i) That the higher rent so recorded is calculated on rates which are not above the prevailing rates payable by the same class of ryots for land of a similar description and with similar advantages in the surrounding neighbourhood.

(ii) That the enhancement is not greater than is justified by the increase which has taken place in the productive powers of the land otherwise than by the agency, or at the expense, of the ryot since the rent of the ryot was last fixed.

(iii) That the value of the produce of the land has been increased otherwise than by the agency, or at the expense, of the ryot since the rent of the ryot was last fixed; and that such higher rent does not bear a higher proportion to the rent of such ryot as last fixed than the normal price of produce at or about the time of the present settlement bears to the normal price of similar produce which prevailed at or about the time when such rent was last fixed.

(iv) That the value of the produce of the land has been increased otherwise than by the agency, or at the expense, of the ryot since the last previous settlement of the lands was made; and that such higher rent does not bear a higher proportion to that which would have been the rent of lands of a similar description and the same area, according to the rates of such previous settlement, than the normal price of produce at or about the time of the present settlement bears to the normal price of similar produce which prevailed at or about the time of such previous settlement, as recorded in the papers of such settlements, or as otherwise ascertained and certified by the Settlement Officer.

(v) That the quantity of land held by the ryot has been proved by measurement to be greater than the quantity for which rent has been previously paid by him.

7. The rent recorded as demandable from an under-tenant shall be determined in accordance with the following rules :—

Rules for determining rent recorded as demandable.

(a) Whenever the Settlement Officer shall find any person holding as an under-tenant, he shall first ascertain and record whether the tenure so held is binding as against the Government.

(b) If the Settlement Officer finds the tenure to be so binding, the rent recorded as demandable from such under-tenant shall in no case be higher than an amount which shall be ten per cent. below the aggregate of the rents recorded as payable to him from the subordinate under-tenants and ryots whose holdings fall within his tenure.

(c) If the Settlement Officer shall find that the tenure is not binding as against the Government, he shall first determine the proportionate amount of the demand of land revenue to be assessed upon the lands included in the tenure in accordance with any orders of Government for the time being in force regulating the demand of land revenue, and shall record the rent payable by such under-tenant at such a sum (not being less than such proportionate amount of land revenue or more than the aggregate of the rents recorded as payable to him from the subordinate under-tenants and ryots whose holdings fall within his tenure) as may seem fair and equitable with reference to the character and circumstances of the tenure.

8. When the rent demandable from any under-tenant or ryot is recorded at an amount below that to which the rent of such under-tenant or ryot might have been enhanced under this Act, it may be recorded that such under-tenant or ryot shall from time to time be liable to pay increased rent from such dates as may be fixed by the Settlement Officer, until the rent paid by him reaches the amount which the Settlement Officer may determine to be properly payable by him under this Act.

Procedure when rent demandable is recorded below that to which it might have been enhanced.

9. Whenever a higher rent has been recorded as demandable from any under-tenant or ryot than the rent previously paid by him, the Settlement Officer shall cause to be published a copy of the jummabundi, or extracts therefrom, specifying in respect of each such under-tenant or ryot the rent recorded as payable by him, and, in the case of a ryot, the clause or clauses of section 6 of this Act under which his rent is enhanced.

Service of notice of enhancement.

Such publication may be lawfully made by affixing a copy of the jummabundi, or of such extracts therefrom as the Collector may think fit, at the mal cutcherry of the village to which the jummabundi relates, or at some other conspicuous place therein, and by proclamation by beat of drum in the said village to the effect that the said copy or extracts have been so affixed, and that the jummabundi can be inspected at the office of the Settlement Officer.

Suit to contest rents.

10. Every under-tenant and ryot shall be liable to pay the rent recorded as demandable from him under this Act, unless it shall be proved in any suit instituted by such under-tenant or ryot to contest his liability to pay the same that such rent has not been assessed in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

But nothing in clause (c) of section 7 of this Act or in this section shall be held to limit the discretion of the Court in determining in any suit under this section the rent of an under-tenant of the class described in the said clause (c).

No suit under this section shall be instituted otherwise than within four months after the publication of the jummabundi, or extracts as aforesaid, in the village in which the lands which are the subject of the suit or any part thereof are situated.

Procedure in suits to contest rent recorded as demandable.

11. In all suits instituted to contest the rent recorded as demandable under this Act the Court shall, if it modifies or sets aside such rent, proceed to determine the rent payable by the plaintiff in accordance with this Act, and if any arrears of rent at the rates determined by the Court are found to be due, shall make a decree in favor of the defendant for such arrears, with such costs as may seem proper.

Enhancement when to take effect.

12. If publication of the copy of a jummabundi or of extracts therefrom as provided in section 9 of this Act is made within the first six months of the year of the era current in the district, the enhancement may take effect from the beginning of the year in which such publication may have been made; otherwise it shall take effect from the beginning of the next following year.

Rent to hold good for 10 years or until expiration of settlement.

13. Rent recorded as demandable under this Act, or fixed by a final decree in any suit as aforesaid, shall not be liable to enhancement until ten years shall have elapsed from the date on which the settlement took effect, or until the period of the settlement shall have expired, whichever may first occur.

Application of Act.

14. The provisions of this Act shall apply to all settlement proceedings under Regulation VII of 1822 which may have been confirmed after the commencement of Bengal Act III of 1878, or which may hereafter be confirmed or sanctioned by the revenue authorities from time to time empowered in that behalf by the Lieutenant-Governor, whether such proceedings shall have been commenced before or after the commencement of the said Act.

RE-ARRANGEMENT OF JURISDICTIONS IN THE BURDWAN DIVISION AND ADJACENT DISTRICTS

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.—JURISDICTIONS.

Darjeeling, the 6th June 1879.

RESOLUTION.

'WITH a view to reconstitute the districts of Bankoora and Beerbhoom into suitable charges for the Magistrates and Judges employed in these districts, and to relieve the too large and unwieldy districts of Burdwan and Moorshedabad of a portion of their present work and area, the Lieutenant-Governor appointed in September 1877 a Committee* under the presidency of Mr. C. T. Buckland, late Commissioner of the Burdwan Division and now a member of the Board of Revenue, and instructed them to go thoroughly into the whole question of jurisdictions in the Burdwan Division and the adjacent districts. They were asked, after carefully considering the opinions of the district officers concerned, and the expressed wishes of the people, to favour Government with a report and such suggestions as they might think proper to make for a re-arrangement of jurisdictions and boundaries in the districts of Beerbhoom, Bankoora, Burdwan, and Moorshedabad, and in the adjoining districts of Manbhoom, Midnapore, and Hooghly.

* The Commissioners of the Presidency and Burdwan Divisions.
The Magistrate-Collectors of Burdwan and Bankoora.

2. After the necessary discussions and communication with the district officers concerned, the Committee submitted their report in March 1878, and the Lieutenant-Governor, after carefully considering the whole question, determined, with the approval of the Government of India, to sanction the following transfers of jurisdiction :—

(1) The transfer of thannas Kotulpore, Sonamukhi and Indos from the district of Burdwan to that of Bankoora.

(2) The transfer of thannas Jehanabad and Goghat from Burdwan to Hooghly.

(3) The transfer of thannas Raipore and Soopore from Manbhoom to Bankoora.

(4) The transfer of thannas Rampore Haut, Nulhati and Pulsa from Moorshedabad to Beerbhoom.

(5) The transfer of thanna Barwan from Beerbhoom to Moorshedabad for inclusion in the Kandi sub-division, which it was at the same time determined to re-open.

The Lieutenant-Governor also found sufficient grounds for accepting the recommendations of the Committee and the local officers that the Raneegunge sub-division and the Ketugram thanna should remain in the district of Burdwan, and the thannas of Ghatal, Chunderkona and Gurbetta in that of Midnapore.

3. These changes rendered it necessary to revise the sub-divisional and moonsifee jurisdictions of the districts affected, and the Commissioners of the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions were requested to submit specific proposals with reference to the following suggestions of the Committee :—

(1) That on the transfer of thannas Kotulpore, Sonamukhi and Indos from Burdwan to Bankoora, a new sub-division should be formed in the latter district, to include those three thannas and thanna Bissenpore, with head-quarters at Bissenpore.

(2) That on the re-transfer of thannas Jehanabad and Goghat from Burdwan to Hooghly, the Jehanabad sub-division should comprise those two thannas and thanna Khanakool which now belongs to the Mohesrekha sub-division of Hooghly; that thanna Royna, which now belongs to the Jehanabad sub-division, should be restored to the Burdwan sudder jurisdiction, the remaining thanna of Kotulpore being transferred to the Bankoora district.

(3) That the Sub-divisional Court at Rampore Haut should be retained under Beerbhoom, with jurisdiction over thannas Rampore Haut, Nulhati, Pulsa, and thanna Mouressur of Beerbhoom in lieu of thanna Khurgaon, which would be left in Moorshedabad on account of its proximity to the sudder station of the latter district.

(4) That a sub-division should be re-established at Kandi in Moorshedabad, including thannas Khurgaon, Barwan (now in Beerbhoom) and Bhurutpore, with some re-adjustment of the boundaries between Bhurutpore and the adjoining thannas of Gokurn and Burwa; that thanna Gokurn, which formerly belonged to the Kandi sub-division, would be left in the sudder sub-division, owing to its villages being more accessible from Berhampore than from Kandi, and that the cost of re-opening the Kandi sub-division should be met by revision of establishments in Moorshedabad and Beerbhoom.

4. The High Court was at the same time requested to consider what changes of civil or moonsifee jurisdictions would be necessary in consequence of the changes of district and sub-divisional boundaries mentioned above.

5. The reports of the Commissioners consulted, and the recommendations of the Hon'ble Judges of the High Court, have been received and duly considered; and the Lieutenant-Governor has now to direct the following revisions of sub-divisional and moonsifee jurisdictions in the districts of the Burdwan Division and the adjacent districts affected by the changes above determined on.

6. Bankoora.—This district will be enlarged by the addition of five thannas, viz. Kotulpore, Sonamukhi and Indos from Burdwan, and Raipore and Soopore from Manbhoom. The Lieutenant-Governor now accepts the proposal that on the transfer of thannas Kotulpore, Sonamukhi and Indos from Burdwan to Bankoora, a new sub-division should be formed in the latter district, comprising these three thannas and thanna Bissenpore, with head-quarters at or near Bissenpore. Thannas Raipore and Soopore will be placed under the jurisdiction of the sudder sub-division of Bankoora, which will include thannas Gungajolghatty, Bankoora, Onda, Soopore and Raipore. The work of the new sub-division at Bissenpore will be taken up by the Deputy Collector and establishment now employed at Bood-Bood (in Burdwan), which last sub-division it has been decided to abolish. The sub-divisional officer and his court may, as proposed by the Commissioner, be accommodated for a time in the thatched house attached to the thanna until better arrangements can be made. The Commissioner has already called upon the Collector to place himself in communication with the Executive Engineer, and report on the best site for the sub-divisional station.

7. As regards the moonsifee jurisdictions of the district, the Lieutenant-Governor accepts the High Court's proposals that thannas Raipore and Soopore received from Manbhoom should be formed into a moonsifee with head-quarters at Khattra, which is a central place with a police station; that another moonsifee should be formed with head-quarters at Kotulpore, to include the thanna of that name and Indos, and that thanna Sonamukhi should be included in the Bissenpore moonsifee, from which thanna Onda should be detached and added to the sudder moonsifee. The effect of the revised moonsifee arrangements will be as follows:—

	Thannas.	Head-quarters of Moonsif.	Sub-division.
1.	Bankoora ... ... / Onda	Bankoora ...	Sudder.
2.	Gungajolghatty ...	Gungajolghatty ...	Ditto.
3.	Soopore ... ... / Raipore	Khattra ...	Ditto.
4.	Bissenpore ... ... / Sonamukhi	Bissenpore	Bissenpore.
5.	Kotulpore ... ... / Indos	Kotulpore	Ditto.

The second moonsif, lately transferred from Jungypore to Bissenpore, should, as proposed by the High Court, be employed at one of the two new moonsifees of Khattra and Kotulpore, while the moonsif of Mouressur (which moonsifee it has been decided to abolish), should take up work at the other. The question of providing court-houses for the new moonsifees at Khattra and Kotulpore will be referred to the Judicial Department of this Government.

8. Burdwan.—This district will be relieved of thannas Jehanabad and Goghat which go to Hooghly, and of thannas Sonamukhi, Indos and Kotulpore, which go to Bankoora. It has now five sub-divisions besides the sudder, viz. Raneegunge, Cutwa, Culna, Jehanabad and Bood-Bood. The first three sub-divisions are not affected by the transfers. Of the Jehanabad sub-division, thanna Royna alone will be left in the Burdwan district; and the Lieutenant-Governor directs that this thanna shall be attached to the sudder sub-division and moonsifee, as recommended by the Commissioner and the High Court. After the Bood-Bood sub-division is deprived of thanna Sonamukhi, the remaining two thannas of that sub-division, viz. Bood-Bood and Ausgram, will not be enough to give work for a sub-divisional officer; and the Lieutenant-Governor has decided that this sub-division should be abolished and that thannas Bood-Bood and Ausgram should be attached to the sudder sub-division; the Deputy Collector and his establishment being, as already ordered, transferred to Bissenpore in Bankoora. The High Court will be requested to consider whether the Bood-Bood moonsifee cannot also be abolished, and the work divided between Raneegunge and Burdwan.

9. Hooghly.—This district will receive thannas Jehanabad and Goghat from Burdwan. The Lieutenant-Governor directs that thanna Khanakool, now belonging to the Mohesrekha sub-division, should, as proposed by the Commissioner, be re-annexed to the Jehanabad sub-division, and approves the High Court's proposal to adjust the civil jurisdictions by transferring Khanakool from the moonsifee of Mohesrekha to that of Jehanabad. No change will be required in the staff of moonsifs, as the Khanakool civil cases will be disposed of by the Johanabad moonsifs, of whom there are two. With regard to the selection of a suitable site for the head-quarters of the Mohesrekha sub-division, the Lieutenant-Governor observes that Mohesrekha itself, which has been temporarily taken for the purpose, is generally condemned. The Commissioner is in favour of making Oolooberia the head-quarters of the sub-division, but this question must be separately reported upon hereafter. As regards the re-adjustment of boundaries between Ampta and Khanakool thannas, proposed by the Commissioner, the Lieutenant-Governor will be glad to receive a special report with a map showing what is proposed.

10. Beerbhoom.—Beerbhoom will receive from Moorshedabad thannas Rampore Haut, Pulsa and Nulhati, and give up thanna Barwan to Moorshedabad. Rampore Haut will remain the head-quarters of a sub-division comprising thannas Rampore Haut, Pulsa, Nulhati and Mouressur. The High Court's proposal to make the Rampore Haut moonsifee conterminous with the sub-divisional jurisdiction is accepted by the Lieutenant-Governor. The Mouressur moonsifee will be abolished and thanna Labpore transferred to the Bulpore moonsifee. The services of the Mouressur moonsif will, as shown above, be utilized at one or other of the new moonsifees of Khattra and Kotulpore in Bankoora.

11. Moorshedabad.—The change of jurisdictions between Moorshedabad and Beerbhoom involves in itself no increase of charge, but, in order to provide funds for creating a new sub-division at Kandi in the former district, it is necessary to revise the existing sub-divisional establishments at Rampore Haut and Lalbagh, and at the sudder station of Beerbhoom. The Commissioners of the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions now submit propositions for establishments at the three sub-divisions of Rampore Haut, Lalbagh and Kandi, involving an aggregate mean expenditure of Rs. 484 a month. The aggregate mean cost of the existing establishments at Rampore Haut and Lalbagh, plus the establishment of a Deputy Collector to be transferred from the sudder station to Kandi, amounts to Rs. 409 monthly. To meet the difference between these two sums, the Lieutenant-Governor directs that the services of an excise mohurir on Rs. 15, of a foujdari mohurir on Rs. 20, and of a zemindary dâk clerk on Rs. 20, employed at the sudder station of Beerbhoom, be dispensed with, as proposed by the Magistrate. This arrangement will provide Rs. 55 of the required monthly sum. The remainder must be met by revising the scale recommended for establishments at Rampore Haut, Lalbagh, and Kandi, as follows:—

The Kandi sub-division will thus be created without entailing any additional expenditure on account of establishment.

12. The Lieutenant-Governor accepts therefore the proposal to re-establish the Kandi sub-division with jurisdiction over thannas Khurgaon and Bhurutpore and Barwan (now in Beerbhoom). A new moonsifee with head-quarters at Kandi should also be formed conterminous with the new sub-division, and an officer should be obtained for Kandi by withdrawing the second moonsif from head-quarters in Moorshedabad, as proposed by the High Court. The transfer of villages from Bhurutpore to Barwan and from Gokurn to Bhurutpore, proposed in the Presidency Commissioner's letter No. 32, dated 22nd March last, is sanctioned.

13. With regard to the accommodation for the sub-divisional office at Kandi, it is proposed to rent the old cutcherry building and its compound from the proprietors of the Paikpara estate at a monthly rental of Rs. 50. It is also proposed to pay Rs. 200 for repairing a bungalow in the compound as a residence for the sub-divisional officer, and to enclose part of the compound as a yard for the lock-up which it is proposed to place in the old building formerly used for that purpose. As the sub-division of Kandi has been re-constituted chiefly in consequence of representations made by the proprietors and tenantry of the Paikpara estates, the owners of the estates may be asked by the Commissioner whether they are prepared, as was once suggested, to give a rent-free lease of the sub-divisional buildings and their site for so long as they may be required for sub-divisional purposes. The Government will undertake to keep the buildings in repair.

14. Manbhoom.—Thannas Raipore and Soopore will be transferred from Manbhoom to Bankoora. This arrangement will necessitate a revision of the jurisdiction of the moonsif at Manbazar, and it is proposed by the Judicial Commissioner of Chota Nagpore, and recommended by the High Court, that thanna Ichagur, comprising pergunnah Patkum, and thanna Baghmundi, comprising pergunnahs Baghmundi and Mahta, should be transferred from the sudder sub-division of Purulia and the jurisdiction of the sudder moonsif to the jurisdiction of the moonsif of Manbazar, who should be stationed at Burra Bazar, and vested with power to try rent suits and with the powers of a magistrate of the third class. The latter powers it is further proposed to give to the sudder moonsif, his civil jurisdiction having been reduced. The Lieutenant-Governor accepts these proposals.

15. The Boundary Commissioner will now be requested to prepare and submit the necessary draft notifications for giving effect to all the foregoing changes and to prepare tabular statements showing the new arrangement of sub-divisions, thannas and moonsifees in each of the districts affected.

16. The new arrangement will take effect from 1st October 1879.

A. MACKENZIE,

Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

The Reports for the years 1877 and 1876, and the orders of Government recorded upon them.

THE past year was one of great activity in the Jail Department, which has been very vigorously and efficiently administered by the Inspector-General of Jails. The report of the Prison Conference, and the orders of the Government of India passed upon it, led to the introduction of a new and more economical scale of diet, and helped to bring about a reorganization of the whole jail service, and a complete change in the system under which the jails are guarded. The question of the improvement of prison accommodation received much attention, and the prisoners of 16 jails were employed almost wholly on building operations. Jail industries were developed in accordance with the principles laid down by Government, that each central jail should have one or two special manufactures, and the prisoners of district jails be employed on some form of unskilled penal but profitable labour. Sustained efforts were made to increase the discipline and penal character of all the jails, and special attention was given to the identification and segregation of habitual offenders. In all these directions great progress was made in the past year, and the results of the reforms introduced are in many instances already manifest. Notwithstanding the heavy additional work thrown upon the head of the department by the recent rapid development of jail administration in Bengal, Dr. Lethbridge devoted a very large portion of his time to visiting the jails in his charge, and his experience enabled him after each visit to suggest some work or alteration for the improvement of the sanitary condition and security of the jail. The report for the year, together with improved returns and statements in the forms proposed by the Prison Conference has been submitted to Government with great punctuality.

2. The high prices of the past year had their natural effect upon the people, and the returns show a considerable increase in the jail population at the close of the year, and a very large increase in the number of direct admissions. The majority of those imprisoned were, however, convicted of petty offences and sentenced to undergo short sentences, and, notwithstanding the increase in the number of admissions, there was a decrease in the average daily jail population. The year opened with 18,152 persons in jails, and subsidiary jails, against 21,266 on the first day of 1877. During the year 78,045 persons were received against 68,750 in 1877, 75,221 in 1876, 73,585 in 1875, and 82,207 in 1874, the year of the scarcity in Behar. There were 19,209 prisoners in the custody of the Jail Department on the last day of the year, the number being 1,057 above the jail population on the same date in 1877, but lower than in any previous year since 1871. The numbers for the past eight years are :—

1872	...	19,748	1876	...	21,266
1873	...	20,562	1877	...	18,152
1874	...	20,784	1878	...	19,209

The daily average number of prisoners showed an increase of 155 persons under trial and a decrease of 253 convicts.

3. The following table shows the fluctuations in the number of convicts during the past seven years :—

4. Though the number of convicts admitted was greater by 3,458 than the number in 1877, the number released was less than that in 1877 by 995. This is accounted for by the extraordinary releases on the 1st January 1877, when Her Majesty assumed the Imperial title. Releases for good conduct under the operation of the mark system and rules for remission of sentences were 1,790, against 2,870 in 1877 and 545 in 1876. Excluding civil prisoners, the returns show that the jail population was very uniform during the first five months of the year, the number of under-trial and convicted prisoners being 17,194 on the 1st January and 17,130 on the 1st June. From June to October there was a steady increase, the number on the 1st of the latter month being 18,633. By the 31st December, the number had fallen to 18,164, and since the close of the year there has been a considerable further decrease. As in previous years, the number admitted by transfer differs somewhat from the number entered as transferred; but this is explained by the inclusion under only one head of prisoners received for transportation from other provinces and prisoners in transit at the beginning and close of the year, and apparently also by a few clerical errors in the monthly returns received from the jails. The percentage of prisoners released on appeal was 3·9, against 3·3 in 1877 and 3·7 in 1876. The rate was highest in Darjeeling, Mymensingh and Jessore, where no less than 19, 10·7 and 10·1 per cent. respectively of the jail population were released on appeal. The total number of females imprisoned during the year after conviction was 2,315, being an increase of 23 per cent. on the admissions of 1877, the increase in the number of males imprisoned being only 9 per cent. The number of females transported from the Hussa jail fell from 56 in 1877 to 15 in 1878.

5. The number of persons flogged under judicial orders was 4,739, against 3,423 in 1877, 3,017 in 1876, 3,665 in 1875, and 6,502 in 1874. The returns for the past eight years show that the number of cases in which flogging was inflicted in 1878 was only exceeded by the number in the scarcity year of 1874. In 83·7 per cent. of the cases the punishment was inflicted for theft, and in 7·9 per cent. for receiving stolen property. In 2,406, or more than half the total number of cases, the number of stripes inflicted was less than 15; 4 persons received less than 5 stripes although they had been previously convicted of one or more offences, 28 received between 5 and 9 stripes, and 64 between 10 and 14 stripes on similar conviction. Of those flogged 516 were under 16 years of age, and it is clear therefore that in at least 1,890 cases those on whom sentences of less than 15 stripes were inflicted had passed boyhood. In at least 1,273 cases sentences of less than 15 stripes were inflicted on adults of 20 years and upwards, and in at least 609 cases sentences of less than 10 stripes were awarded, when the culprit was 16 years old, or above that age. These petty punishments can have little or no effect on adults, and their infliction in the case of second or subsequent offences is leniency entirely misplaced. Attention was drawn to the subject in the resolution on the last report, but the returns of 1878 are even more unsatisfactory than those for the previous year.

6. The proportions of Hindus and Mahomedans to the total jail population were, on the 31st December 1878, 56·5 and 39·9 per cent., while, according to the census returns for 1871-72, the proportions of Hindus and Mahomedans to the total population of Bengal are 63·8 and 31·2 respectively. There were 102 Europeans, 35 Eurasians, and 40 Native Christians in jail on the 31st December. Arrangements were concluded during the year for removing vagrants from the Presidency Jail to a building in connection with the Alms-house, which has under Act IX of 1874 been declared to be fit for a workhouse for the reception of vagrants. There were 150 juvenile convicts in jail on the 31st December 1878, and the same number on the corresponding day in 1877. The reformatory at Alipore was opened on the 23rd March 1878, and since then 91 boys have been transferred to it either direct from the courts in which they were convicted, or from jails. Nineteen of these boys, who were found to be confirmed habituals, and who under the rules fixing the limit of the age of inmates could only remain in the reformatory for a short time, were re-transferred to jail. The reformatory cannot be expected to show any marked results for some years to come and its object is fulfilled so long as it prevents those boys who are actually within its walls from committing offences and being reconvicted, and enables them to learn how to earn an honest livelihood. The admissions to the juvenile ward of the Presidency Jail of boys who had been previously convicted fell from 41 in 1877 to 19 in 1878, and the greater portion of this decrease may be fairly attributed to the establishment of the reformatory. There was, however, only a decrease of four in the number of those admitted for a first offence, and, as stated above, the juvenile jail population was as large at the close of 1878 as in 1877, notwithstanding the permanent transfer of 72 boys to the Alipore reformatory.

7. Out of 38,910 prisoners admitted during the year, 33,802, or 87 per cent. were wholly uneducated, 3,901 were able to read or write, and only 1,207 were able to read and write well. The average daily number of prisoners under instruction was 660·25. The Lieutenant-Governor is averse to any more time than is at present given being devoted to the education of convicts, and entirely agrees with Dr. Lethbridge that any one acquainted with the habits and caste prejudices of the natives of Bengal must be convinced that any education that can be given to adults in jail will not have the slightest effect in reforming them morally, or in placing them in better positions in life than those they occupied previous to imprisonment. The Prison Conference recommended in their Report the compulsory education of all long-term convicts under middle age, but the English public opinion, in compliance with which this proposal was apparently made, is the outgrowth of an entirely different set of circumstances from those to be dealt with here, and it would, the Lieutenant-Governor thinks, be as unreasonable to conform blindly to it, simply because it represents the views of an enlightened nation on a great question of social economy, as it would be to introduce forthwith a system of general compulsory education, or any other measure which may be necessary or desirable in a highly civilized community. The most ignorant European convict, alone in his cell, with the knowledge of the value of education, the mental energy to attempt to secure it, and the certainty that by learning he can alleviate the tedium of his confinement, and improve his prospects afterwards, has little in common with the gossip-loving mentally indolent Indian prisoner in association, with no experience whatever of special temporal advantages accruing from education, and no hope of obtaining such in the future. English burglars may, and often do, settle down after their release to honest employment, for which their training in jail has fitted them; but the Indian cattle-lifter or dacoit, and brother and cousin of dacoits, has never yet been known to strike out a new course of life for himself. In the Lieutenant-

Governor's opinion the only prison education that can be attempted with any advantage or hope of success is the education of juveniles and to this in jails, as well as in the reformatory, sufficient time is now devoted. Even as regards juveniles, the principal object should be to enable them to earn a living after their release.

8. The following statement shows the number of sentences of imprisonment of different lengths and the ratios they bear to the total number of convicted prisoners admitted to jail in the past two years:—

	Number.		Ratio per cent of admissions to jail
	1878	1877	1878	1877
Sentenced to six months and less ..	16,446	13,345	75·03	70·14
Ditto to from six months to one year	5,142	5,309	10 70	14·03
Ditto to from one year to two years			6 45	7 09
Ditto to above two years ...			6 32	6·77
Ditto to transportation ...	268	311	1·22	1·64

It appears therefore that, while the number of persons sentenced to terms of imprisonment above six months in length was less in 1878 than in the previous year, there was a very large increase in the number of petty offences, which the Magistrates considered sufficiently punished by sentences of six months and under. At the same time the number of persons imprisoned for bad livelihood fell from 2,191 in 1877 to 686 in 1878. The subject of the distribution of prisoners according to the length of their sentences received much attention during the past year, and as far as possible the rule was enforced that long-term convicts should be employed in central jails on special industries and short-term convicts in district jails. Most of the central jails are, however, receiving jails of their own districts, and they cannot therefore be kept entirely free from prisoners under sentences of one year and less, while, on the other hand, a large number of long-term convicts have to be retained in or transferred to district jails for employment as overseers and skilled artizans when there is any building or other special work under construction.

9. The number of recorded reconvictions was 4,214, against 4,181 in 1877, 3,714 in 1876, 3,075 in 1875, 2,757 in 1874, and 1,695 in 1873. The increase would, no doubt, have been greater but for the decrease in the number of prosecutions for bad livelihood; indeed although there is a slight increase in the number of reconvictions, the proportion of reconvictions to the total number of convictions fell from 13·7 per cent. in 1877 to 10·8 per cent. in 1878. In Buxar 13 reconvictions formed 36·1 per cent. of the whole number of convictions, while in no other jail did the proportion reach 20 per cent. The percentage of reconvictions to convictions was 19·9 in the native department of the Presidency Jail, 19·2 at Patna, 18·7 in the European department of the Presidency Jail, and 15·4 at Singbhoom. In Bogra the reconvictions were 6·5 per cent., in Rungpore 6 per cent., in Rajshahye 5·8 per cent., in Fureedpore 4·5 per cent., and in Dinagepore 3·5 per cent. of the total convictions.

10. The number of under-trial prisoners on the 1st January was 943, against 1,259 on the first day of 1877. The number admitted direct was 36,741 against 31,567. The number convicted was 19,019, or 51·8 per cent. of the whole number, against 16,161 or 51·1 per cent. in 1877. The average period of detention of under-trial prisoners in district jails was 14·89 days as compared with 15·10 days in 1877, and 10·47 days in subsidiary jails as compared with 10·91 in 1877. In each of the five jails of Pubna, Noakholly, Moorshedabad, Fureedpore and Bancoorah, the average period of detention of under trial prisoners was more than 20 days, in Mymensingh it was 23 98 days, and in Backergunge 27·93 days. When the average period of detention under trial is so high, it is clear that in many cases much hardship must be caused, and the attention of Commissioners is invited to these figures. In the six jails of Julpigoree, Rungpore, Beerbhoom, Balasore, Baraset, and Monghyr, the period was less than ten days, and in Darjeeling it was only 5·76 days. At the beginning of the year there were 170 civil prisoners, against 155 in 1877, and at the close there were 207 against 170. The number of admissions during the year was 2,394 against 1,731 in 1877, 1,681 in 1876, and 1,481 in 1875. This increase is attributed to the provision in section 266 of the new Civil Procedure Code exempting, from attachment and sale in execution of a decree, such implements of husbandry and cattle as are necessary to enable the judgment-debtor to earn his livelihood as an agriculturist. As the sale cannot be legally enforced, judgment-creditors are said now to have recourse more frequently than before to imprisonment for debt, and thus compel the debtor to sell his cattle and plough in order to satisfy the claims against him. It seems doubtful therefore whether the clause which was framed for the benefit of cultivators has not really been detrimental to their interests.

11. Rs. 1,59,791 was spent during the year out of the Public Works grant of Rs. 2,88,450 for 1878-79 on account of jail buildings. In addition to this Rs. 16,288 was spent by the jail department on minor works. The usual annual grant of Rs. 10,000 was expended by the beginning of September, and a second grant of Rs. 10,000 was, the Inspector-General reports, all spent before the close of the financial year. Standard designs were prepared during the year for the different classes of district and subsidiary jails and special plans for the jails at Buxar, Dacca, Presidency, Rungpore, Backergunge, Mymensingh, and Mozufferpore. The distinctive features in these plans are that the enclosure walls are to be fifteen feet high, the main buildings in malarious districts to be two or three stories high so that the upper rooms only need be used as sleeping wards, the sleeping wards to be so arranged that they can be divided into separate cells when funds are available, and female under-trial and civil prisoners to have separate enclosures, the enclosure for civil prisoners being situated outside the jail for criminals.

12. The warder system has now been introduced in every jail except one. Before the close of the past year the new system was in working order in all but nine jails, and of these eight have since been supplied with warders. For the police reserve at each jail a definite scale in proportion to the average jail population has been fixed by Government. The number of warders trained as apprentices in central jails and supplied to the several district and subsidiary jails was 257. The Superintendent of the Rajshahye jail recruited a large number of able-bodied men from Oudh, and during the year succeeded in training 69 warders and seven head warders, at an average cost of Rs. 14 per head. Compared with the previous year, there was an increase of eight in the number of escapes; but with the exception of the years 1875 and 1877 the number was lower than in any year since 1866. The total number of escapes was 124, but of these only 80 occurred from the inside of jails and subsidiary jails against 100 in 1877. So far as it is possible to judge from the returns of a single year, the introduction of the warder system appears already to have resulted in increased security. The escapes from beyond prison walls were 44 against 16 in the previous year, the large increase being mainly due to the number of prisoners employed on extramural labour. The average number thus employed was 2,773·81 in 1878, against 2,101·27 in the preceding year, but the additional temporary risk could not be avoided, as the object was to effect greater security as quickly and inexpensively as possible. The number of escapes beyond jail precincts while the prisoners were in the custody of the police is unsatisfactory; 18 such escapes occurred in 1878, against only seven in 1877. Of the 124 escapes, the police were considered in fault in 56, the jail officials in 62, and in six cases both the police and jail officials. There were 102 recaptures effected, 37 of prisoners who had escaped in previous years and 65 of those who had escaped in 1878. From 14 jails there were no escapes and the number of escapes through jail gates fell from 27 in 1877 to 10 in 1878. The necessity for economy has delayed the construction of double gates for a large number of jails, but when these have been provided the last class of escapes will, it is hoped, entirely cease. There was a serious outbreak from the Backergunge jail on the 1st June last, but out of the 19 prisoners who broke out of the jail only one succeeded in effecting his escape. A very full and careful enquiry was held at the time into all the circumstances connected with the outbreak, and the Lieutenant-Governor was satisfied that it was merely an attempt on the part of the desperate long-term prisoners to obtain their release and freedom, and that there was no other cause for the emeute. The enquiry showed, however, that there were many radical defects in the jail and its management, which alone rendered the outbreak possible. Many of these have been already remedied; but some of the improvements ordered have not yet been completed.

13. Notwithstanding the decrease in the average daily jail population, there was an increase in the number of offences shown in the returns. This result is stated to be due to the substitution of jail warders actually in charge of the prisoners for police constables on the jail walls. A system of parades has been introduced, so that now from the moment a prisoner leaves his sleeping ward in the morning until he is locked up at night he is obliged to do all that he has to do in the company of the other prisoners of the jail at fixed times and at the word of command. An offence committed by a convict is therefore much more readily detected than formerly, and although offences for which prisoners were warned are excluded from the returns of 1878, though shown as offences in 1877, it appears that the number of offences in the year under review was 31,584, or 186·4 per cent. of average strength, against 176·2 per cent. in 1877, and 129·1 per cent. in 1876. Of the offences committed in jails 3,852 were smoking and having possession of forbidden articles, 18,524 related to short work, and 9,150 were miscellaneous breaches of jail rules. The number of punishments was 31,592, against 21,213 in 1877, and 17,654 in 1876. In 1,840 cases the punishment was solitary confinement, in 7,468 cases it was reduced diet, in 2,240 solitary confinement with reduced diet, in 4,789 corporal punishment, and in 15,195 cases other punishments were inflicted. The Inspector-General reports that in many jails the punishment registers are unsatisfactorily kept, and that for days and weeks together no entry is made. In these cases it is clear either that the register is valueless, or that the discipline of the jail is defective. The Lieutenant-Governor agrees with Dr. Lethbridge in thinking that there must have been many omissions to report offences in the Pubna, Chittagong, Baraset, Lohardugga and Backergunge jails. The accuracy of the returns of the Rungpore, Cuttack, Julpigoree and Buxar jails seems also open to doubt. The proportion of cases in which corporal punishment was inflicted to the total number of punishments was 15·1 per cent. The decrease in the number of criminal offences from 669 in 1876 and 257 in 1877 to 58 in 1878 is very satisfactory. The mark system was in force during the year, and 1,790 prisoners were, as stated above, granted remissions of sentences under it. On this and other subjects the Lieutenant-Governor has recently addressed the Government of India with reference to the report of the Prison Conference. Sir Ashley Eden is strongly opposed to the extension of the system, or to its being rendered more complicated than it now is in Bengal. The system seems to facilitate favouritism and corruption in jails. Until the beginning of the year under review money gratuities were given under Rule 356 of the Jail Code. It was found, however, by experience that these gratuities were wholly unnecessary, the prospect of a remission of sentence being a sufficient inducement to industry, and every prisoner on release being provided with a subsistence allowance, and if necessary with the railway fare to his home. The practice of granting gratuities was therefore discontinued; and the rule of the code abolished as involving an unnecessary item of expenditure. Sir Ashley Eden concurs with Dr. Lethbridge as to the necessity of taking notice of the slightest negligence or fault on the part of convict overseers. When well selected and supervised these men make excellent jail officials, and there were two instances last year in which they rendered active assistance to the jail guards. The Lieutenant-Governor has recently suggested to the Government of India the possibility of constituting a superior class of convict warders, who should hold the position of unpaid servants rather than of prisoners. Men of exceptionally good conduct might be placed in this class and employed in central jails. They would be prisoners only in name, and although they would sleep in confinement they might be allowed many indulgences and even occasionally to visit their friends outside the jails.

14. Both the gross and average expenditure of the year from the jail budget were greater than in the previous year. The following table exhibits the expenditure during the past six years, and the average prices paid for food-grains during the same period, as given by the Inspector-General:—

	1873	1874	1875	1876	1877	1878
	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.

Average cost of maintaining each prisoner	51 5 6	55 2 8	51 7 9	51 2 11	63 4 11	54 7 3
Average price per maund of food-grain (Rice)	2 0 0	2 15 0	3 4 0	2 1 0	2 8 0	2 8 0
(Wheat)	4 4 0	4 5 0	3 9 0	3 1 0	3 0 0	4 12 0
(Dal)	2 14 0	3 11 0	3 0 0	2 5 0	2 10 0	3 12 0

Including expenditure incurred on account of jails by the Public Works, Police and Stationery departments, the expenditure of the year was Rs. 15,06,599, against Rs. 13,82,936 in 1877, and Rs. 14,36,235 in 1876. These amounts do not include the cost of European medical stores, as the Inspector-General has not been able to obtain the required information from the Examiner of Medical Accounts. In the expenditure by the jail department there was an increase of Rs. 85,447 under the head of 'Diet,' of Rs. 5,866 under 'Hospital Charges,' of Rs. 5,796 under 'Clothing,' and Rs. 22,187 under 'Miscellaneous Contingencies.' Against these increased charges there were only reductions of Rs. 31 under the head of 'General Supervision,' Rs. 1,312 under 'Establishments,' and Rs. 4,737 under 'Petty repairs.' The greatest increase was in the cost of dieting prisoners, and this is fully explained by the fact that the great drain in 1877 on the Bengal food-supply in order to meet the famine in Southern India raised the average prices of food-grains in the past year to rates higher even than those at which they stood in the scarcity year of 1874. When reviewing the report for 1877, the Lieutenant-Governor noticed the great inequalities in the cost of diets in the different jails, and Dr. Lethbridge has during the past year been fairly successful in his efforts to equalize the expenditure on this account. Price lists giving the prices of the principal articles of food and materials used for manufactures are now issued weekly by the Inspector-General, and Superintendents are thus enabled to watch neighbouring markets, to check excessive rates in their own jails, or, if it appears desirable, to import from other districts. Excluding Singbhoom and Darjeeling, which are peculiarly situated, the charges for dieting natives in jails varied in 1878 from about Rs. 27 to Rs. 36 per head, whereas in 1877 the lowest average was about Rs. 18 and the highest Rs. 37. Singbhoom is isolated and has practically no outlet for its produce, so that prices remained low, and the charge for dieting prisoners was only Rs. 22-2-2 per head In Darjeeling, which is always an expensive station, the charge was Rs. 53-4-9 per head. The cost of dieting European prisoners at Hazareebagh contrasts very unfavourably with that at the Presidency, the cost at the former jail being Rs. 131-14-2 against Rs. 107-13-10 at the latter. From a statement given by the Inspector-General in his report, it appears that the prices of meat, milk, and bread were higher at the Presidency than at Hazareebagh, but the cost per prisoner on account of milk and bread, as well as on account of those articles which were dearer at Hazareebagh than at the Presidency, was higher at the former jail than at the latter. The Inspector-General states that some reduction in the expenditure on European prisoners at Hazareebagh has been effected, but there is clearly still much room for economy. The practice of giving extra food, luxuries, and tobacco to prisoners as a reward for good conduct should be put a stop to as soon as possible, and the Lieutenant-Governor will await the report promised by Dr. Lethbridge with regard to his proposals for introducing a new system of daily marks for Europeans. The reduction in the gross expenditure on jail establishments from Rs. 3,24,207 to Rs 3,22,895 is more than accounted for by the charge against the Jail Department for civil hospital assistants attached to subsidiary jails having fallen from Rs. 18,022 to Rs. 9,835 ; and the cost of jail establishments properly so called has increased by Rs. 5,499, chiefly owing to the introduction of the warder system. Against this increase there was a diminution in the charges for the police force attached to the Jail Department from Rs. 1,60,805 in 1877 to Rs. 1,31,797 in 1878. The total increase in the expenditure of the Jail Department in consequence of the change of system is estimated at Rs. 40,000 per annum, while the corresponding yearly saving to the Police Department will be more than Rs. 70,000 The expenditure for jail hospitals was Rs. 35,988, or Rs. 5,868 in excess of that for 1877. This was in part due to the increase of the average number sick from 720 to 775, and in part to the inclusion under hospital charges of all expenditure on account of dieting the sick, while in previous years the cost of feeding in hospital was in some jails debited to the general head of 'diet.' The differences between the average expenditure per prisoner in hospital in the several jails are still very marked; and now that a uniform system has been adopted for the classification of expenditure, the Lieutenant-Governor trusts that Dr. Lethbridge will be able to exercise a more effectual check over extravagance in jail hospitals. There is clearly something wrong when the expenditure per head of the average number sick in the Mozufferpore jail is Rs. 98-3-4, while the cost per head in no other jail hospital in the Patna Division exceeds Rs. 40-6-4. The heavy expenditure in Mozufferpore is said to be due to the extensive use of milk; but the outlay on that article does not account for the great difference between the expenditure of the Mozufferpore and other jail hospitals in the same Division, and it is assumed that milk is given in all the jail hospitals when it is really necessary; when it is not really necessary it should never be given. The discrepancies between the expenditure in the jail hospitals of other divisions, as well as between the hospitals of jails of the same size are very noticeable, and the Lieutenant-Governor trusts that these, as well as the discrepancies in the charges for clothing and diet of prisoners, will continue to engage Dr. Lethbridge's attention. The greater part of the large increase of Rs. 22,187 in the expenditure for contingencies is due to the purchase of a supply of kerosine-oil for the year 1879. Hurricane lamps, burning kerosine-oil, were supplied to all jails towards the close of the year in the place of common tin lanterns and oil lamps; but the price of the new lamps was not included in last year's accounts as it was not paid until January 1879. There was a new charge in 1878 of Rs. 2,053 for warders' uniforms. Judging from the total cost per prisoner for diet, hospital expenses and clothing, the expenditure on account of which is to a great extent under the control of the local officers, it appears that the most economically managed native jails were those at Singbhoom, Cuttack, Manbhoom, Bhagulpore, Beerbhoom, Balasore, Midnapore, and Purneah, while the most expensive were those at Darjeeling, Julpigoree, Mymensingh, Backergunge, Hazareebagh, Dacca, Noakhally, Burdwan, Mozufferpore, and Jessore.

15. The results of the employment of prison labour during the past year were very satisfactory. An unusually large number of prisoners were employed in building new jails and on other Public Works, while the average daily jail population was below that of 1877. Instead therefore of 8,984 convicts—the average number engaged in manufactures in 1877—only 7,980 were employed in 1878, including those who prepared articles for use or consumption in jail. Notwithstanding this falling off in the number of labourers on manufactures, the total net profits, including savings to Government by the printing work done at the Presidency Jail, amounted to Rs. 3,69,400 against Rs. 3,61,800 in 1877. The profits of the Press were in 1877 Rs. 62,400; in 1878 Rs. 1,23,600 Deducting these sums from the total profits, the profits from manufactures were Rs. 2,45,800 against Rs. 2,99,400 in 1877. Of this decrease of Rs. 53,600, Rs. 40,300 was due to a falling off in the profits of the Alipore Jail, owing to the depressed condition of the jute trade. Excluding the Presidency and Alipore Jails, there were only 5,838 prisoners employed on manufactures in 1878, as compared with 7,428 in 1877, while the total profits only shewed a falling off of one-seventh. The total average earnings per prisoner sentenced to labour, including the profits of the Presidency Jail Press, were Rs. 21-13 in 1878, against Rs. 20-11 in 1877. Deducting the number of prisoners employed in each year on Public Works from the average number sentenced to labour, the profits were Rs. 26-2-3 per head in 1878, as compared with Rs. 23-9-10 in 1877. The savings to Government from the work done in the Jail Press should be included in all the returns on which the calculations of jail profits are based; all the jails in the province now transfer prisoners to the Presidency for employment at the press, and if they were not working there they would be profitably employed on ordinary manufactures. As many as 28 jails made less than Rs. 10, and 15 less than Rs. 5 by the labour of each effective prisoner employed on manufactures. Of the effective labourers in the 28 jails, more than 10 per cent. in 18, and more than 20 per cent. in 12 were employed on jail buildings, while in the Rungpore, Singbhoom, and Manbhoom Jails more than 50 per cent. were thus employed. As the Inspector-General points out, considering the number of jails in which the ordinary manufacturing industries were suspended in order to admit of the employment of the prisoners on buildings, a comparative statement of the average profits per labouring prisoner in each jail is not alone a fair criterion by which to judge of the work done. Three jails, however,—Jessore, Sarun, and Bankoora,—employed more than 90 per cent. of their effective labourers in manufactures, and yet earned less than Rs. 5 per head. The Burdwan, Cuttack, Nuddea, Midnapore, Hooghly, and Julpigoree Jails, in which also more than 90 per cent. of the effective labourers were employed in manufactures, earned less than Rs. 10 per head. In the Jessore Jail the earnings were only one-tenth of a rupee per head, and in Sarun only Rs. 1-13 per head, though the proportions of labouring prisoners employed on buildings in these two jails were only 3·5 and 2·0 per cent. respectively. The very unsatisfactory result of manufactures in the Jessore Jail was due to the failure of a contractor to supply jute for which a large sum had been irregularly advanced without a definite contract being entered into. This matter has been separately dealt with.

16. Much progress was made during the year in the development of special industries in Central Jails, and in the substitution of a few profitable manufactures for the miscellaneous trades that were formerly carried on in district jails. As already stated, the profits of the jute mill at Alipore were not so great as in 1877, but the net profit still amounted to Rs. 1,38,407, or Rs. 77·54 per head of prisoners sentenced to labour, and Rs. 109-8-5 per head of effective prisoners actually employed in manufactures. Out of a daily average population of 1,023 effective labouring prisoners in the Presidency Jail, 620 were employed in the press, against 256 similarly employed when the press was at Alipore in 1876 and 305 in 1877. The net profit was Rs. 1,23,631 against Rs. 62,450 in 1877, and the average earnings per prisoner Rs. 199-4-11 against Rs. 204-12. The woollen factory buildings in the Bhagulpore Central Jail are nearly ready, and the machinery which arrived in India in December is now being erected. A castor-oil factory on a large scale has been established at Rajshahye, and the jail has for some months been actively engaged in making oil for the Northern Bengal State Railway and the Eastern Bengal Railway. The manufacture of coir goods is now the only industry in the Midnapore Jail. The question of the kind of machinery to be purchased for the cotton factory at Buxar is still under consideration, and for the present the convicts are employed in weaving prison clothing. A large area of ground adjoining the Hazareebagh Central Jail has been brought under agave cultivation, and when the plants grow sufficiently to yield fibre, it is proposed to start a paper factory; carpet weaving will also be introduced in this jail. The manufacture of mustard-oil has become the staple industry of district jails, but brick-making and the manufacture of coir yarn were successfully carried on in those district jails that have convenient brick-fields adjoining the jail or where cocoanut husk is easily obtained. The Patna Jail has recently undertaken a contract to supply the Opium Department with earthen cups, and it has been decided to start a bakery at Darjeeling and to supply flour and bread to the public. The actual cash payments to the treasury were Rs 1,08,500 in excess of the payments of 1877, and the outstandings for credit sales at the end of 1878 were only Rs. 13,000 against Rs. 83,100 in the previous year. The value of manufactured goods in hand was greater by Rs. 21,400 at the end of 1878 than at the beginning of the year.

17. The average daily number of prisoners of all classes confined in subsidiary jails rose from 891·53 in 1877 to 940·59 in 1878, there being an increase of 66·68 in the average daily number of under-trial prisoners, and a decrease of 18·89 in the number of convicts. The increase in the average number of prisoners under trial was due to the larger number of admissions and not to any increase in the average period of detention which was slightly less than in the previous year. Notwithstanding an increase of 1,923 in the number of convictions among prisoners detained in subsidiary jails previous to trial, the number of convicts admitted was only 545 more than in 1877, there being a great increase in the number of punishments of fine and flogging. The fall in the average daily number of convicted prisoners in subsidiary jails from 357 in 1877 to 338 in 1878 was due in part to the more frequent and earlier removal of convicts to district jails and by convicts being no longer employed as cooks and sweepers in subsidiary jails. The average period of detention of convicts in these jails fell last year to 7·06 days as compared with 7·36 days in 1877, 7·44 days in 1876, 8·05 days in 1875, 8·70 days in 1874, and 11·83 days in 1873. This continuous improvement is satisfactory; but there were still six subsidiary jails in which the average period of detention during 1878 was above 14 days. Satisfactory explanations are given for the lengthy detention of convicts in some of the six subsidiary jails; but no explanation is offered to explain why the average detention of convicts at Godda was 28 days and at Pachumba 17·35 days. The number of escapes among prisoners who had been admitted to subsidiary jails rose from 53 in 1877 to 62 in 1878. Including charges incurred by the Police and Public Works Departments, the expenditure for subsidiary jails increased from Rs. 1,12,579 in 1877 to Rs. 1,16,601 in 1878, but the average cost per prisoner was less last year than in the previous year. The expenditure by the Jail Department was Rs. 84-0-8 per head against Rs. 89-15-4 in 1877, and including charges borne by other departments, the cost was Rs. 128-2-1 per head against Rs. 129-10-1. The charge for feeding prisoners rose from Rs. 34-10-3 in 1877 to Rs. 38-13-11 in 1878. In 44 subsidiary jails the average charge on this account exceeded Rs. 40, whilst in six it was more than Rs. 50. In very few cases has any attempt been made by the sub-divisional officer to explain these high charges; and, when made, the explanation is generally unsatisfactory. In most cases the Lieutenant-Governor fears that no other explanation can be given than that the sub-divisional officers have left the management of the subsidiary jails to their subordinates and failed to exercise any intelligent control over the expenditure. Some difference between the cost of diet in a large and small jail is to be expected, but it is hardly possible to suggest any explanation that could satisfactorily account for such charges as Rs. 55-1 and Rs. 54-8 for feeding at Serajgunge and Diamond Harbour, when the charges in the district jails were Rs. 32-12 and Rs. 31-7 respectively. The Lieutenant-Governor trusts that Dr. Lethbridge will not be content with such explanations as have been furnished. It is clear that the system of control over expenditure in most, if not in all, of the 44 subsidiary jails, where the cost of diet was above Rs. 40 per head, must be radically wrong, and what is now required from the officers in charge is not explanation but reform. The returns of manufacturing work done in subsidiary jails are as unsatisfactory as last year, though the accounts have been somewhat more regularly kept owing to an improvement in system introduced during the year. The total net profit of all the subsidiary jails in the province was only Rs. 995, but the charges include Rs. 564 for construction and repairs of work sheds. Only seven subsidiary jails showed a profit of above Rs. 50 each, and only two of above Rs. 100 each. After debiting against profits charges for erecting and repairing worksheds, it appears that 14 subsidiary jails showed each an actual loss from manufactures, and in most of the remaining jails the profits were extremely small. The Lieutenant-Governor has recently, in accordance with the recommendation of the Prison Conference, authorized a reduction of the diet scales in subsidiary jails, as a measure of discipline and not specially as one of economy. This, and the appointment of Assistant Surgeons and Native Doctors to the executive management of these jails, and the substitution of warder guards for police form the basis of a scheme sanctioned by Government for the reorganization of subsidiary jails, but no real improvement can be expected unless sub-divisional officers exercise efficient supervision over their subordinates. Orders were issued last year requiring every sub-divisional officer to inspect his lock-up at least twice a week while he is at his head-quarters, but it is not intended that this inspection should be the limit of his supervision. The reduction of the diet scale will necessarily result in a reduction in expenditure, but in the case of those jails where expenditure has been excessive, this reduction alone will not be regarded as satisfactory. The failure to exact labour from the prisoners in the Pakour subsidiary jail has formed the subject of a separate correspondence.

18. The high prices of food during the past year had a marked effect upon the vital statistics of jails in Bengal. The deaths among those who had been less than six months in jail were more than doubled, and the total number of deaths among those who had been in prison for less than a year rose from 358 in 1877 to 608 in 1878. The total number of sick admitted to hospital was 23,548 as compared with 23,255 in 1877 and 25,497 in 1876, while the daily average number sick was 750 or 4·43 per cent. of average strength as compared with 4·03 per cent. in 1877 and 3·94 in 1876. Not only was sickness more prevalent but the mortality was higher than in recent years. The death-rate exclusive of cholera cases was 5·98 per cent. of daily strength, against 4·23 in 1877 and 4·65 in 1876. The mortality from cholera was 1·19 per cent. against ·83 in 1877 and 1·28 in 1876. The total number of deaths in jail was 1,216, and of these 476 were due to dysentery and diarrhœa, 203 to cholera, 106 to anæmia and general debility, 93 to remittent and intermittent fever, 89 to diseases of the respiratory organs, 71 to scrofula and phthisis, and the remainder to other causes. The jails which judged by the percentage of admissions to hospitals on the average strength were most unhealthy during the year were the Russa Jail (347), Presidency—European (327), Julpigoree (292), Bogra (286), Balasore (237), Alipore (230), Furreedpore (212), Singbhoom (196), Presidency (191). The unhealthiness of the Russa, Presidency, and Alipore Jails was due almost entirely to the greater prevalence of disease having a malarious origin, and the figures just given for the Alipore and Presidency jails would have been even more unfavourable had not large transfers of old convalescent and non-effective prisoners been made to the neighbouring jails of Baraset, Hooghly and Burdwan. There was a great decrease in the number of admissions of Europeans to hospital in the Presidency jail, the ratio of admissions per cent. of average strength having fallen from 540·62 in 1877 to 326·88, but the average daily percentage of sick was 8·17 against 7·43 in 1877. Turning now to the statistics of mortality, it appears that the highest death-rates were at Julpigoree (39·6 per cent. of average strength); Purneah (21); Hazareebagh District and Central jails (20·8); Rungpore (20); Singbhoom (18·9); Sarun (18·8); Baraset (17); Hooghly (15·1); Bhagulpore District Jail (14·6); Russa (13·2); and, excluding cholera, all these jails with the exception of Hazareebagh show still the highest rates of mortality. Exclusive of deaths from cholera, the death-rate among convicts at Julpigoree was 35·4 per cent. of average strength—more than double the death-rate of the same jail in 1877, and of any other jail except Singbhoom in 1878. The site on the Teesta has now been abandoned and a new site selected for a masonry jail to be built on the standard plan. The jails of Hazareebagh, Rungpore, Sarun and Purneah suffered from severe epidemics of cholera, the mortality from this disease being higher in proportion to the number of cases than in any year since 1846. In Hazareebagh there were 88 deaths, or 70·4 per cent. of those attacked; the epidemic, which was one of extreme severity, lasted from the 16th July to the 8th September, and from the date on which the disease broke out to the end of July there was not a single day on which there were not some fresh cases of cholera. The Inspector-General notices the steady rise in the death-rate of the Singbhoom jail, and that it has continued, notwithstanding that the majority of the prisoners were employed on extramural labour, which it was hoped would have a beneficial effect upon their health. As stated in last year's resolution, the numbers in this jail are too small to justify any inference as to its general healthiness, but it is observed that 13 out of the 14 deaths were caused by dysentery and diarrhœa, while all the deaths in 1877 were due to the same diseases.

19. Although the general returns show an increase of sickness and mortality it is satisfactory to find a great improvement in several jails that have hitherto been classed among the worst and most unhealthy in the province. The death-rate of the Chumparun jail fell from 17 per cent. of average strength in 1877 to 9·1 per cent. in 1878; that of Backergunge from 15·7 to 6·65; and that of Bogra from 10·3 to 6·65. The improvement in the Dinagepore, Chittagong, Patna, Mozufferpore, Noakholly, Pubna, Monghyr and Tipperah jails was also very marked. Dr. Lethbridge has devoted much attention to the water-supply of the different jails; in many cases the improvements effected have already had marked results in a diminution of sickness and mortality, but the general unhealthiness of the past year and the weak condition of a large proportion of those admitted to jail have on the whole more than counterbalanced the sanitary measures that have as yet been carried out.

Inspection duty by Magistrates was insufficiently attended to at Hooghly, Darjeeling, Chumparun, Buxar, Aliporo, Beerbhoom and Russa; and the four visits of the Magistrate of Beerbhoom contrast most unfavourably with the number of inspections made by the District Judge. Except in the cases noticed above the duty of inspection by local officers was well attended to The Inspector-General of Jails during the past year visited every jail in the province.

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from observations made at 6h., 10h., 16h., and 22h.; the maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The direction and movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

DRAFT RULES

1. Except as may be herein provided, every vessel before leaving any toll station shall pay tolls in accordance with Schedule A appended to these rules.

2. The tonnage of every laden vessel, excepting steamers and flats, shall for the purpose of the "Canals Act, 1864," and of these rules be determined by the following measurements :—

(a.) The product of half the length of the vessel from stem to stern, measured along the waterline, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the depths from the waterline to the bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as the number of maunds upon which toll shall be levied.

(b.) The measurement of the length is to be made in feet, rejecting inches ; and the measurement of the breadth and depth in feet and quarters of a foot, rejecting portions of less than a quarter of a foot.

(c.) In calculating the amount of toll to be levied, any fraction of 100 maunds less than 25 maunds is to be omitted ; exceeding 25 and not exceeding 50 maunds is to be charged as 25 maunds only ; exceeding 50 maunds and not exceeding 75 maunds is to be charged as 50 maunds only ; and exceeding 75 maunds as 75 maunds only. Above 1,000 maunds no fraction of 100 maunds are to be charged.

3. The tonnage of every empty vessel, excepting steamers and flats, shall for the purpose of the "Canals Act of 1864" and of these rules be determined, and tolls shall be levied thereon, under the same rules and by the same system of measurement as above laid down for laden vessels, with the following exception, viz.—

The measurement of the depth of an empty vessel shall be made from the gunwale to the bottom of the vessel, instead of being taken from the waterline, as in the case of a laden vessel.

4. The measurement of steamers and flats shall be taken to be as ascertained by the Master Attendant's Department at Calcutta for the payment by such vessels of the port dues under the Merchant Seamen's Act, subject to the following deductions : —

(a.) In the case of steamers, 35 per cent. of the tonnage of the hull, excluding the cabin accommodation altogether, will be allowed as the tonnage of the engine-room, coal-bunkers, &c., and toll will be levied on the remaining 65 per cent. of the tonnage.

(b.) In the case of flats, 10 per cent. of the tonnage will be allowed for accommodation, &c., and tolls will be levied on the remaining 90 per cent. of tonnage.

5. All vessels which may be employed solely in conveying troops on military duty, or military stores, or which may be employed solely in work connected with the maintenance or improvement of the Nuddea rivers, as well as boats used by police officers on actual duty, shall be exempted from paying tolls. This shall not be held to apply to police officers in transit from one district to another, unless for the purpose of making an arrest or for holding an investigation.

6. If a vessel, on which toll has been duly paid, be unable, by reason of the shallowness of the water, or of any other natural obstacle, to prosecute her voyage up the river, she may, provided she returns to the toll station without unloading or taking in cargo, be permitted to pass along the other river (if any) without extra charge. If the vessel be unable to pass along either river, the Toll Collector may, at his discretion and after consideration of the circumstances of the case, refund the amount of toll which may have been paid on such vessel.

7. Every boat or vessel carrying passengers, or used for fishing, shall pay tolls only once in the same day. Provided that no passenger vessel shall be allowed this privilege unless returning empty or conveying the same passengers as on the first trip. The word "day" in this and the following rule shall mean a day between sunrise and sunset, and shall not mean 24 hours.

8. An empty cargo-vessel or boat leaving and returning empty to the station limits on the same day, having paid toll, shall not be required to pay toll a second time. A vessel leaving the Chowkey limits laden, and paying toll accordingly, shall not be required to pay toll again if returning empty on the same day.

9. Boats or vessels which may have entered the Nuddea rivers unladen or partially laden, and paid toll accordingly, shall, if they receive on board any additional freight, be subject to re-measurement and to the payment of any additional amount of toll which may be leviable on account of the additional maundage.

10. Immediately after entering the Chowkey limits, the manjee of every cargo-vessel shall take such vessel to the measuring ghât, and such vessel shall remain there until it shall have been measured in accordance with the rules for measurement.

11. After measurement shall have been duly effected, the measuring Mohurir shall deliver to the manjee of the vessel a pass in the form annexed (Appendix EI.), and shall inform the manjee verbally of the amount of toll payable by him.

12. The manjee shall take the pass to the Toll Collector's Office, and shall then pay the amount of the toll demanded from him. He shall then receive a ticket in the form annexed (Appendix EII.), which shall entitle him to pass the Chowkey limits free of all further charge. This ticket shall bear the stamp of the Toll Collector's Office and the signature of the Toll Collector, or in his absence that of the Toll Darogah.

13. The manjee or other person in charge of a vessel conveying passengers only, or laden with horses, cattle, fowls, or other live-stock, or with fruit, fish, or other articles which may be likely to be spoiled by detention, shall not be required to attend at the Toll Office, but may pay toll to the Mohurir in charge of the Chowkey boat at the rate of four annas for each oar of the vessel, and shall receive from the Mohurir a ticket in the form annexed (Appendix EIII), which shall entitle such vessel to pass Chowkey limits without further charge.

14. Passenger boats having on board cargo other than that is necessary for the passengers for the trip, and which measure 25 maunds and upwards, shall be dealt with as cargo-boats.

15. Empty boats having on board articles which are only requisite for the subsistence of the crew for the trip, shall be considered as empty.

16. No cargo shall be taken out of any boat, either measured or unmeasured, within the toll limits without the permission of the Toll Collector.

17. Tickets and passes are not transferable.

18. Passes collected at the Chowkey boats shall be brought back into the Toll Office on the morning of the following day and counterfoiled.

19. Measurement shall be made between the hours of 6 A.M. and 6 P.M. from April 1st to September 30th; and between 7 A.M. and 5 P.M. from October 1st to March 31st. Tickets under rule 12 shall be issued within the hours of 7 A.M. and 5 P.M. in summer, and 8 A.M. and 5 P.M. in winter.

20. Any person who may have lost or mislaid his measurement ticket may apply for a duplicate. Such applications shall be in writing, and shall set forth clearly the circumstances of the loss, and shall be verified by the applicant. The Toll Collector, if he be satisfied that no fraud has been intended, shall supply a duplicate on receipt of a fee of eight annas in the case of a passenger boat or empty boat, and one rupee in the case of a laden boat

.21. Any officer of Government or other person claiming exemption under rule 5 shall be supplied by the measuring Mohurir with a certificate in the form annexed (Appendix EIV), and shall fill up and return such form to the Mohurir, who shall thereupon grant a passenger ticket in form (EIII). In case of doubt as to the good faith of any claim to exemption from toll, the measuring Mohurir may detain the vessel for which exemption is claimed, and report the case for the orders of the Toll Collector.

22. No fleet of vessels or rafts lashed together and exceeding 150 feet in length, or carrying or floating timbers exceeding in all twenty in number, shall pass into or through any of the Nuddea rivers at one time or abreast.

23. No single vessel or raft carrying or floating a greater number than twelve timbers shall pass into, or out of, or through, any of the Nuddea rivers. And no single vessel or raft carrying or floating more than six timbers shall pass into or through any of the aforesaid rivers between the 1st of December of any year and the 1st of July following.

24. For every vessel or raft, or fleet of vessels or of rafts, and for every timber which shall pass into, or out of, or through any of the Nuddea rivers in violation of rules 22 and 23, the owner thereof or the person in charge shall, on conviction by a Magistrate under section 18 of the "Canals Act, 1864," be punishable by a fine not exceeding Rs. 10 for each vessel, raft, or timber in excess of the number authorized, besides being subjected to the payment of the prescribed toll on the same. The payment of the toll shall, if necessary, be enforced in the manner described in section 9 of the "Canals Act, 1864."

25. Owners and agents of steamers who may desire to avoid the delay consequent on payment of toll on passing toll stations, may give notice to the Board of Revenue of their desire and willingness to pay toll in Calcutta on demand; and on depositing such amount as the Board of Revenue may determine, they shall be furnished with a certificate which shall entitle the steamer or flat to pass any toll station without detention, the amount of toll due on account thereof being paid in Calcutta on demand, or deducted from the amount deposited with the Board of Revenue.

26. The Commander of any vessel or vessels obtaining the privilege mentioned above shall leave at the toll station a certificate of having passed the toll station. The certificate shall mention the date of passing. It will be attached as a voucher to the bill, which will be presented for payment to the owners or agents of the vessel by the officer in Calcutta authorized to receive payment thereof.

27. Refusal to pay the toll on steamers or flats, except on those which are furnished with a certificate under rule 25, or evasion, or attempt at evasion, of such payment, will be dealt with under sections 9 and 10 of the "Canals Act, 1861;" except that, instead of the vessel being seized and detained as directed in section 9, any separate cargo or stores, the sale-proceeds of which will be sufficient to defray the amount of toll that should be paid, and which can, without inconvenience or danger to itself or to the rest of the cargo, be taken out of the vessel, shall be so taken out and detained, and subsequent proceedings shall be taken thereon as directed in section 9.

28. Any person who may without just cause refuse to pay any toll demanded of him by the officers of the toll establishment, or who may evade, or attempt to evade, any such toll, or who may be a party to the transfer, or attempted transfer, of any ticket or pass, or who may without reasonable cause neglect or refuse to place his vessel in any situation in which he may be required by the Toll Collector to place it, or who may without reasonable cause neglect or refuse to remove his vessel from the measuring ghât after measurement, or unload cargo without the permission of the Toll Collector, shall be punishable under section 10 of Act V of 1864 (B L.C.), on conviction before a Magistrate, with a fine which may amount to Rs. 50, or with simple imprisonment in lieu of fine which may extend to one month.

29. Any person who shall without sufficient excuse neglect or refuse to produce when called upon by the Toll Officers, or by any other person whose duty it may be to check the collection of tolls on the rivers, any ticket or pass which he may be required by these rules to produce, shall be liable to pay tolls, whether he shall or shall not have previously paid them, and shall also be liable to a fine under section 10 of the Canals Act which may amount to Rs. 50.

30. Complaints against the conduct of the subordinate officers and enquiries for information must be preferred to the Toll Collector.

No. 159.—Leave.—Major J. M. Heywood, R.E., Superintending Engineer, Third Grade, (temporary rank), South-Western Circle, is granted privilege leave for three months, under Chapter VII, section 44 of the Civil Leave Code, with effect from the 22nd July 1879.

No. 160.—Notifications.—Mr. J. O. Vertannes, Executive Engineer, First Grade, is appointed to officiate as Superintending Engineer of the South-Western Circle, during the absence, on privilege leave, of Major J. M. Heywood, R.E., or until further orders.

No. 161.—With reference to notifications Nos. 140 and 142, dated the 13th May 1879, of this Department, it is hereby notified that the Naraingbur distributary has been opened for traffic from the 8th instant.

No. 162.—The following rules having reference to the Narainghur distributary, referred to in this Department Notification No. 140, dated the 13th May 1879, have been passed this day by the Lieutenant-Governor under the provisions of sections 11 and 12 of the Canals Act of 1864 (No. V B.C.).

I.—Every vessel on entering the canal shall be liable to measurement for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of toll the vessel should pay according to the schedule of rates authorized by Government to be charged on the canal.

II.—The tonnage of every vessel, whether laden or empty, shall, for the purposes of the "Canals Act, 1864," and of these rules, be determined by the following measurements:—

(a) The product of half the length of the vessel, from stem to stern, measured along the water line, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the depth from the water line to the bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as the number of maunds upon which toll shall be levied.

(b) The measurement of the length is to be made in feet, rejecting inches, and the measurement of the breadth and depth in feet and quarters of feet, rejecting portions of less than a quarter of a foot.

(c) In calculating the amount of toll to be levied on vessels exceeding 100 maunds tonnage, any fraction of 100 maunds less than 25 and not exceeding 50 maunds, is to be charged as 25 maunds only; exceeding 50 and not exceeding 75 maunds, to be charged as 50 maunds only; and exceeding 75 maunds, as 75 maunds only. Above 1,000 maunds no fraction of 100 maunds tonnage is to be charged. Toll will be charged on vessels under 100 maunds tonnage on the actual measurements of the vessels, omitting fractions of tens of maunds.

III.—Every vessel entering the above canal shall be furnished with a ticket on paying the prescribed toll. The ticket shall specify the station at which it has been issued, the name of the person in charge of the vessel, the date the vessel entered the canal, the point to which it may proceed in the canal, the maundage of the vessel, the amount of toll charged, and the number of days for which the vessel may remain in the canal and the date of such last day. The number of days which the vessel may remain in the canal without additional payment shall be calculated at the rate of one day for every eight miles or portion of eight miles to be traversed.

V.—The tickets thus given may be demanded for inspection by any duly authorized canal officer, and must be on board and at hand for that purpose. The tickets should be delivered up at the last toll station.

VI.—Owners of vessels may compound, by the payment of a fixed sum, for the use of the whole or a portion of the above canal for any period that may be agreed upon not exceeding one year. Each vessel so compounded for shall be furnished with a ticket showing the amount of toll paid, the period for which the toll has been compounded for, and the limits of the canals within which the vessel may pass: such ticket shall be kept on board the vessel and shall be produced when required under Rule V, but shall be given up only on the date of the expiry of the period for which granted, and at the station from whence issued.

VII.—Duplicates of lost tickets, of which the numbers and the dates of entry can be satisfactorily established, will be granted by the officer in charge of toll station on payment of a fee of one rupee.

VIII.—Vessels remaining in the canal for a period exceeding that allowed under Rule III will pay a demurrage of 8 annas per 100 maunds per diem for each day or part of a day that they remain in excess.

IX.—No boats above 10 feet beam over-all, and no rafts or floats of more than 10 feet width and 60 feet in length, will be allowed to enter the canal.

X.—It will not be compulsory for the lock to be opened to single vessels of less than 500 maunds burthen, except in the case of mail or despatch boats; but the lock shall be opened for the passage of boats at least twice a day.

XI.—Vessels must have their masts fitted so that they can let down with ease and speed; and when under sale, vessels must always keep in the middle of the canal: when being tracked, vessels are, as far as practicable, to keep to their port or left side of the canal.

XII.—All vessels anchoring at night are to keep to their port or left bank of the canal.

XIII.—Only one vessel shall be allowed to make fast along, and in a line with the canal banks, and no vessel shall be made fast, or be placed outside of vessels so secured, without the permission of a canal officer. No vessels shall, however, be placed in such a position as to endanger the safety of other vessels, to obstruct their passage, or to impede the navigation, and no bamboos or poles shall be allowed to be erected on vessels when at anchor. Any infringement of this rule will be punishable by a fine not exceeding Rs. 5 for each offence.

XIV.—Every vessel when put-to shall be securely fastened, and shall at all times have some person in attendance on board of it. Any infringement of this rule will be punishable by a fine not exceeding Rs. 5 for each offence.

XV.—In every case of wreck or obstruction of the channel by sunken vessels, the canal officer may call upon the person in charge of the vessel to remove the same without delay, and shall give every reasonable assistance towards so doing But should the owner of the vessel or raft be not forthcoming, or should he not use reasonable expedition in removing the obstruction, or should he decline or fail to use proper assistance which may be offered to him by the canal officer, this officer may undertake the removal of the obstruction himself at the cost of the owner of the boat, recovering the expense in the manner laid down in section 9 of the "Canals Act of 1864."

XVI.—If the canal officer be unable to ascertain the name and place of business or of abode of the owner of the cargo of any vessel or boat seized under the Canals Act, he shall notify the seizure in the most public manner available.

XVII.—In the event of any damage or injury being occasioned to the canal works by wilfulness or negligence on the part of any person in charge of a vessel, the canal officer may detain the vessel within the canal for a period not exceeding 24 hours, provided that within that period the canal officer shall lodge a complaint against such person in charge of the vessel before a Magistrate under section 16 of the Canals Act.

XVIII.—The banks or berms of the canal shall not be used as wharves for the deposit of goods, under a penalty of Rs. 10 for each offence; but, except in special cases, when the permission of the canal officer will be necessary, all articles shall be removed to the outer banks of the canal, and all such articles as shall not be finally removed from within the boundaries of the canal, within a period of six days after being so deposited, shall be liable to a charge of 4 annas per 100 maunds.

XIX.—The canal may be closed once a year for effecting the necessary repairs to it, on one month's notice of the intention so to close it; but in the event of any sudden emergency, the canal may be closed at any time without prior notice, and no claim shall be made in such case by owners of vessels or others for compensation on account of detention.

XX.—All offences against the provisions of these rules shall be punishable as provided for in section 18 of the "Canals Act of 1864," and all fines imposed may be recovered in the manner mentioned in section 17 of the same Act.

XXI.—The term "canal officer" in the foregoing rules shall include the person alluded to in section 8 of the "Canals Act of 1864," and any other person who may be specially appointed to exercise such powers by the person appointed to collect the tolls.

DRAFT RULES PROPOSED UNDER ACT III (B. C.) OF 1876.

Dated the 26th May 1879.

No. 145.—Notification.—In exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 99 of Act III (B.C.) of 1876, the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to direct the publication of the following rules for the Sone Canals which it is proposed to substitute for the rules passed and published at pages 1154 to 1159, Part I, of the Calcutta Gazette of the 23rd October 1878.

D. B. HORN,
for Joint-Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal,
P. W. Dept, Irrign. Branch.

RULES UNDER ACT III (B. C.) OF 1876.

1. The Collector, before awarding compensation under section 16, or making a reference under section 17, of the Act, shall obtain the written opinion of the Superintending Canal Officer, which shall form part of the record of the proceedings.

2. Water shall not be granted where, in the opinion of the Divisional Canal Officer, loss from wastage is likely to occur.

3. Water shall not ordinarily be granted where the length of the village channel, from its head to its point of contact with the village boundary, exceeds two (2) miles.

4. Water for irrigation shall not be supplied, except through a village channel so constructed and maintained that, in the opinion of the Divisional Canal Officer—

(a)—the water will pass without wastage;

(b)—the existing necessary lines of communication, the flow of drainage water, and the passage of water for irrigation will not be obstructed.

5. Persons desirous (i) of constructing a village channel, (ii) of registering a channel already constructed, (iii) of taking water from a village channel, or (iv) of taking water from any outlet provided by Government, shall prefer a written application to the Divisional Canal Officer, or to some officer duly authorised by him to receive such applications. In the first two cases (i) and (ii), if the application be received by an officer subordinate to the Divisional Canal Officer, it shall be forwarded to him for orders.

6. An application under rule 5 shall, if granted, and unless otherwise specially agreed upon, be subject to the following conditions:—

(a)—That the water supplied shall not be used for other purposes than irrigation without the written consent of the Divisional or Sub-divisional Canal Officer.

(b)—That the Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall, in consultation with the applicants, appoint a headman (to be called "Suttadar"), known or ascertained to be a substantial person possessed of property, to attend to their interests, to receive and carry out the orders of the Canal Officers, to distribute the water among the shareholders in the village channel according to their shares.

(c)—That in any case where the Sub-divisional Canal Officer cannot agree with the applicants in the appointment of a Suttadar, the Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall make the appointment himself, subject to the approval of the Divisional Canal Officer.

(d)—That the Collector shall appoint a headman (to be called Tehsildar) whose sole duty will be to collect and pay in to the Collector, or other duly authorized person, all water-rates leviable on the lands watered from the village channel.

(e)—That the Tehsildar shall furnish security for the payment of all sums realized by him, the stamp and registration fees on security bonds being deducted from the percentage allowed under rule 11.

(f)—That previous to water being taken for any field, a written application shall be made to the Sub-divisional Canal Officer or any subordinate authorized by the Divisional Canal Officer to receive such applications, and that no water shall be taken until after the receipt of a "permit" (Appendix B) from competent authority.

(g)—That in any case where the Divisional Canal Officer, owing to the known recusancy of any village, or of any class of cultivators, anticipates that there is likely to be difficulty in the realization of the water-rates, he shall intimate the same to the Collector, in whose option it shall be to require payment of water-rates in advance, and the Collector shall inform the Divisional Canal Officer of any villages where he considers that water should not be granted without previous payment.

(h)—That any other cultivators in the same village, able and willing to irrigate their lands from the village channel, may, subject to the approval of the Divisional Canal Officer, be admitted as shareholders in it, on paying their proportionate share of the first cost and maintenance thereof, to be determined by the amount of irrigable land held by them.

(i)—That all alterations in the number of shareholders or distribution of shares shall be reported to the Sub-divisional Canal Officer for the sanction of the Divisional Canal Officer.

7. The Divisional Canal Officer is empowered to pay to the Suttadar appointed under rule 8 the fees detailed in the rule next following, subject to the condition of satisfactory performance of duty.

8. The allowance to the Suttadar for duties connected with that village channel, such as arranging that it shall be kept in proper repair, seeing that no lands obtain water without a regular "permit," distributing the water to the shareholders, seeing to the outlet being closed according to the orders of the Divisional Canal Officer, and generally assisting the officers of the Irrigation Department, shall be one-half anna in the rupee on the amount of canal water-rates assessed on the lands irrigated from the village channel under his charge. The Divisional Canal Officer may retrench the whole or any part of the fees under this rule in the event of the conditions not being complied with.

9. The allowance to the Tehsildar of a village channel for collecting the water-rates shall be one-half anna in the rupee on the amount actually paid in by him. If the Tehsildar shall satisfy the Collector that arrears have not accrued through any negligence on his part, it shall be within the discretion of the Collector to pay him the allowance on the whole or on any part of such arrears.

10. Contracts between the Divisional Canal Officer on the part of Government and private individuals for the use of water as a motive power, or for any other purpose whatsoever not included in the published schedule of rates, shall, if for any period not exceeding one year, require the previous sanction of the Superintending Canal Officer.

If proposed for longer periods, such contracts shall be submitted for the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor in the Irrigation Department.

11. Tanks may be filled with canal water without charge, and without reference to the area irrigated in any village, whenever water can be made available without injury to the cultivation dependent on any canal, under the following conditions:—

(a)—No tank shall be so filled unless the water is to be exclusively used for domestic purposes or for watering cattle, or both.

(b)—No tank shall be so filled from which irrigation is practised.

(c)—No tank shall be so filled which, intercepting any line of drainage, is liable to overflow from accumulation of water derived from natural causes.

(d)—No tank shall be so filled except on the written order of the Sub-divisional Canal Officer, issued on the written application of the parties concerned.

(e)—No tank shall be so filled unless the village channel used to fill it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Sub-divisional Canal Officer to be in a sound condition when the application is made.

(f)—The privilege herein accorded may, by written order of the Divisional Canal Officer, subject to revision by the Superintending Canal Officer, whose decision shall be final, be suspended for twelve months for breach of any of the above conditions.

12. The Sub-divisional Canal Officer may, by written order under section 76 (a) (ii), stop the supply to any village channel when he is satisfied, after inspection by himself or by one of his subordinates, that the village channel is not maintained in proper repair. In the case of any such closure of a registered channel, immediate report thereof, with any necessary explanation, shall be made to the Divisional Canal Officer.

13. The Divisional Canal Officer may, under section 76 (a) (iii), regulate the distribution of the available water in proportion to the average area irrigated from the several outlets, or in proportion to the quantities of water contracted for, and may close the outlets in rotation as shall be necessary.

Such periodical closures shall not extend beyond ten consecutive days, and shall be notified to the Suttadars of village channels. For longer closures the authority of the Superintending Canal Officer is required.

Nothing in the above rules shall be taken to affect the power of the Superintending or any Divisional Canal Officer to stop any supply of water in case of pressing emergency.

14. The water-gauges on distributaries or other channels shall be held to give authoritative data for all calculations of discharge required to verify claims for remission of water-rate on account of loss of water.

15. Claims to remission of water-rates, under section 76 (b), shall only be admitted on proof of actual loss caused by the stoppage of supply. On proof of such loss, the Divisional Canal Officer may remit the whole or any portion of the rates. All applications for remission of water-rates shall be made in writing by the parties concerned, either in person or through their headman, to the nearest Sub-divisional Canal Officer, at least seven days prior to the cutting of the crop. On receipt of such application, the Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall, after due local enquiry, forward the application with his remarks to the Divisional Canal Officer for decision.

16. Before awarding compensation under section 76 (c) the Collector shall obtain the written opinion of the Divisional Canal Officer, and such opinion shall form part of the record of the proceedings.

17. Under section 78 of the Act, the rates chargeable per acre on the different descriptions of crops are fixed for three years, viz. from 1st June 1876 to the 1st June 1879, and are as follow:—

WATER-RATES.

NOTE.

1 Cottah .. .. .. = 1,361 25 s. feet.
1 Beegha ... ... = 27,225 00 ,,
1 Acre ... ... = 43,560 00 ,,

18. If only a portion of a field be irrigated, the water-rate shall be chargeable on the whole field, unless such portion shall have been clearly demarcated, previous to the admission of the water, by a ridge not less than half a foot high.

19. When a portion of a field has been irrigated with canal water and a portion with well or reservoir water, the whole field shall be liable for canal water-rate, unless a clearly distinguishable boundary exists between the two portions.

20. If well or reservoir water is conveyed in the same channel as canal water, the whole of the irrigation from that channel shall be liable to canal water-rate. The Suttadar will be held personally responsible for the due observance of this rule and of rules 19 to 23 and 24.

21. Irrigation from natural or artificial escape channels, when the supply is permanent, shall be governed by the same rules as irrigation from other parts of the canal.

22. Irrigation from such channels, when the supply is intermittent, may be allowed at such reduced rates as shall from time to time be fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor.

23. Persons irrigating lands from a canal without a written permit for water for such lands, or taking water at times prohibited by proper authority, shall be chargeable with double water-rates on the area irrigated.

24. The charge leviable for water suffered to run to waste on uncultivated lands shall be calculated at the highest rate specified in the schedule, viz. five rupees per acre on the area flooded; provided that in every such case the Divisional Canal Officer may impose a lower rate if he thinks fit. The Suttadar to be held responsible for reporting such waste of water.

25. When the original crop sown in a field, irrigated by the canal water, fails and is ploughed up, and a fresh crop is sown in the same season, the water-rates shall be levied on the second crop.

26. The statements of the amounts demandable for water-rates levied under the rules in force shall be prepared under the supervision and signature of the Divisional Canal Officer in such form as shall from time to time be sanctioned by the Lieutenant-Governor.

27. All water-rates shall become due on the dates noted on the "permits," as herein below stated, and shall be paid within one month of such dates:—

Water-rate on spring crops, wheat, barley, peas, poppy, &c.—15th April.
Water-rate on summer crops, cheena, &c.—15th August.
Water-rate on bhadoi crops, early rice, Indian-corn, murwa, &c.—30th November.
Water-rate on annual and winter crops, sugarcane, aghani rice, joaur, &c.—31st January.

28. In the case of lands held in bhaoli, the water-rate shall be recoverable from both the cultivator and the person or persons in receipt of the bhaoli rents, in the same proportion as the produce is divisible amongst them.

29. Collection of all water-rate shall be made by the Collector in accordance with the statement of demands furnished to him by the Divisional Canal Officer.

30. Objections to the demand addressed to the Collector shall, if remission be claimed on the score of short supply or of any matter affecting the Irrigation Department, be referred for orders to the Divisional Canal Officer. The collection of the demand shall not be suspended on account of any such objection.

31. Claims for remission referred by the Collector and admitted by the Divisional Canal Officer shall be reported by him for the sanction of the Superintending Canal Officer, except in cases where remissions are made on account of excess areas having been charged for, or wrong name entered in the khatiauni.

32. A remission statement signed by the Superintending or Divisional Canal Officer shall be sufficient authority for a refund by the Collector.

33. If the Divisional Canal Officer reject the claim, an appeal may be made to the Superintending Canal Officer, provided that it is preferred within forty days from the issue of the order of the Divisional Canal Officer.

34. In special cases not otherwise provided for by these rules, and in cases in which water-rates are not recoverable owing to the absconding or bankruptcy of the defaulter, the Collector will obtain the sanction of the Commissioner of the Division to the remission of such sums as he may deem irrecoverable. The details of such remission shall be communicated at the close of each official year to the Divisional Canal Officer.

35. If a cultivator is dissatisfied with the entries made against him in the khatiauni, whether as to the fact of the land having been charged "flow" instead of "lift," or as to the measurements and entries of class of crop, he must lodge a complaint, either personally or through the Suttadar of his watercourse, with the Divisional or Sub-divisional Canal Officer at least seven days prior to the cutting of the crop.

36. No person shall, without the permission in writing of the Divisional or Sub-divisional Canal Officer, pass, or cause any animal or vehicle to pass, on or across any of the works, banks, or channels of a canal or drainage work after he has been desired to desist therefrom, excepting by means of such bridges, fords, and ferries, and their approaches, as are provided by the Divisional Canal Officer.

37. No Canal Officer, unless specially exempted by the Lieutenant-Governor from the operation of this rule, shall have any interest in the distribution of water from any of the canals, or purchase or bid for any Government property sold thereon, either in his own name or in the name of another, or jointly or in shares with others.

38. The Ameen appointed to measure up the area irrigated in any village shall, before leaving it, make over the khusras to a Mohurir, who will then compile the khatiauni. A copy of the khatiauni will be taken by the Putwaree, who must, as a rule, make it himself; but if he cannot from any cause do so, the Mohurir must make it, and the Putwaree is to be held responsible that he gets a copy.

39. The copy of the khatiauni thus made shall be hung up in some conspicuous place in the village, and slips in the prescribed form (Appendix D), showing the amount he will have to pay, area irrigated, &c., shall be prepared by the Putwaree and given to each ryot.

40. The allowance to the Putwaree for the above work shall be one-quarter anna in the rupee on the collections, and shall be paid to him by the Collector on his being satisfied that the work has been properly done.

41. The measurements of each crop irrigated shall be made as soon as practicable, and every care should be taken to have the khatiauni hung up in the village at least fifteen days before the crop is cut, so that the ryot may make his complaints, if he have any, in good time.

42. In case of any subsequent alteration of the khatiauni, owing to correction of clerical errors, &c., such alteration shall be at once communicated to the Putwaree to enable him to correct the village copy and slips accordingly.

43. The Zilladar shall submit his check measurements in a form (Appendix E) which shall be sent in for the inspection of the Divisional Canal Officer. The Sub-divisional Canal Officer shall also check the Ameens' measurements as often as he possibly can. If it be found that any Ameen wilfully or frequently makes wrong measurements, he shall be punished by dismissal, and shall be declared incapable of obtaining further employment under Government.

ANNUAL REPORT ON THE OPERATIONS OF THE ROAD CESS AND PUBLIC WORKS CESS ACTS DURING THE YEAR 1877-78.

Dated Calcutta, the 1st May 1879.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of Bengal, Financial Department.

READ—

Letter from the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, No. 169A, dated the 15th March 1879, submitting the Annual Report and Returns of the Demands, Collections, and Balances of Road Cess and Public Works Cess for the year ending on the 30th September 1878.

The Government Resolution dated the 23rd August 1878, on the Board's report on the operations of the Road Cess Act during the year 1876-77.

Both the Road Cess and Public Works Cess Acts were in operation during the year in all the districts in Bengal, except Singbhoom, the Sonthal Pergunnahs, and the Chittagong Hill Tracts.

2. As the collection of both the cesses is now made by the same agency, the Board have embodied in one report the transactions connected with the working of the Road Cess and Public Works Cess Acts during the year 1877-78.

3. While the Public Works Cess was levied at the maximum rate in all districts, the Road Cess was levied at half the maximum rate in three districts (Patna, Gya and Durbhunga), and at three-fourths the maximum rate in four districts (Burdwan, Moorshedabad, Rajshahye and Lohardugga). This explains the difference in the total demand and collections of the two cesses as shown in the statements submitted by the Board.

4. Arrears.—The arrears with which the year opened Rs. 3,70,722 on account of Road Cess, and Rs. 3,27,831 on acco Works Cess, or a total of Rs. 6,98,553.

The demands of the current year were Rs. 30,59,181 on acc Cess, and Rs. 35,03,359 on account of Public Works Cess, o Rs. 65,62,540.

The aggregate demand therefore, including arrears, Rs. 72,61,093. Out of this the sum of Rs. 62,08,139 was co Rs. 11,462 remitted, so that the outstanding balance at the clos amounted to Rs. 10,41,492,—viz. Rs. 4,89,102 on account of Roa Rs. 5,52,390 on account of Public Works Cess.

This shows that there was a larger accumulation of arrears of the year 1877-78, than at its beginning, by Rs. 3,42,939. In th on the returns of cess collections for the last two quarters Board have traced the growth of arrears since the int Cess Act. The percentage of arrears to current deman

5. From the 1st April 1878 the two cesses were establishment, and the result of the arrangement Although on the 31st March 1877 the joint balance o arisen from Rs. 6,98,553, which was the opening bala Rs. 11,26,917, and on the 30th June to Rs. 12,40,087, it at the close of the year, i.e., on the 30th September 1878. The that the Acts are now working smoothly, and that the collecti punctually made. The Lieutenant-Governor hopes that the an the Board will be fulfilled, and that the results of the current yea substantial reduction in the outstanding balance, which is still a year's demand.

6. Collections.—In the following eight districts the collec Road and Public Works Cesses, taken together, attained to the st per cent. laid down by the Government of India :—

Pooree	99·4	Chumparun ...
Beerbhoom	99·2	Bhagulpore ...
Hazareebagh	98·1	Purneah ...
Lohardugga	98·0	Burdwan ...

In eleven districts the realizations of the two cesses were above 9 95 per cent.—

Moorshedabad	94·8	Cuttack
24-Pergunnahs	94·5	Tipperah
Rajshahye	94·4	Jessore
Julpigooree	94·3	Monghyr
Nuddea	93·8	Rungpore
Hooghly	91·6

Eight districts collected between 85 and 90 per cent., and four distri 80 and 85 per cent., as shown below :—

Dacca	89·3	Bankoorah ...
Bogra	88·1	Dinagepore ...
Shahabad	88·1	Balasore ...
Durbhunga	88·1	Pubna ...
Maldah	87·0	Patna ...
Gya	86·8	Furreedpore ...

Of the remaining nine districts, the worst results were in—

Bhagulpore	53·4
Chittagong	57·1
Darjeeling	63·3

and the rest collected between 70 and 80 per cent. No explan falling-off in the collections in these districts is given. Informat point should be given in future reports.

7. Remissions.—The remissions during the year amounted to Rs. 11,462,—namely, Rs. 5,394 on account of Road Cess and Rs. 6,068 on account of the Public Works Cess. In Shahabad the remissions were large, being Rs. 2,911 for each of the cesses, or Rs. 5,822 for both. In Chittagong remissions on account of the Road Cess came to Rs. 1,797.

House Cess.—The House Cess has been a source of discontent out of proportion to the income which it yields. As the receipts from this tax are greatly reduced by the introduction of the Bengal License-tax Act, which exempts persons who pay fees under that Act from liability to pay the Road and Public Works Cesses on houses, the Lieutenant-Governor, on the recommendation of the Board of Revenue, sanctioned the suspension of the collection of the cess on houses falling due after the 1st April 1878. The collections, therefore, of House Cess, which were solely on account of the first-half of the year under review, were very small compared with those of previous years. Statement No. II shows that the arrears of both cesses on houses at the beginning of the year amounted Rs. 54,257, and the current demand to Rs. 4,17,028. The total collections were Rs. 1,97,149, and the remissions were Rs. 5,102. The arrears at the close of the year amounted to Rs. 2,69,034, of which Rs. 2,08,511 belonged to the second half-year and were not recoverable, so that the recoverable arrears were only Rs. 60,520.

9. In the resolution on the Board's report on the working of the Road Cess Act during 1876-77, it was observed that in future the Board, before reporting the collections of the year to Government, should secure an agreement between the figures shown in the Accountant-General's books and those reported quarterly to the Board. In accordance with these orders, the Board append to the present report a statement numbered IV, exhibiting the results of the comparison of the Road Cess receipts as shown by the Collectors with those given by the Accountant-General. It appears from the statement that the Collectors show Rs. 29,35,711 on account of Road Cess, and Rs. 32,72,278 on account of Public Works Cess, against Rs. 30,68,697 and Rs. 33,14,473 as given by the Accountant-General.

To avoid delay in the submission of the present report, the Board have not attempted to reconcile these discrepancies, as it would involve a lengthened correspondence. They are, however, of opinion that these differences have arisen mainly from the following causes:—

The Board's returns are made up for the year under report, and thus include collections made in advance for the year before the commencement of the year, but not the collections made during the year in advance for the following year. The Accountant-General, on the other hand, has shown the actual realizations from 1st October 1877 to 30th September 1878.

The Accountant-General includes contributions from the Estates Improvement Fund, while the Board have not taken credit for these amounts.

Mistakes in crediting amounts occasionally take place in the Accountant-General's Office, as well as in the local treasuries. These mistakes are very difficult to detect. The Board are taking measures, in communication with the Accountant-General and the Collectors, to bring the figures of the latter into agreement with those of the former.

As the Road Cess Committees might fairly claim a contribution from the Provincial revenues towards the cost of the joint establishment for the collection of the two cesses, the Board were of opinion that one-third of the total cost should be borne by the Provincial revenues, and two-thirds by the Road Cess Committees. The Government, while accepting the principle, thought that, instead of dividing the cost of the establishment every year, and paying certain portions to the Road Cess Funds, a more convenient plan would be to allot a fixed sum yearly from Provincial revenues for each district, and thus obviate the necessity of making fresh calculations every year. The Lieutenant-Governor accordingly sanctioned the annual payment of a fixed sum in each district to the Road Cess Fund.

11. Another matter which engaged the Board's attention during the year was the re-valuation of estates. The quinquennial period for which assessments had been made having expired in certain districts, the Board represented that it would be inexpedient to undertake the entire re-valuation of those districts, and that the best course would be to allow the old valuations to stand for the bulk of the estates in each district, a fresh valuation being made in respect only of estates for which such a measure might seem desirable. They accordingly proposed that operations should commence in certain selected districts, and be limited to two classes of estates,—namely, estates the proprietors of which might apply for re-valuation, and those which the Collectors might select under the belief that they were under-valued. These proposals were sanctioned; but the Board were told that no harassing valuations on a large scale should be conducted, but that each Collector's operations, except where re-valuation was applied for, should be confined entirely to estates which he had good reason to believe to be under-valued. The Board are taking steps to re-value a limited number of estates in accordance with the above orders.

12. The next subject which came under the consideration of the Board during the year was the practice of granting remissions. There has hitherto been no uniform practice in this respect. The Board therefore have ruled that in future no authority below the Commissioner of a Division shall be competent to grant remissions, and that the Commissioner's power in this respect be limited to cases—(1) where the lands cannot be traced; (2) where they have totally diluviated; (3) where, by some mistake, they have been doubly assessed; (4) where the lands assessed are within municipal limits, and (5) wher estates have been transferred to other districts. In all other case of granting remissions has been reserved to the Board.

13. After a careful local enquiry, the Board have laid down scale of charges for the execution of processes under the Road Cess steps have also been taken to secure that all recoveries shall be duly for in the Road Cess accounts. The amendment of the Road Cess a Works Cess Acts is under the consideration of the Board. The the measures to be taken to ensure the due assessment of all lakhiraj and of the provision to be made for the separate payment of the an estate is partitioned, or separate accounts of land revenue are ope the currency of a valuation, will be considered in connection with th amendment.

14. The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to acknowledge the ability with which this branch of income, which is now of such importance to the Provincial revenue, has been administered, as well as the full and careful report on the working of the Cess Acts which has been submitted by the Board.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

RAJENDRA NATH MITRA,

Asst. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

MEDICAL EDUCATION AT THE CAMPBELL AND OTHER VERNACULAR SCHOOLS OF MEDICINE.

EDUCATION.

Calcutta, the 14th June 1879.

READ—

A Report on Medical Education at the Campbell Vernacular Medical School at Sealdah by the Committee appointed to enquire into Medical Expenditure in Bengal.

The Lieutenant-Governor has read with much interest the admirable and thoroughly practical report of the Committee. He entirely agrees with the Committee in the view they take of the general course of education which should be followed in the Campbell and other similar Vernacular Schools of Medicine, and as to the class of practitioner which such schools are intended to supply. As the Committee remark, the passed student of a Vernacular School is "intended primarily for a hospital assistant, able to carry out intelligently the orders of the medical officer under whom he is placed, and not to be an independent practitioner until he has served for at least two years to the satisfaction of his superior officer. Even then he is only put in charge of comparatively unimportant dispensaries, in localities too poor to support an Assistant Surgeon. A secondary object of the school is to educate village practitioners, who will be content to settle in poor localities, to take the place now occupied by uneducated baids, hakims and kobirajes, and extend to the poorer classes of the community, as far as possible, the benefits of a European medical training."

2. The teaching at present given is altogether too theoretical and above the heads of the pupils, who, as a matter of fact, are found to have but little practical knowledge of their profession when brought to the test of actual work. The classes are at the same time far too large to be properly managed and controlled, a defect in the present system to which, as much as to the course of instruction followed, the failure of the institution to turn out a useful body of native doctors is, in the opinion of the Committee, mainly attributable.

3. To effect the requisite improvements five things are found to be necessary:—

(a).—To limit the numbers taught in the school;
(b).—To raise the standard of admission;
(c).—To simplify and reduce the present courses of lectures;
(d).—To make the periodical examinations more frequent and methodical;
(e).—To make the training generally more practical.

4. To secure due limitation in the numbers the Committee recommend—

I.—That in future no more than 200 students be allowed in the school, and that only sufficient entries be permitted each year to keep up the numbers.

The number at present on the rolls being 430, the reduction should be effected gradually by admitting only 50 new candidates annually, until the normal number of 200 is reached.

II.—That those students agreeing to enter Government service, if called upon, should be received on payment of the existing fees, while private students should be called upon to pay fees more nearly proportioned to the cost of their education.

These proposals, which will not affect present pupils, are approved, and the Director of Public Instruction will be asked what fees should be charged to private pupils. At the same time he will be desired to consider how far it would be possible to admit all candidates at the highest rate of fee, providing at the same time for periodical competitive examinations for the admission of the necessary number of men required each year for the Government service, returning to the selected candidates the difference between the existing fees and the higher general rate proposed.

5. To secure a better standard of qualification on entrance, the Committee make proposals for raising the test for admission. There are now four tests for admission to the school, viz., either (1) a certificate of having passed the Entrance examination of the University, or (2) the minor scholarship or middle English examination; or (3) the Vernacular scholarship examination; or (4) a certificate from the head-master of a recognized school, countersigned by the Divisional Inspector, that the candidate has studied up to the University Entrance examination. The last test is known to have worked badly, and the Committee would discard it in future, retaining the other three. Their proposal is—

III.—That in future the standard of preliminary education required should be that implied by the students having passed (1) the Entrance examination of the Calcutta University, or (2) the Minor Scholarship examination, or (3) the Vernacular Scholarship examination, and that certificates from head-masters be no longer received.

6. The Director of Public Instruction, who was asked to favor the Lieutenant-Governor with his remarks upon the Committee's report, has pointed out the importance, in selecting pupils even for a Vernacular School of Medicine, of allowing a preponderance to English attainments, and he would give the preference to (1) those who have passed the Entrance examination, (2) those who have passed that examination in two or three subjects, to those who have passed the Middle English Scholarship examination; to those who have passed the Middle Vernacular Scholarship examination, according to the grades in which they have passed. The Lieutenant-Governor agrees to the modifications suggested by the Director, and the rules for admission will in future be regulated accordingly.

7. In order to lessen the number of lectures delivered, as well as to simplify their character, it is proposed—

IV.—That the giving of formal and didactic lectures should be discontinued as much as possible, and that the teaching should in future be much more tutorial in its nature, the teacher expounding the text-book to his class, enlarging or giving his own views where necessary, and by constant examinations seeing that he is taking his students along with him, and that they understand everything as they proceed.

V.—That any class exceeding 75 in number should be divided into sections, and the teacher made to take the sections on alternate days, attending five days in the week, instead of three as at present.

VI.—That the resident Assistant Surgeons of the hospital be required to assist in the teaching.

These general suggestions appear to be sound, and have the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor. The attention of the Superintendent and teachers will be called to the detailed remarks and suggestions of the Committee under these and other following heads.

8. The Committee proceed to make the following suggestions as to the character of the lectures to be given in certain subjects, and the extent to which each subject should be taught:—

VII.—That a separate course of 50 lectures on Descriptive Anatomy and Elementary Physiology be instituted for first and second-year students, and that the third-year course should be confined to demonstrations of Surgical Anatomy. Students should be made to point out the different surgically important spots on the living body, to apply tourniquets, map out regions, &c.

VIII.—That systematic lectures on Chemistry be discontinued, and that the teacher of Materia Medica be required to give so much instruction in Elementary Chemistry as is required to enable students to understand and apply the tests laid down in the Pharmacopœia and to roughly examine urine for clinical purposes.

IX.—That the present teacher of Chemistry, who will in future teach only Medical Jurisprudence, be placed in charge of the small-pox and moribund wards.

X.—That only one course of lectures on Midwifery, including diseases of women and children, is necessary; that it should be elementary merely; and that no attempt should be made to teach Operative Midwifery. Every effort should be made to let the student see as many natural labours as possible, and to teach him what he ought to do in emergencies when instruments are not required.

XI.—That only one course of 30 lectures be required in Medical Jurisprudence, in which the subject of injuries to the person should be treated in some detail. The symptoms, mode of treatment, and "post mortem" appearances in cases of poisoning should be taught, but not analysis for poison.

XII.—That the present second course should be abolished, and that practical instruction should be given in the following manner :—

All suburban police cases should be sent to Sealdah instead of to Alipore report and "post mortem" examination. The students should make the neces- dissection under the eye of the teacher himself, who should dictate the rt and give evidence when called upon. He should point out to the students injuries, morbid appearances, &c., found, expound each case to them, and ll to their minds such parts of his formal discourses as bear upon it, explain- in what way each of his remarks tells for or against the theory of the case ished to him by the police. He should teach them to discriminate between ds and bruises inflicted before and after death, and show them the sort ork they will have to do. In the practical examinations the students should de to form opinions and dictate reports, which should be checked and ised by the other students and by the teacher.

Various modifications in the other courses of lectures are also suggested, all g the object of simplifying the course of study and making it more cal.

hese are matters of a professional bearing, on which the Lieutenant- nor must generally accept the judgment of the Committee.

. There are, however, two points upon which he is not prepared to agree hem. The first is the proposal that Rai Kanai Lal Dey, Bahadoor, Teacher mistry and Medical Jurisprudence, should be forced to take charge of oribund and small-pox wards. This gentleman has hitherto been ed from clinical work for sufficient reasons, and Sir Ashley Eden is not disposed now to impose it upon him. Some personal consideration may well be shown to such an old and valued servant of Government; but when he vacates his present appointment the Lieutenant-Governor will not object to a different arrangement being made in the case of his successor.

10. The other proposal to which the Lieutenant-Governor must demur is the one that all suburban police cases should be sent to the Sealdah hospital instead of to Alipore for report, and post mortem examination. This will entail upon the teachers the necessity of attending the Alipore Courts to give evidence, where they might be detained in a manner likely to interfere seriously with the performance of their duties. There ought to be a sufficient number of dead bodies available from the wards of the Sealdah Hospital itself, or from the Calcutta Police dead-house, for all purposes of instruction.

11. The Lieutenant-Governor sanctions Proposal XIII, which is as follows :—

XIII.—That no student be admitted to the final examination until he can produce a certificate of having done practical work for six months in the dispensary, for nine months as dresser and clinical clerk in the surgical wards, six months as clinical clerk in the medical, and three months in the female wards to the satisfaction of his teachers, and also a certificate from his tutors that he has worked diligently under them. He should also have certificates of regular attendance at all his classes and of having dissected every part of the human body."

12. With reference to the examinations the Committee make the following suggestions :—

XIV.—That in future there should be two examinations, the first at the end of the second year, to include Descriptive Anatomy, the Elements of Physiology and Chemistry, Materia Medica and Pharmacy; the second at the end of the third year, on Surgery (with Surgical Anatomy), Medicine (with Therapeutics), Midwifery (with diseases of women and children), and Medical Jurisprudence. It will be seen that the second examination includes the practical parts of the subjects embraced in the first examination. The Committee are of opinion that, for the present at least, the examinations should be oral, and that they should be as much as possible practical.

XV.—That a Board of three paid examiners, one of whom should vacate yearly, should be appointed with the teachers of the Sealdah School as assessors to conduct the examination of vernacular students, and that one general examination sho[illegible] be held annually as at present.

XVI.—That no student failing to pass either of his examinations at second attempt be permitted to remain in the school.

XVII.—That school examinations be held at the end of each year, a[illegible] that all students who do not obtain marks equal to a third [illegible] the total be struck off the books.

13. The Lieutenant-Governor approves of all these suggestions with exception of XV. The Lieutenant-Governor is unable to sanction the prop[illegible] to pay the examiners, which apparently only applies to the case of the Sea[illegible] school. The Professors of the Medical College do the work at present, [illegible] should continue to take the duty in turn, the College Council appointing [illegible] of them annually to hold the examinations with the help of the tea[illegible] of the school.

14. The Committee further think it would be a great advanta[illegible] the students if some more defined standard of examination than at pr[illegible] exists could be arranged for; and that, as far as possible, the examin[illegible] at the other vernacular schools should be assimilated to those at Se[illegible] But they make no attempt to lay down such a standard. The Committee [illegible] now be requested to report further upon this point, and to lay down, as [illegible] possible, the necessary standards in all subjects. The standards when [illegible] will, of course, be applied in all medical schools in Bengal, just as the [illegible] in curriculum, proposed for the Sealdah school, must now be made to apply generally. The Committee will also be asked to report on what subjects satisfactory text-books exist, and in what subjects they are still required. The text-books actually in use in the Dacca and other schools should also be considered and reported on.

15. The remaining proposals of the report are these—

XVIII.—That the Superintendent of the Sealdah Hospital, who has already been made ex-officio Principal of the School, with full powers, should be made generally responsible for the carrying out of the new programme.

XIX.—That all future teachers be appointed for twelve months on probation, and be not confirmed in their appointments until they have proved their capacity as teachers.

XX.—That, as an inducement to good work, a teacher be eligible to promotion to the pay of the next higher grade when he has completed half of his septennial period in the lower grade, provided he be recommended for the increase by the Principal and the Surgeon-General.

XXI.—That the privilege of private practice at present allowed to the teachers be continued to them.

XXII.—That the Demonstrators in Anatomy be restricted from private practice and made to give their whole time to their work, acting as special tutors in Anatomy.

XXIII.—That future resident Surgeons be specially selected by the Surgeon-General and appointed for six months on probation, and be eligible for re-appointment for a second period of two years if specially recommended.

XXIV.—That no casual students be allowed.

XXV—With the exception of I, which has been already provided for and XVI, the operation of which might be postponed for a year, in order that it may not bear too heavily on men already in the school, the Committee think that these recommendations should come into force at once.

The Lieutenant-Governor accepts all these suggestions.

16. The thanks of Government are due to the Committee for their report. The Director of Public Instruction will take steps to have immediate effect given to the foregoing orders.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of the above Resolution be communicated to the Committee appointed to enquire into Medical Expenditure in Bengal, with the request that they will favor the Lieutenant-Governor with the report called for in paragraph 14.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

A. MACKENZIE,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT ON THE POLICE ADMINISTRATION OF THE TOWN OF CALCUTTA AND ITS SUBURBS FOR 1878.

POLICE.

Calcutta, 18th June 1879.

READ—

The Annual Report on the Police Administration of the Town of Calcutta and its Suburbs for 1878.

READ again—

The Report for 1877 and the orders of Government recorded thereon.

The returns for the past year show an increase of 1,221 in the total number of cases reported in the town and suburbs, the increase for the town being 1,500 and the decrease for the suburbs 279. The following statement shows the number of cognizable and non-cognizable cases in the town and suburbs together for the past three years:—

		1876	1877.	1878.
Cognizable ..	Penal Code ...	5,522	6,260	6,192
	Miscellaneous ..	12,911	13,266	13,074
Non-cognizable ...	Penal Code ...	5,741	6,759	8,233
	Miscellaneous ...	11,488	18,301	13,308
	Total ...	35,733	44,586	45,807

More than the whole of the increase of 4,808 cognizable cases under miscellaneous laws is accounted for by an increase of 2,730 miscellaneous offences in the streets, of 1,568 cases under the Contagious Diseases Act, and of 595 cases under the Act for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. The increase of 1,474 non-cognizable offences under the Penal Code was due to increased activity in checking local nuisances, and the decrease of 4,993 miscellaneous non-cognizable offences occurred chiefly in the number of conservancy cases. Out of 46,981 persons arrested or summoned during the year, 36,725 or 79 per cent. were convicted, as compared with 81 per cent. in the previous year, while of 5,994 persons arrested in cognizable cases under the Penal Code, 4,069 or nearly 68 per cent. were convicted, against 67 per cent. in 1877 and only 54 per cent. in 1876. Of 10,106 persons arrested for committing street offences, 9,912 were convicted, and in non-cognizable cases under the Penal Code convictions rose far more than in proportion to the increase in the number of arrests. These figures seem fairly to bear out the conclusion drawn by the Commissioner that the Police exercised their powers judiciously during the past year. There was a decrease in both the town and suburbs in the number of false cases, the percentage of false cases to true falling from 2·27 to 1·85. The Commissioner notices the difference between the powers of Magistrates in Calcutta and the Mofussil in dealing with false charges, and on this question the Lieutenant-Governor will be glad of a further expression of Mr. Souttar's views in connection with the new Criminal Procedure Bill, which has already been forwarded for his opinion. The number of cases in which property was stolen was 2,957 against 2,725 in 1877, and property was recovered in 2,068 against 1,812. The percentage of property recovered was 50·2 in the town and 48·1 in the suburbs. Judged by the ratio of the number of cognizable offences under the Penal Code to the population, there was a decrease in crime in the town and an increase in the suburbs, the ratios being 1 to 104·10 in the former and 1 to 179·69 in the latter, against 1 to 121 and 1 to 150 respectively in 1877. There were 884 convictions of Europeans and Eurasians under the Penal Code, against 881 in the previous year.

2. Town.—The number of cognizable cases in the town was 19,6[illegible], against 15,185 in 1877 and 14,663 in 1876. Serious offences against the person increased from 154 to 203; cases of criminal force to public servants were 8[illegible] in number against 90 in 1877, and none of the assaults were of a serious nature. There were 45 more cases of house-breaking and house-trespass than in the previous year, but less property was stolen and the percentage of convictions was considerably higher. High prices and the consequent influx of distressed persons to the town are the causes assigned for the increase in crime. Many of those who took to crime were new hands, and the proportions of cases detected and persons convicted to the number of offences were, as a natural consequence, higher than in previous years. There were five cases of murder, the number being the same as in 1877, but only one conviction was obtained. In one of the other cases the murderer killed his mother and wounded his sister while in a fit of insanity and then committed suicide. There were three cases of attempt at murder; in one the prisoner was convicted, in another acquitted, and the third case was that of the lunatic murderer referred to above who attempted to kill his sister. In 28 cases of grievous hurt, 23 persons were convicted, ten were discharged and two cases were under trial at the close of the year. The yearly average number of cases of grievous hurt in the five years up to 1877 was only 18, but it is explained that there has not been much real increase of crime of this description. Up to 1877 cases of grievous hurt could not be tried by the Presidency Magistrates, and all petty cases that fell technically under the definition of grievous hurt were, in order to avoid commitment, dealt with as cases of simple hurt. There were 115 true cases of burglary and lurking house-trespass against 78 in 1877 and 102 in 1876; the cases detected were 56 against 41 and 25 in 1876 and 1877 respectively, and the convictions were 73 against 41 and 32. Notwithstanding the increase in the number of cases, there was a decrease in the amount of property stolen from Rs. 11,311 in 1877 to Rs. 10,451, while the percentage of property recovered was better than in any previous year on record. The number of theft cases rose from 1,989 to 2,231; but the increase in detections and convictions was more than in proportion to the increase in crime. In only 262 cases out of the whole number of thefts did the property stolen exceed Rs. 50 in value, and out of these 262 cases, 154 were thefts in buildings, 79 thefts by servants, and 29 thefts from the person. As pointed out by the Commissioner, thefts by servants are certain to be of constant occurrence so long as natives of all ranks of life engage their servants without making any enquiry as to their character. There were 349 cases of criminal breach of trust and 249 convictions, against an average of 180 cases during the five preceding years. Many of these cases were rendered easy by the same cause that explains the number of thefts by servants, but there has also recently been an increase in the number of thefts by carriers. As a preventive measure, a new system of registration of carts has been adopted by branding the figures in substitution for wheel plates.

3. There were only two prosecutions for bad livelihood during the year, and the Commissioner points out that considerable difficulty arises owing to the Police having no power under the Presidency Magistrates' Act to arrest in these cases. Before a summons is granted the testimony of independent witnesses is required, and it is said that so long as the offender is at large witnesses will not appear for fear of the consequences. Moreover, it is urged that no thief or burglar will wait until he is summoned. There may possibly be some little force in these arguments, but the position of the police in a large town like Calcutta, where the police force and the suspected characters are all living within a compact area, and where the watchfulness of the police over bad characters may be easily concentrated, is very different from that of the police scattered about large and sparsely populated districts; and the more that Sir Ashley Eden sees of the working of the provisions of the law against persons reputed to be of bad livelihood, the more he is convinced that the restriction of their use is for the public advantage. When the Police are not allowed to set off convictions of a few reputed thieves and bad characters against a number of undetected crimes, they are forced to use their detective powers, and the result is shown, as it is shown in the returns for the past year, in a larger number of cases detected and persons convicted than in any previous year. The orders passed in the Resolution on the Report for 1877 with regard to the proceedings taken against persons suspected of possessing stolen property have been strictly observed, and every case of detention on suspicion has been entered as an arrest. There were such cases in the past year, and 142 proved on enquiry to be thefts and convictions obtained, while in 165 cases the persons stopped could not explain their possession of property found upon them, or the owners were found and declined to prosecute. In 283 cases proof was given of honest possession and the persons arrested were released on arrival at the police station. In ten cases the arrests were vexatious and the arresting officers were punished. The Commissioner explains that although the Police are not directly stimulated to activity in these proceedings it is not considered advisable to visit very severely simple acts of indiscretion or excesses of zeal. In this view the Lieutenant-Governor concurs. In 57 per cent. of the cases the results showed that the action of the Police was justified; in 26 per cent. their action led to the conviction of thieves and receivers of stolen property who must otherwise have escaped, while in the remaining cases the minimum of hardship was caused as the persons arrested were not detained for the night, but were liberated on arrival at the police station. In one case two persons, who were stopped on mere suspicion, were found to be professional poisoners, and one of them was afterwards identified as having committed two cases of poisoning in the 24-Pergunnahs and Jessore. Owing to the decrease in the number of vessels entering the port, cases against the Shipping Acts fell from 550 in 1877 to 410. Out of 2,843 persons arrested for cruelty to animals only 35 were acquitted or discharged.

4. Suburbs.—The number of cognizable cases was 3,696, against 3,194 in 1877 and 2,749 in 1876. There was a decrease in the number of serious offences against person and property, but an increase in minor offences against property and in street offences. It is satisfactory to find that there was not a single case of murder during the year and only one case of attempt at murder. There were four cases of culpable homicide, in three of which the prisoners were convicted. Cases of grievous hurt fell from 13 to 6, and all were of a simple character. In the six cases five prisoners were convicted. There were two cases of administering stupefying drugs, the more serious being the one referred to above, in which the two offenders were arrested on suspicion. When the constable began to examine the bundle carried by one of the men the other one moved off saying he should fetch his master. The bundle was found to contain clothes and cash to the amount of Rs. 129-11, and the constable then took the man to the police station. Enquiries were made and four boatmen were discovered lying raving mad in their boat on the canal and for two days their lives were in danger. The man in custody was identified by the boatmen on their recovery as one of two men who had engaged passages by their boat and had given them cakes to eat. The other man, who had been stopped by the constable but had escaped, was subsequently arrested, and each prisoner was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. There were four cases of kidnapping children for their ornaments; one case remained undetected, and in the other three four defendants were convicted The number of cases of burglary and house trespass fell from 146 to 110, while there was an increase in both the number of cases detected and of persons convicted. Property was stolen in 67 cases and recovered in 35. The amount stolen was Rs. 3,979, and of this Rs. 1,529 was recovered. These figures contrast very favourably with those of previous years. There were two cases of extortion by constables and in both cases the sentences inflicted appear to have been very light. It is not often that cases of this description are detected, and when the offender is convicted, the sentence should be sufficient to act as a warning upon others.

5. Sixty persons committed suicide against 53 in each of the two previous years. Of these cases, 35 were in the town and 25 in the suburbs. Thirty of those who destroyed themselves were men, 28 were women, and two were girls of 13 years of age who poisoned themselves because of domestic unhappiness. In 27 of the 60 cases death was caused by hanging, in six cases by drowning, in 17 by opium poisoning, and in five cases by arsenic. Inquests were held by the Coroner in 151 cases against 131 in 1877; but the Commissioner says that in some few of the cases inquests might have been avoided had proper certificates of death been furnished by the authorities of the Medical College Hospital. The procedure to be adopted in cases of death in hospital has recently been laid down by Government, and it now rests with the Commissioner of Police to order a post mortem examination whenever he considers it necessary after reading the death certificate given by the medical officer who attended the deceased. Of 229 accidental deaths, 12 were caused by snake-bite, 92 by drowning, 33 by falls from trees, buildings, &c., and 22 by being run over in the streets. In these 22 cases no blame could, it is said, be attached to the drivers; in five cases resulting in death or serious injury, the drivers in fault were prosecuted, and in a number of other cases not attended with fatal results the drivers were prosecuted and punished for rash and furious driving. The accidental cases are in a great measure doubtless due to the habit that natives have of walking in the middle of the road even when there are footpaths provided for them. Natives also when about to cross a road rarely look to see if there is any vehicle coming, and many of them appear even yet scarcely to realize that there is any conveyance in ordinary use that moves quicker and with less noise than a bullock cart. There was a marked and satisfactory decrease in the number of European seamen drowned in the river, there being only nine such cases against forty-one in 1877. The large number of cases last year attracted the Lieutenant-Governor's attention, and the Commissioner was requested to warn Captains of the risk of employing men in painting the sides of the ships in the river without taking proper precautions for the safety of the men. The European police on duty along the Strand Bank after dusk have strict orders to prevent sailors in liquor from taking dinghees to board their vessels.

6. There was a great falling off in the imports of both arms and ammunition during the past year owing no doubt to the restrictions in the new Arms Act (XI) of 1878. The imports of the past three years are shown in the following statement:—

Years.	Sporting rifles.	Sporting guns.	Pistols and revolvers.	Gunpowder.	Shot.	Percussion caps.
	No.	No.	No.	lb.	Bags.	No.
1876	280	1,536	383	93,800	15,890	21,203,000
1877	186	716	438	84,580	18,894	28,586,700
1878	174	365	300	80,000	11,000	14,224,000

The returns of arms and ammunition passed out of Calcutta under inland passes show a large decrease in the number of guns and in the amount of gunpowder and shot transported accompanied by a large increase in the amount of lead and a small increase in the number of cartridges. Ammunition was transported in somewhat smaller quantities than last year to districts beyond the jurisdiction of the Government of Bengal, but apparently in much larger quantities than last year to frontier districts within the Lieutenant-Governor's jurisdiction. The increase shown by the returns is very probably due to more correct information being now obtained than formerly. In June a special inspector was appointed to supervise the working of the Arms Act in Calcutta, and as the new law and rules give ample powers of inspection and supervision, the returns will no doubt in future be accurate. The falling off in imports has naturally caused a decrease in the stock in the hands of dealers in Calcutta.

7. During the year 40 persons were declared vagrants against 36 in 1877. Besides these, 22 persons of European extraction were sent by the Presidency Magistrates to the Alms-house to enable them to find employment. The total number of vagrants in the Work-house, including nine who remained from the preceding year, was 47, and of these 15 were discharged on obtaining employment, 22 were deported, and one was made over to the military authorities as a deserter. The total cost incurred by Government in working the European Vagrancy Act in Calcutta was Rs. 4,368-1-8. The arrangements for removing the Work-house from the Presidency Jail to a building connected with the Alms-house were completed in December last.

8. The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to find that the remarks made by him last year have led to an increase in the number of Bengali officers in the police force. The number of Bengali native officers in the town is now 53 against 42 at the beginning of the year, and the number in the Suburbs 25 against 23. The number of Bengali constables in the town fell from 132 to 125, but the number in the Suburbs rose from 77 to 92. The Commissioner points out that the discipline and work of the police in Calcutta and the Suburbs are much more severe than in the mofussil, and that it does not therefore follow that Bengali recruits can be so readily obtained as in the 24-Pergunnahs and Howrah. There is no doubt some force in this, but now that the number of constables has been reduced, and their pay increased, it should be possible to fill up vacancies by Bengalis. The new scheme did not come into effect until the 1st April, or three months after the close of the year under review. There were 134 dismissals against 129 in 1877 and 148 in 1876. The list includes six native officers and sixteen European constables who were dismissed chiefly on account of drunkenness. No officer of the rank of Inspector was dismissed during the year. The number of desertions has again fallen to the average of the years previous to 1877. There were 68 desertions against 149 in 1877, and an average of 67 during the four preceding years. The views of the Lieutenant-Governor regarding the infliction of fines on native constables have been attended to, and the number of these punishments fell to 111 from 556 in 1877 and 352 in 1876. It is satisfactory to find that, notwithstanding this decrease, it was only found necessary to punish 82 constables by reduction against 115 in 1877.

9. Seventeen juveniles were sent by the Presidency Magistrates to the Reformatory. The Commissioner reports that these boys were not the children or associates and pupils of thieves and that most of them were driven to crime by neglect or misfortune. The best results may therefore be looked for from their removal from temptation and from their being trained to earn an honest livelihood. As regards old offenders every effort has been made to keep them under supervision, but when they find they are watched they change their houses and their names and avoid detection. The habitual thieves and burglars of Calcutta do not reform any more than those of the mofussil; and, having regard to this fact, too many short and lenient sentences appear to have been passed by the Presidency Magistrates upon offenders of this class The punishment of flogging appears also not to have been judiciously made use of by the Magistrate of the Northern Division. Out of 165 cases in which this punishment was inflicted, sentences of less than 15 stripes were passed in 131 cases, of less than 10 stripes in 71 cases, and of less than 5 stripes in 10 cases. In cases when the prisoners had been previously convicted once or more than once, the punishment awarded was in 15 cases less than 15 stripes, in 8 cases less than 10 stripes, and in 2 cases less than 5 stripes. No doubt in many of these cases the offenders were juveniles; but as the whole number of boys under 16 years of age who were flogged was only 27, it is clear that at least 104 of those who received less than 15 stripes, and at least 44 of those who received less than 10 stripes, must have been 16 years of age or above, while a similar calculation shows that at least 86 adults above

20 years of age were punished with less than 15 stripes. The special or independent Bench of Honorary Magistrates organized in March sat regularly once a week. The scheme has been very successful, and the Lieutenant-Governor takes this opportunity of acknowledging the zeal and patience shown by the Honorary Magistrates in the discharge of the duties entrusted to them. The suggestions of the Chief Magistrate for the amendment of the Presidency Magistrates' Act will be considered in connection with the Criminal Procedure Bill in which the substance of the Presidency Magistrates' Act is incorporated.

10. The Lieutenant-Governor has read with much interest the description given of the various forms of crime in Calcutta and the Suburbs and its distribution in the different quarters.

Mr. Metcalfe officiated as Commissioner of Police until the 15th November, when he was succeeded by Mr. Souttar. The administration of the police force was under the Deputy Commissioner, Mr. Lambert, to whose experience the Commissioner acknowledges himself to be much indebted. Mr. Lambert has administered the force during the year with his usual ability and zeal.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Commissioner of Police, Calcutta, for information and for communication to the Presidency Magistrates.

Ordered also that a copy of the Resolution, and of the report be, forwarded to the Commissioner of the Presidency Division.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

HORACE A. COCKERELL,

Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

All t thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at t Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four f above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in t Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The direction and movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

Reports of Fluctuation of Traffic on the East Indian Railway for four weeks ending 24th May 1879.

EAST INDIAN RAILWAY, TRAFFIC MANAGER'S OFFICE, JAMALPORE, THE 16TH JUNE 1879.

Remarks on Traffic of East Indian Railway for four weeks ending 24th May 1879.

THE approximate figures for the period are—

	Coaching.		Goods.		Total.
	No.	Rs.	Mds.	Rs.	Rs.
1879	653,740	7,17,868	60,35,513	25,22,344	32,40,212
1878	557,058	6,78,518	57,72,682	22,87,744	29,66,262
Increase	96,682	39,350	2,62,831	2,34,600	2,73,950

showing an increase of over 9 per cent.

The coaching traffic shows an increase in passengers booked at Howrah, Baidyanath, Bankipore, and Benares, mostly pilgrims. Another item aiding the increase is the carriage of a large number of Government commissariat bullocks to the Frontier.

In goods there has been a general improvement in most staples, but more especially in cotton. This, however, has been impaired by the falling off shewn against wheat and seeds.

The staples in which any large variation is apparent are—

Increases.

Coal, upwards.	Iron.	Piece-goods.
Cotton.	Jaggree and sugar.	Railway m[illegible]
Government stores.	Opium.	Salt.

Decreases.

Coal, down.	Grain.	Tobac[illegible]
Ghee and oil.	Seeds.

Increases.

Coal, upwards ... ... Mds. 32,273

The coal this month has been despatched chiefly to Gazeeabad for the [illegible], Punjab, and Delhi, and via Punjab Northern State Railway.

Cotton ... ... Mds. 1,54,482 Rs. 2,[illegible]

As will be seen, this is a very large increase.

There has been a brisk demand in the Calcutta market and a good deal of cotton has been shipepd to London princi[illegible]

The clearances from Calcutta during May reached 47,000 bales—a total considerably above the months of March April last.

Government stores ... ... Mds. 6,661 Rs. 16,431

This increase is attributable to despatches from Howrah and the Gunpowder Manufactory at Serampore to the various military depôts in the North-West and Punjab.

Iron ... ... Mds. 5,473 Rs. 11,583

Owing to increased despatches from Howrah of 2nd class iron (water-pipes) for Umballa Cantonment.

		Mds.		Rs.
Jaggree	Increase	86,145	Increase	12,491
Sugar	"	83,275	Decrease	1,357
Net increase		1,69,420		11,134

The demand for sugar and jaggree in the Bombay Presidency and Rajpootana has led to the export of these staples from a large number of stations, but the lead over the main line has not been a long one.

Last year a quantity of sugar was sent up from Howrah to meet demands which could not be supplied locally, and a decrease of Rs. 15,000 under this head is shewn at Howrah this year.

Opium ... ... Mds. 8,219 Rs. 14,672

Despatches of crude opium from Cawnpore, Futtehpore, Benares to Zumaneah and Patna City for Government.

Piece-goods ... ... Mds. 52,181 Rs. 52,100

Prices in Calcutta continued to be favorable to buyers during the period, and in the early part of the month considerable despatches were made for the Patna and Tirhoot districts and the North-West Provinces. The Up-country markets are now plentifully stocked, and it is more than probable there will be a cessation in this business.

Railway materials, foreign ... ... Mds. 27,888 Rs. 20,522

During the period we have carried from Howrah materials for the Ghazipore, Dildarnugger State Line, the Gya State Line and for the Sindia Line.

Salt ... ... Mds. 1,39,984 Rs. 27,365

The increase is chiefly in traffic from the Rajpootana Salt Lakes. The figures for the period are—

	Mds.	Rs.
Vid Agra—increase	61,360	9,750
Vid Delhi	36,300	7,900
[illegible]ah	18,600	7,500

This is all the more satisfactory, as the figures for 1878 shewed a considerable improvement on those for 1877. The restrictions formerly placed in the way of the carriage of the Rajpootana Salt having been withdrawn, and the reduction of the duty have doubtless assisted largely in this happy result.

Decreases.

Coal, down ... ... Mds. 1,75,031 Rs. 21,171

There has been a falling off in the carriage of downwards coal to the port at nearly all the coal stations.

Ghee and oil ... ... Mds. 11,502 Rs. 13,628

There was an unusual demand in Calcutta last year compared with 1877; however, there is an increase this year of 9,300 maunds and Rs. 7,200.

Seeds ... ... Mds. 2,57,015 Rs. 85,634

Although there has been a good demand for oil-seeds in Calcutta, the supplies have been small comparatively, and the traffic from Patna and Cawnpore is very much below that of last year. These stations shew decreases thus—

	Mds.	Rs.
Patna	1,56,000	55,000
Cawnpore	1,01,800	81,000
Total ...	2,57,800	1,36,000

Tobacco ... ... Mds. 19,291 Rs. 9,000

This appears to be only an ordinary fluctuation.

Grain.

Rice—increase ... ... Mds. 1,16,990 Rs. 8,016

There has been a much better demand in Calcutta lately, and supplies have poured in from Loop-line stations principally.

Other grains—increase ... ... Mds. 1,58,000 Rs. 27,000

The demand in the Bombay Presidency and Guzerat continued during the month owing to the scarcity of food-grain in those provinces.

Pulses—increase ... ... Mds. 70,399 Rs. 27,231

The demand for grain is extensive on all sides, and owing to more favorable crops this year, there has been a freer movement. Prices for this pulse are still high, owing to the crop being a moderate one.

Wheat—decrease ... ... Mds. 2,29,531 Rs. 1,87,278

The stocks of wheat in the country appear to be very small, consequently high prices rule the markets and no business can be done, although there is a good demand. The price in this country is, I am informed, considerably above the Home equivalent.

The train mileage for the period is—

	Coaching.	Goods.	Total.
1879	187,118	441,888	628,806
1878	189,206	429,989	619,195

1878	3 9 5	5 5 2	4 12 8
Increase	0 4 0	0 6 0	0 5 9
Decrease	.....	.....	.....

The earnings per train continue to be satisfactory.

Shunting Mileage.

Decrease—686 hours.

Jubbulpore line traffic—

	Coaching.		Goods.		Total.
	No.	Rs.	Mds.	Rs.	Rs.

Increase	1,114	.....	6,73,005	1,28,099	1,22,042
Decrease	.....	6,057	.....	.....	.....

The chief staples carried have been grain, jaggree, piece-goods, &c.

The train mileage for the period is—

	Coaching.	Goods.	Total.
1879	19,793	81,912	101,705
1878	20,382	47,425	67,897
Increase	.....	34,487	33,898
Decrease	589	.....	.....

Total earnings per train mile—

Decrease, Rs. 0-3-3.

This is owing to so much empty running having to be incurred, the traffic being nearly all in one direction.

Report on the Fluctuations in Traffic on the Northern Bengal State Railway during the month of May 1879.

GENERAL REMARKS.

It is disappointing to have again to record so large a decrease under the head of food-grain, but it must be borne in mind that the traffic in rice and paddy (the principle staples carried) was quite exceptional last year, owing to the wide margin for profit that existed; whereas during the whole of this season the Calcutta market has been so extremely unfavourable to despatchers that orders only have been executed.

Increases.

Ale ... ... Mds. 1,092

A considerable quantity of Commissariat beer is still being sent forward for the use of troops at Darjeeling.

Gunny ... ... Mds. 990

A slight increase in the weight carried under this head for the period under review, as compared with the corresponding month last year in the face of the present favourable rate of carriage, goes to shew that the cause operating against despatches, given in my previous reports, is still affecting this traffic.

Jute ... ... Mds. 28,390

The gross weight of this staple lifted during the month reached 32,673 maunds, being 28,390 in excess of that carried in May '78. The large increase, so late in the season, is accounted for by the fact that despatchers seem to take advantage of the present excessive prices obtainable in Calcutta, and are probably despatching by rail what would, under ordinary circumstances, find its way to the port by boat.

Piece-goods ... ... Mds. 9,305

A fair trade has been going on during the month owing to the desire to get the local markets stocked before the monsoons burst.

Salt ... ... Mds. 19,020

The forecast given in my last report of the traffic in this commodity has so far been realized, the weight lifted during the month being in excess of that for any previous month.

Sugar ... ... Mds. 1,747

This, it will be seen, is upwards traffic, and will no doubt fall off considerably as soon as it can be despatched by boat.

Tobacco ... ... Mds. 6,055

In spite of the very low prices ruling for this article, the new crop is beginning to find its way to the Calcutta market.

Other goods ... ... Mds. 29,044

The total traffic under this head for the period under review stands at 33,949 maunds, against 4,905 maunds in May 1878. The increase shown, although large and satisfactory, is slightly below the weight lifted during April.

Decreases.

grain ... ... Mds. 19,605 decrease is attributable to the very slight difference between the price on the spot and the Calcutta rate for rice.

Ginger ... ... Mds. 623

Calcutta market price for this article is so low that it does not pay holders to despatch.

Railway material ... ... Mds. 22,278 completion of the extension from Rungpore to the Teesta the despatch of material for the line has been suspended. This time last year we were busily engaged in sending forward material for the Siliguri extension. The which for the last three or four months has helped to keep up the figures under this head, has also fallen off.

... ... Mds. 1,715

This head is the result of the lateness of the flushes this season. No tea, as far as I can ascertain, is Jorola this year. Bearing this in mind, and remembering that owing to the line not being open to Siliguri nearly if not all the tea we are now despatching from that station was going by the Carriage the quantity manufactured and available for the market during the period under review, as compared last marked.
